

SCHROFF EXHIBIT IN WATER COLORS SNEDICOR'S SHOP

(By Margaret Hensley)

An interesting collection of water colors by Dr. Alfred Schroff of the school of fine arts at the University of Oregon, is now on display at the Snedricor art studio in the Medford building. The exhibit will be open to the public until the first of the year.

Practically all of the half a hundred pictures are scenes of the western coast, a few portraying waterfront activities at Newport, Ore.

Many of the paintings received here yesterday have been shown in large art galleries in various parts of the United States, including Washington, D. C.; Seattle, Wash.; and Oakland, Cal.

Storm-swept trees in the open, sea views where the water appears to actually move as one looks at the picture, and quiet countryside are the favorite themes of Professor Schroff, whose work is nationally known. He cares nothing at all for buildings, preferring to paint things as they are where man has not interfered.

Richness in color and perfect blending of tones characterizes all of Dr. Schroff's art, both oil and water color.

Included in the group are the following outstanding pictures: "At Mooring," Venice, Italy; "Hocks and Sea," Newport, Ore.; "The Hidden Stream," "The High Dome," Newport; "Twisted Cypress Trees," "Apple Blossom Time" and "Sunlit Sea."

Two pencil studies by Kenneth Gordon Hulson of the University of Oregon were sent with the other pictures. These studies are the originals from which the beautiful mural paintings for the new men's dormitory recently completed on campus were made. One of the studies portrays music and religion symbolized by the figures of a young man playing a violin and a girl playing. The second picture is called "Art and Architecture."

In addition to the exhibit from the university, six crayon drawings by Tom Sedder, son of Mrs. Chandler Egan, are being shown. This young artist has been studying art under Cyril K. Scott in Santa Fe, and his work has been gaining favorable attention because of his exceptional ability in showing action to animals. For example, in one of the pictures a bucking horse and fearless rider are caught in mid-air.

Wall Street Report

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(AP)—The stock market gave an impressive demonstration of strength today in the face of a further stiffening in call money rates. Prices of several of the high priced specialties were marked up 8 to 16 1/2 points while a long line of standard industrials and callings moved up 1 to nearly 6 points. Trading, however, showed a marked contraction in volume.

Investment buying of high grade shares accelerated the advance in speculative issues in the final hour. Montgomery Ward jumped 13 points to 146, a new record. American Machine and Foundry, Packard, Goodyear, Du Pont, American Locomotive, Pittsburgh and West Virginia, Sears Roebuck, Davison Chemical and Murray Corporation moved up 4 to 7 points. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 3,500,000 shares.

Brisbane's Today

The horrified community calls it "a case of two wives swapping husbands." That very thing is done, less informally, in high society, after a trip to Paris or Reno.

After a month's desperate illness, King George still continues his courageous fight for life. No better Christmas present could come to the British people than news of the king's recovery. If he does recover it will be due largely to his wise and temperate living since boyhood.

Five million dollars worth of habit forming drugs, cocaine, etc. were taken in one New York seizure, on Tuesday.

How much "light beer and wine" would it take to do as much harm as $5,000,000 worth of drugs can do?

Earnest prohibitionists will say, "We don't want beer and wine OR drugs."

Unfortunately a choice between the two appears to be compulsory. Where you can't have one, you have the other.

Senator Durant of Connecticut, having made arrangements with an air company, will fly every week to spend Sunday at his winter home, in Palm Beach, Fla. He finds he can make the trip comfortably in 10 hours. That will seem slow in a year or two.

S. R. Capps, geologist, and Gerald Fitzgerald, topographic engineer, made an exploring trip in Alaska by airplane. Ordinarily a week train takes three weeks for that trip through the mountains. The airplane made it in one hour and a quarter. That is why the airplane is coming.

Struck by Stage
SALEM, Ore., Dec. 21.—(AP) G. W. Davis, about 65, died at a local hospital Friday morning, less than twelve hours after he was struck by a Pickwick stage, the highway three miles south of here at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night. Davis
