

Local and Personal

Today a holiday, tomorrow a business day, and next day Christmas, the greatest of all holidays, when all places of business will remain closed. Therefore, all road supplies must be purchased tomorrow to last over until Wednesday, and likewise all banking business must be done tomorrow that cannot wait over until Wednesday. And, of course the post-office will be closed all day Christmas.

Adrienne's. Choice of any hat up to $22.50 for $4.95. 274*

Homemade cakes, fruit cake and plum pudding. Marsh's Grocery. 2531*

Judge and Mrs. Glenn O. Taylor left early yesterday morning by auto on a two weeks' or more business and pleasure visit at Los Angeles and San Francisco, and will spend Christmas day with some long-time friends of the judge at Stockton.

Adrienne's. All winter coats at one-half price, regardless of cost. 274*

Watch for the new Chevrolet six, on display Dec. 28. 275*

The conditions of Margaret and Katherine Campbell, seven and nine-year-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell were last evening reported to be improving from severe stages of spinal meningitis by Dr. A. F. Kresse. The girls have fair chances of recovery, and since two days ago have shown remarkable improvement. No other cases of the disease have been reported in Medford or in Jackson county.

Daily's Taxi. Phone 15. New Studebaker sedan. 274*

Complete line of Parker pen sets and desk sets. Office Stationery & Supply Co., across from Rialto. 2741*

Motorists are again advised by State Traffic Lieutenant A. O. Nichols to make early applications for 1928 license plates, which must be ordered within the next two weeks, giving motorists the possible alternative to refrain from the use of their automobiles until they have made such applications. Early applications for license facilities matters both for the motorist and for the state department, which as a rule becomes swamped with business when motorists send applications in January.

The substantial price reduction in the latest and most successful radio offering of the Radio Corporation of America is expected to tremendously stimulate the demand for the new Radiola "60." This wonderfully selective instrument is sold and serviced by the Palmer Music House. Phone 788. Call them for a demonstration without obligation. 275*

Mrs. Delilla Stevens Meyer, county clerk, who returned Wednesday from the state convention of county clerks at Portland, has been confined to her home since her return with a mild attack of influenza.

Holiday nut treats in tasty gift packages, at Colvig Drugs, next to the Rialto. 274*

Emma Cline's Beauty Shop open every evening until Xmas eve, 274*

Regular dance Walker's Sat. night. 273*

A marriage license was issued last Wednesday afternoon to E. Herbert Richardson, 21, and Alma Tedrick, 18, both of Medford, and to Charles Blake of Ashland and Mrs. Olive Greene of Garibaldi. 273*

A claim to selectivity beyond comparison is one of the features of the new Radiola "60." Hear it demonstrated in your own home. Phone 788 and let us prove the claim. Palmer Music House. 275*

Two ride for the price of one. Heated cab. Black & White Cab. Phone 67. 276*

Sale of 4800 head of ewe lambs to M. Bero of Fresno, Cal., for $45,000 was announced at Klamath Falls last Thursday by Charles F. Delap, sheep buyer. The lambs were sold by Pat O'Keefe, Hugh O'Connor and Dennis O'Connor of Klamath county. 277*

Dance Xmas eve, Mon., Dec. 24. 275*

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Richard Grey, of Gold Hill, senior in vocational education, will receive a commission as second lieutenant in the officers' reserve corps, infantry of the U. S. army December 28. 278*

Delivered at your door, a six-cylinder Chevrolet as low as $894, fully equipped. 278*

George A. Coddling, district attorney-elect, who left several days ago on a business trip to Salem and Portland, is expected to return home Monday and it is thought that he found time while away to attend the annual convention of the district attorneys of the state. 277*

Medford Greenhouse for choice flowers for Christmas. Phone 374. Downtown sales at Colvig's Drug store. 274*

Free dance Saturday night, Dec. 22nd, at Merrick's dance pavilion. Popular and old time music. 274

Residents of Central Point look with disfavor on the move to build a new road from Lybee bridge to Medford, cutting Central Point off the now popular route of ranchers of the Table Rock and Sams Valley districts. The Bear Creek bridge reported as being in a poor condition, said one Central Pointer, is in good condition and only a few years ago was entirely rebuilt. They also point out that the county has spent much money in putting the Table Rock-Central Point road in excellent condition and declare that they can not see why the county should put itself to unnecessary expense. Many people have been cured from seemingly incurable diseases by J. E. Dierck, magnetic healer, 238 South Central. Phone 578 for information. 277

Delivered at your door, a six-cylinder Chevrolet as low as $894, fully equipped. 278*

City Councilman H. H. Hammond was elected second vice president of the League of Oregon Cities at the annual convention of that body held at Portland last Friday. 278*

Annual Xmas ball, Eagle Point, Xmas eve, Dec. 24. 278*

The greatest values in radios—the new Majestic and the Radiola 18 and 60. See them before deciding. Free demonstrations. Palmer Music House. 275*

Despite the weather reports for several days past forecasting probable rain or snow, and the cold weather that has been prevailing, it begins to look as though the Rogue River valley will have a white Christmas. 275*

Wood for the new Chevrolet six, on display Dec. 28. 273*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

Workers are busy at the old Peon place in Sams Valley, recently purchased by H. Von Hoevenberg, prominent orchardist, setting out new pear trees. There will be 80 acres of new orchards upon which will be planted 1000 new trees. The home place of Mr. Von Hoevenberg is being equipped with an underground spray system which will greatly facilitate the spraying of this large orchard. On one orchard the taps are placed every eight trees and on another part of the orchard they are placed at every seventh tree. The system is operated similar to a city water works and all spray material is pumped from one station and can be tapped in any part of the orchard. At the Von Hoevenberg place will be found one of the finest equipped orchards and packing plants in the valley. —Gold Hill News. 275*

Hemstitching at Russell's, 7c per yard. Work guaranteed. 290*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

John D. Hoist, of the United States forest service, will leave today, accompanied by his family, to spend the holidays visiting with relatives and friends in Long View, Washington, Portland and the Dalles. 278*

Dance Xmas eve, Mon., Dec. 24. 275*

Kincaid's Xmas dance Xmas eve, Monday, Dec. 24. 275*

In answer to personal tax notices sent out early last week, checks were pouring into the sheriff's office Friday and Saturday and covered amounts, ranging from 25 cents for a dog to several hundred dollars for store stocks. 278*

The outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet history, a six in the price range of the four, on display here Dec. 28. 278*

Holiday nut treats, toasted, fresh and good from all over the world at Colvig Drugs. 277*

Cal C. Wells, deputy United States marshal stationed in Medford, left last night to spend Christmas at Portland, his former home city. He expects to return here next Wednesday as he must go to Klamath Falls that day on official business. 278*

Doors and windows cheap at Medford Lumber Co. 277*

Give Fuller Brushes for Christmas. Tel. 1284-F evenings. 276*

Among the twelve students who graduated from the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland at the close of the fall quarter recently, was Marjory Smith of Medford. 278*

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Fenswald, Hotel Holland, Phone 93. 17*

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Don't fail to have the new Radiola "60" demonstrated to you before you purchase. Call 788 or the Palmer Music House. 275*

Adrienne's. Choice of any hat up to $22.50 for $4.95. 274*

Mr. and Mrs. H. Von Hoevenberg left Tuesday morning for San Francisco where Mrs. Von Hoevenberg will spend the winter. Mr. Von Hoevenberg will continue on to New York where he will make an extended visit. 277*

Buy your cigars for Christmas gifts from Hotel Medford cigar stand. Large stock of all leading brands. 2611*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

Miss Leona Marsters, instructor of music in the Normal school, has gone to Portland and other northern cities where she will spend her Christmas vacation with relatives. 277*

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Woody nut treats and glazed fruits to make your Christmas merrier, at Colvig Drugs, exclusive representatives of Buddy Squirrel. 277*

George A. Coddling, district attorney-elect, who left several days ago on a business trip to Salem and Portland, is expected to return home Monday and it is thought that he found time while away to attend the annual convention of the district attorneys of the state. 277*

Medford Greenhouse for choice flowers for Christmas. Phone 374. Downtown sales at Colvig's Drug store. 274*

Free dance Saturday night, Dec. 22nd, at Merrick's dance pavilion. Popular and old time music. 274

Residents of Central Point look with disfavor on the move to build a new road from Lybee bridge to Medford, cutting Central Point off the now popular route of ranchers of the Table Rock and Sams Valley districts. The Bear Creek bridge reported as being in a poor condition, said one Central Pointer, is in good condition and only a few years ago was entirely rebuilt. They also point out that the county has spent much money in putting the Table Rock-Central Point road in excellent condition and declare that they can not see why the county should put itself to unnecessary expense. Many people have been cured from seemingly incurable diseases by J. E. Dierck, magnetic healer, 238 South Central. Phone 578 for information. 277

Delivered at your door, a six-cylinder Chevrolet as low as $894, fully equipped. 278*

A light raid was conducted at Grants Pass last Wednesday night by a quartet of state traffic officers, with 21 tall to adjust lights in report to the justice of the peace without delay. Those taking part in the work were Lieut. J. O. Nichols, Chas. P. Talent, Herb Moore and Hubert Hoxie. 275*

Annual Xmas ball, Eagle Point, Xmas eve, Dec. 24. 278*

Buddy Squirrel's nut treats, fresh, crisp and good. Colvig Drugs, next to Rialto theater. 277*

F. L. Ballard, state leader of county agents with headquarters at Corvallis spent a day here last week conferring with the county agent's office on plans for the coming year's program in Jackson county. The complete program will not be released until January 1st. 275*

Hose mending, runners removed and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop. 2161*

Five lines of fine radios make the Palmer Music House the logical place for you to come before purchasing such an instrument. Radiola, Zenith, Majestic, Bosch and Stromberg Carlsone are familiar names throughout the industry. 275*

The various relief committees of the Elks lodge yesterday were gathering Christmas boxes of groceries for distribution for the needy next Monday. Supplies were gathered yesterday principally for the outlying sections of the county. 275*

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 17*

Homemade cakes, fruit cake and plum pudding. Marsh's Grocery. 2531*

Felt scraps, all colors, 25c a bunch at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181. 17*

Of interest to motor car owners is that by permission of the secretary of state new automobiles which had not heretofore been licensed, are appearing on the streets in the state with 1929 license plates. Motor vehicles licensed for 1928 must carry the old license plates until January 1, when the 1928 plates must be discarded in favor of the 1929 plates. It was announced. 275*

All kinds of hand-painted Christmas gifts for sale, reasonably priced. Black satin pillows and card table covers, handkerchief cases and handkerchief scarfs, lavender bags, vanity sets, etc. Phone 299-L or call 325 South Holly St. 2574*

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371*

Among the Oregon monthly pensions granted at Washington, D. C., last week was one of $30 to Bel. E. Richardson of Medford and one of $40 to Nancy E. Martin, also of Medford. 275*

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 17*

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Never molested by hunters ducks are plentiful at times at Squaw Lake, according to Orin Phillips, who was in Medford yesterday afternoon from that section. Recently he saw over 80 ducks on the lake at one time and during stormy weather fly to the lake as a haven of refuge, flying away during the morning following the storm. Mr. Phillips operates a ranch near the lake and yesterday was in the city with coyote and bobcat pelts, four in number. He killed one coyote near his ranch house after it had visited his chicken house several times, killing from one to two hens each time. 277*

Grange dance, Eagle Point, Sat. night. Everybody welcome. 273*

Don't fail to have the new Radiola "60" demonstrated to you before you purchase. Call 788 or the Palmer Music House. 275*

Adrienne's. Choice of any hat up to $22.50 for $4.95. 274*

Mr. and Mrs. H. Von Hoevenberg left Tuesday morning for San Francisco where Mrs. Von Hoevenberg will spend the winter. Mr. Von Hoevenberg will continue on to New York where he will make an extended visit. 277*

Buy your cigars for Christmas gifts from Hotel Medford cigar stand. Large stock of all leading brands. 2611*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

Miss Leona Marsters, instructor of music in the Normal school, has gone to Portland and other northern cities where she will spend her Christmas vacation with relatives. 277*

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Woody nut treats and glazed fruits to make your Christmas merrier, at Colvig Drugs, exclusive representatives of Buddy Squirrel. 277*

George A. Coddling, district attorney-elect, who left several days ago on a business trip to Salem and Portland, is expected to return home Monday and it is thought that he found time while away to attend the annual convention of the district attorneys of the state. 277*

Medford Greenhouse for choice flowers for Christmas. Phone 374. Downtown sales at Colvig's Drug store. 274*

Free dance Saturday night, Dec. 22nd, at Merrick's dance pavilion. Popular and old time music. 274

Residents of Central Point look with disfavor on the move to build a new road from Lybee bridge to Medford, cutting Central Point off the now popular route of ranchers of the Table Rock and Sams Valley districts. The Bear Creek bridge reported as being in a poor condition, said one Central Pointer, is in good condition and only a few years ago was entirely rebuilt. They also point out that the county has spent much money in putting the Table Rock-Central Point road in excellent condition and declare that they can not see why the county should put itself to unnecessary expense. Many people have been cured from seemingly incurable diseases by J. E. Dierck, magnetic healer, 238 South Central. Phone 578 for information. 277

Delivered at your door, a six-cylinder Chevrolet as low as $894, fully equipped. 278*

City Councilman H. H. Hammond was elected second vice president of the League of Oregon Cities at the annual convention of that body held at Portland last Friday. 278*

Annual Xmas ball, Eagle Point, Xmas eve, Dec. 24. 278*

The greatest values in radios—the new Majestic and the Radiola 18 and 60. See them before deciding. Free demonstrations. Palmer Music House. 275*

Despite the weather reports for several days past forecasting probable rain or snow, and the cold weather that has been prevailing, it begins to look as though the Rogue River valley will have a white Christmas. 275*

Wood for the new Chevrolet six, on display Dec. 28. 273*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

Workers are busy at the old Peon place in Sams Valley, recently purchased by H. Von Hoevenberg, prominent orchardist, setting out new pear trees. There will be 80 acres of new orchards upon which will be planted 1000 new trees. The home place of Mr. Von Hoevenberg is being equipped with an underground spray system which will greatly facilitate the spraying of this large orchard. On one orchard the taps are placed every eight trees and on another part of the orchard they are placed at every seventh tree. The system is operated similar to a city water works and all spray material is pumped from one station and can be tapped in any part of the orchard. At the Von Hoevenberg place will be found one of the finest equipped orchards and packing plants in the valley. —Gold Hill News. 275*

Hemstitching at Russell's, 7c per yard. Work guaranteed. 290*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

John D. Hoist, of the United States forest service, will leave today, accompanied by his family, to spend the holidays visiting with relatives and friends in Long View, Washington, Portland and the Dalles. 278*

Dance Xmas eve, Mon., Dec. 24. 275*

Kincaid's Xmas dance Xmas eve, Monday, Dec. 24. 275*

In answer to personal tax notices sent out early last week, checks were pouring into the sheriff's office Friday and Saturday and covered amounts, ranging from 25 cents for a dog to several hundred dollars for store stocks. 278*

The outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet history, a six in the price range of the four, on display here Dec. 28. 278*

Holiday nut treats, toasted, fresh and good from all over the world at Colvig Drugs. 277*

Cal C. Wells, deputy United States marshal stationed in Medford, left last night to spend Christmas at Portland, his former home city. He expects to return here next Wednesday as he must go to Klamath Falls that day on official business. 278*

Doors and windows cheap at Medford Lumber Co. 277*

Give Fuller Brushes for Christmas. Tel. 1284-F evenings. 276*

Among the twelve students who graduated from the Southern Oregon Normal school at Ashland at the close of the fall quarter recently, was Marjory Smith of Medford. 278*

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Fenswald, Hotel Holland, Phone 93. 17*

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Don't fail to have the new Radiola "60" demonstrated to you before you purchase. Call 788 or the Palmer Music House. 275*

Adrienne's. Choice of any hat up to $22.50 for $4.95. 274*

Mr. and Mrs. H. Von Hoevenberg left Tuesday morning for San Francisco where Mrs. Von Hoevenberg will spend the winter. Mr. Von Hoevenberg will continue on to New York where he will make an extended visit. 277*

Buy your cigars for Christmas gifts from Hotel Medford cigar stand. Large stock of all leading brands. 2611*

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 17*

Miss Leona Marsters, instructor of music in the Normal school, has gone to Portland and other northern cities where she will spend her Christmas vacation with relatives. 277*

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Woody nut treats and glazed fruits to make your Christmas merrier, at Colvig Drugs, exclusive representatives of Buddy Squirrel. 277*

George A. Coddling, district attorney-elect, who left several days ago on a business trip to Salem and Portland, is expected to return home Monday and it is thought that he found time while away to attend the annual convention of the district attorneys of the state. 277*

Medford Greenhouse for choice flowers for Christmas. Phone 374. Downtown sales at Colvig's Drug store. 274*

Free dance Saturday night, Dec. 22nd, at Merrick's dance pavilion. Popular and old time music. 274

Residents of Central Point look with disfavor on the move to build a new road from Lybee bridge to Medford, cutting Central Point off the now popular route of ranchers of the Table Rock and Sams Valley districts. The Bear Creek bridge reported as being in a poor condition, said one Central Pointer, is in good condition and only a few years ago was entirely rebuilt. They also point out that the county has spent much money in putting the Table Rock-Central Point road in excellent condition and declare that they can not see why the county should put itself to unnecessary expense. Many people have been cured from seemingly incurable diseases by J. E. Dierck, magnetic healer, 238 South Central. Phone 578 for information. 277

Delivered at your door, a six-cylinder Chevrolet as low as $894, fully equipped. 278*

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

The sum of $1000 each was bequeathed to F. S. Moore, Beatrice Ahlstrom and Bessie Hamaker by Beatrice's father, Attorney W. J. Moore, who died a short time ago in Ashland, according to his last will and testament on file yesterday at the court house. The will also provided that his son is to receive his father's gold watch and chain and all other jewelry. Outside of a bequest of $250 to Anna Moore of Lakeview and the willing of his law library and equipment to his brother, C. A. Moore, the remainder of the estate was bequeathed to his wife, Anna Moore. Adrienne's all velvet and satin dresses, one-half price. 274*

With the snow reported to be in poor condition in the Siskiyou mountains, winter recreationists today will turn toward the snow above Prospect and around Union Creek, where enough is expected to be found for an enjoyable day of skiing. One party planning to go to the snow will be composed of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. King, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jennings, Miss Margaret Hensley, Miss Josephine Koppes, Miss Hazel Lynum, Miss Rosalie Root, Clarence Shely, Earl Weaver, and William Foley. 274*

Miss Gwendolyn Houston, who has been attending Normal school in San Jose, Cal., is spending the holidays with her parents at Trail and was among the visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon. Adrienne's all velvet and satin dresses one-half price. 274*

We double fork our coal—no dust. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 17*

Miss Lyle Gregory and Lucille Abbott, who have been attending the San Jose Normal school, are also home and according to plans, they will continue their studies in the Ashland Normal following the holidays. 274*

Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co. 2371*

See Charles A. Wing to buy your home. 2828

Ralph Cowgill is home from a trip to Portland on business connected with the game commission. 278*

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Get those fenders and bodies straightened at Brill's Sheet Metal Works, opposite Lewis Super Service Station. Phone 415. 260*

Miss Myrtle Tobey, an instructor in the local high school, will undergo an operation for gonorrhea while in Portland during the vacation. Miss Tobey expects to return about the twentieth of January. 277*

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 17*

Adrienne's. All winter coats at one-half price, regardless of cost. 274*

Watch for the new Chevrolet six, on display Dec. 28. 275*

The conditions of Margaret and Katherine Campbell, seven and nine-year-old daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell were last evening reported to be improving from severe stages of spinal meningitis by Dr. A. F. Kresse. The girls have fair chances of recovery, and since two days ago have shown remarkable improvement. No other cases of the disease have been reported in Medford or in Jackson county. 275*

Daily's Taxi. Phone 15. New Studebaker sedan. 274*

Complete line of Parker pen sets and desk sets. Office Stationery & Supply Co., across from Rialto. 2741*

Motorists are again advised by State Traffic Lieutenant A. O. Nichols to make early applications for 1928 license plates, which must be ordered within the next two weeks, giving motorists the possible alternative to refrain from the use of their automobiles until they have made such applications. Early applications for license facilities matters both for the motorist and for the state department, which as a rule becomes swamped with business when motorists send applications in January. 275*

The substantial price reduction in the latest and most successful radio offering of the Radio Corporation of America is expected to tremendously stimulate the demand for the new Radiola "60." This wonderfully selective instrument is sold and serviced by the Palmer Music House. Phone 788. Call them for a demonstration without obligation. 275*

Mrs. Delilla Stevens Meyer, county clerk, who returned Wednesday from the state convention of county clerks at Portland, has been confined to her home since her return with a mild attack of influenza. 275*

Holiday nut treats in tasty gift packages, at Colvig Drugs, next to the Rialto. 274*

Emma Cline's Beauty Shop open every evening until Xmas eve, 274*

Regular dance Walker's Sat. night. 273*

A marriage license was issued last Wednesday afternoon to E. Herbert Richardson, 21, and Alma Tedrick, 18, both of Medford, and to Charles Blake of Ashland and Mrs. Olive Greene of Garibaldi. 273*

A claim to selectivity beyond comparison is one of the features of the new Radiola "60." Hear it demonstrated in your own home. Phone 788 and let us prove the claim. Palmer Music House. 275*

Two ride for the price of one. Heated cab. Black & White Cab. Phone 67. 276*

Sale of 4800 head of ewe lambs to M. Bero of Fresno, Cal., for $45,000 was announced at Klamath Falls last Thursday by Charles F. Delap, sheep buyer. The lambs were sold by Pat O'Keefe, Hugh O'Connor and Dennis O'Connor of Klamath county. 277*

Dance Xmas eve, Mon., Dec. 24. 275*