

EAGLE POINT CITY COUNCIL CHANGES ON JANUARY 8TH

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The city council of Eagle Point will meet on its business affairs and the change of administration will take place January 8th, the second Tuesday of the month. All new business will be taken up by the new officers and councilmen for the ensuing year: Mayor, C. F. Davies; treasurer, H. E. Campbell; recorder, Floyd Pierce; councilmen, Sam Cox, Gen. Phillips, Jack Stowell, Floyd Wilson and Tom Seaman.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Humphrey returned home from California in time to do their Christmas shopping in Medford. Mr. Humphrey has a brother, Orve Humphrey, at Burbank, an uncle, Chas. Humphrey at San Diego, and uncle Jim Humphrey at Ocean Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Humphrey enjoyed a very pleasant trip. Their trip was chiefly to visit with Uncle Jim who has passed away since their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cowden entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Smith and baby boy of Klamath Falls.

Sam Cox was delivering wood in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cowden and family of Eagle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Smith and son of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Tugate and family took dinner Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Ella Smith at Hutto Falls.

T. J. Pullen, F. Holz, F. Stralhorn, L. O. Gaster, W. J. Jocky, Mrs. Fred Dutton, Ben Kinney, Perry Clarke, Paul Force, J. M. Philbrook and Rudy Weidman were all trading at the Faber & Chirgwin store this week.

Our community was saddened Thursday morning when we heard of the death of Mrs. W. C. Daley at her home in Eagle Point. Although falling in health for many years, death came unexpected. Mrs. Daley was one of the old pioneers of southern Oregon. Besides her husband, W. C. Daley, she leaves four children and five grandchildren to mourn her loss. Mertie Van der Helten, her daughter, was in the hospital in Medford, suffering from an attack of flu at the time of Mrs. Daley's death.

One of the oldest and best beloved of the early women pioneers of Jackson county passed away when Mrs. Elizabeth A. Van der Helten died at her home on Christmas day, and surrounded by her children, quietly went to sleep.

Although the flu epidemic has apparently about spent its force, there are still some who feel its effects. Among those are Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and family, who during the Christmas holidays were all in bed with a bad attack of flu, but are feeling better at this writing.

Mrs. Roy Ashpole is still under the care of Dr. Emmets and is taking treatments twice a week. Mrs. Ashpole is afraid that it may call for a minor operation.

Mrs. Carl Taylor of Portland, who has been visiting her parents during Christmas in San Francisco, will join her husband, Carl Taylor, in Eagle Point Saturday, and will visit with Mr. Taylor's mother until Sunday, when they will return to their home in Portland. Mrs. Taylor is a teacher of domestic science in one of the city schools and Mr. Taylor is the son of Mrs. Royal Brown.

Rev. Lawrence of Medford came out Friday to be present at a meeting of the board of trustees of the Presbyterian church.

Services are being held as usual at the Presbyterian church, Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and mid-week service every Thursday at 7:45 p. m. The mid-week meeting is very interesting, the subject being "The Life of Christ" by Mr. Patterson.

Rev. Morgan, who has been ill in bed for some time, is now greatly improved. Out of town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Young of Phoenix and Mr. and Mrs. Thronson of Oakland, Cal. Lovely flowers and plants have been sent to Rev. Morgan during his illness. The Christian Endeavor of Hutto Falls sent very lovely gifts, roses and chrysanthemums. The Christian Endeavor of Phoenix sent a cyclamen; Eagle Point Grange a cyclamen; Presbytery of southern Oregon a cyclamen; Presbyterian church of Eagle Point sent very many lovely flowers; Eagle Point high school student body, flowers; Mr. and Mrs. Young of Phoenix a poinsettia. The boys and girls are banded up and look lovely. They are all in the fairest and finest condition and give a great deal of pleasure to the Morgan family.

Funeral services for Mrs. W. C. Daley of Eagle Point, who passed away at midnight on December 25, were held at the family home in Eagle Point at 2 p. m. Saturday afternoon. Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton of Medford officiated, and she was laid to rest in the Central Point cemetery. A large number of relatives and friends gathered at the home for the last rites. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

HAMMEL FAMILY RETURNS TO HOME ON REESE CREEK

RESE CREEK, Ore., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—W. Hammel and wife returned to their home at Reese Creek last Thursday for an indefinite stay. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back. Mr. Hammel was one of the largest tracts of land under the Eagle Point Irrigation system and was formerly a director, resigning some two years ago when he went east to enter business.

Grandma and Grandpa Robertson are very proud of the recent arrival of their great-grandchild.

O. O. Chambers and daughters, Frieda and Amy, former residents of Reese Creek, were present at Sunday school and church last Sunday.

The Sunday school lesson for last Sunday was on St. Paul's last message written to Timothy, near the close of the apostle's earthly life. He told him to preach the word, reprove, rebuke and exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine, knowing that the time would come when they would not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned into fables.

Rev. John Sullie preached from the text found in II Tim. 4:7, "I have fought a good fight." He brought out that St. Paul was not only a fighter but a good fighter and was not only in a fight but a good fight. He went on further to say that St. Paul had a course in life and as indicated in the text had lasting faith in that course, a course not new but one that many had tried out before him and had proved to be the best by test, John Bunyan, who wrote the Pilgrim's Progress, was devoted to take the above course after reading the lives of those who had made the race.

The date for prayer meeting has been changed from Thursday night to Wednesday. The attendance has been good and the answers to prayer have been many.

DRYING SHIRTS BRING RESCUERS IN STORM

USHANT, France (AP)—Distress signals seen by the light-house keeper here caused him to send a government tug through a storm of serious risk to rescue the lighthouse keeper at Kerou, a mile off shore. Through his glasses he had seen the frantic waving of white cloths which turned out to be shirts drying in the wind.

FARMING BY ELECTRICITY

In addition to the major load of pumping, the farms of California make use of electricity for practically all domestic appliances. The survey for 1928 indicates:

- 8,200 electric water heaters
- 21,900 electric washing machines
- 21,700 electric vacuum cleaners
- 10,400 room heaters
- 7,500 electric sewing machines
- 1,200 electric refrigerators
- 1,000 ironing machines
- 42,300 electric irons
- 1,100 electric ranges

whereas the number of other appliances runs into the thousands.
