

NEWS of the DAY in PICTURES

SPRAY DASHES ALL OVER THE FOC'SLE HEAD as the United States cruiser Pittsburgh, flagship of the Asiatic fleet, plows into a head sea while proceeding from Guam to Shanghai.

DICTATOR of Spain, Primo de Rivera, poses for this new picture in the private study of his home in Madrid.

HOT WEATHER SPORTS AREN'T THE ONLY ONES CALIFORNIA OFFERS—and here's the evidence to prove it. All three of these pictures were taken on the same day within three hours' ride of Los Angeles. Above, a row of fisherwomen are trying their luck on a barge anchored off Long Beach. Below, left, George Brock and Lucille Mead are doing a bit of aquaplaning at Catalina Island. Right, less than 70 miles away, a group of coasters is enjoying a deep snow in the Los Angeles County Park, situated on a mountain at an altitude of 7000 feet.

HELIUM GAS FOR UNCLE SAM'S BIG SILVER AIRSHIPS is now transported across the country in two new tank cars, especially designed for the purpose and owned by the army air corps. Three large cylinders, holding enough helium to inflate any army blimp, are on each car. This shows one of them, with the dirigible TC-8 in the background.

BEST OF ALL detectives, these two bloodhounds, who have tracked down several murderers, are being given a little additional training by Trooper John Murphy of the New Jersey state police at the training grounds at Princeton Junction, N. J.

SPICK AND SPAN AS A TOY CITY IN A GLASS SHOW CASE, Paris the Magnificent shows off to especial advantage in this aerial view. In the lower center is the famous Arc de Triomphe, erected in honor of Napoleon's victories, beneath which France's Unknown Soldier lies buried.

STEPPING ALONG toward fame and fortune is pretty Loretta Young, who entered the movies only a comparatively short time ago and who is now playing opposite Richard Barthelme in his latest picture, "Scarlet Seas."

SILHOUETTED AGAINST THE SUNSET SKY, this huge tri-motored Ford airplane circles into the wind and prepares to land at the Wichita (Kas.) airport after an all-day trip.

LONGEST BRIDGE SPAN ON EARTH—the great Ambassador Bridge over the Detroit river, connecting Detroit with the border cities of Canada—is now taking shape and is expected to be ready for traffic by the first of next July. This shows the present structure, viewed from the Canadian side.

DANCE OF THE GOLLIWOGS, they call this, and perhaps they're right. Hans Weiner, famous Viennese dancer, is in the center, teaching the steps to Patricia Bowman (left) and Ruth Porter in the Roxy Theater, New York.

JET BLACK gowns set off with white lace form the best background for feminine beauty, according to the Hollywood specialists. Here's Mary Brian proving that they're right.

BRICK AND STEEL MINGLE WITH WOOD AND PAPER in the Tokio of today, when old Japan and the twentieth century touch elbows without clashing. This aerial view of a section of downtown Tokio show modern office buildings and stores in the foreground, with the one-story Japanese houses in the background.
