

ARRANGE OFFICES ACCOUNT CHANGES COUNTY OFFICERS

With the advent of the New Year and the rearrangement of official duties that went into effect as a result of the November election, yesterday was a general housecleaning day among the local legal lights.

Former District Attorney Newton C. Chaney spent most of the day helping George Codding get settled in the office of district attorney in the Liberty building. Attorney Codding will keep the same quarters that he held when in private practice, adding the former offices of Frank DeStouza for George Nilson, his deputy.

Newton C. Chaney will take up private practice in his same suite of offices, discarding the former reception room to the south, which he does not need. Mr. Chaney states that he will not take on a partner at this time.

MEYERS IS BUYER DENISON GARAGE

O. V. Myers recently purchased the John Denison property on North Riverside just a half block off Main street that has been the home of the Buick auto agency for over two years.

The building has a 50-foot front on Riverside avenue and is 106 feet deep, is of concrete throughout and built on a second story can be added when desired.

It is the intention of Mr. Myers to make the building the future home of Studelaker cars and Ford cars and trucks when Scherer Brothers secure other quarters.

Mr. Myers is showing his faith in Medford by adding to his present property interests which consist of a half block of ground between Fifth and Sixth streets, a half block west of the federal building, a duplex apartment house just north of this property and his home on South Oakdale.

Seek Farm Hand. CANAL, PULTON, Ohio, Jan. 8. (AP)—A young farm hand, known only as Edward, was sought today in connection with the slaying of John Over, 39, well-to-do Canal Pulton farmer, and his wife, Bertha. The bodies were discovered yesterday morning by the Over's six-year-old son, George.

WARD HOME NEAR EAGLE POINT HAS BAD FIRE THREAT

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Jan. 8. (Special)—A fire broke out and came near demolishing the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ward Monday morning. The fire started in the pipe leading to the fine and burned through two cupboards and the bedroom floors, doing much damage.

Mr. Ward and Gerald happened to be pruned nearby and heard the screams of Mrs. Ward as the smoke spread from the cupboard and through the house. Mr. Ward is thankful that the Medford water supply is running through their place. Only for that the home would have been gutted.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church of Eagle Point met at the home of Mrs. S. B. Holmes and enjoyed an all-day quilting bee Wednesday. They quilted one very elaborate quilt and tied several others. The following ladies were present: Mrs. S. B. Holmes, Mrs. Royal Brown, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Castor, Mrs. Amy Brown, Mrs. Sam Johnson, Mrs. John Rader, Mrs. Swazy, Mrs. Hankins, Mrs. Pruitt and Mrs. Van Scoy.

A few of the ladies met Thursday afternoon to finish the work. Mr. and Mrs. Coy entertained Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. W. Holman and family, Grandma Coy, Grandma Taylor, Mrs. Mabel Harsh and children, and Mrs. Theron Taylor and son, Billy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Eiden entertained at dinner Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of Butte Falls.

Mr. Corwell is working in and around Eagle Point soliciting for the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Grover were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Perry Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Rodgers of Medford, grandchildren of David and Mrs. Prince, also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox of Portland (Mrs. Cox is the daughter of Mrs. Prince) all enjoyed a pleasant New Year's eve visit with Mr. and Mrs. David Prince of Eagle Point. It is not generally known that Mrs. Prince is blind and Mr. Prince is deaf, so that visitors to their home are always welcome.

The Parent-Teachers' association will hold the regular monthly meeting Friday, January 11, at 3 p. m., in Miss Atkins' room. The intermediate will furnish the entertainment and reports of the December committees will be heard.

Fred Peterson was in town on Wednesday having some work done at our local blacksmith shop.

Vance Pierce spent the New Year's holidays with his aunt and uncle in Applegate, visiting from Sunday until Thursday. Miss Grace Pierce of Applegate accompanied him home and will spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pierce of Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Campbell of Eagle Point were Saturday shoppers in Medford.

Ralph Hunt, who has been suffering for the last week with an abscess and was under the care of Dr. Emmens of Medford, underwent a minor operation and is now recuperating nicely.

Our New Year's day the Medford Mail Tribune honored the Grangers of Jackson county by giving them the front page. Photos of each Grange master were very good, but more especially the masters of Eagle Point. The record of the different Granges is very interesting to read, and the readers of the Mail Tribune can learn from the page that the Grange is marching on. Ross Kline, the retiring master, served faithfully for three years and always emphasized that home grown products were the best. Al Mittelstadt, the newly elected master, is the right man in the right place and with him at the head our Grange will keep marching on.

Grants Pass Creamery, home of "Maid of Cream Butter," reports that it is establishing quite a good cream route around Eagle Point. A new Ford and a half-ton truck are sent twice a week gathering up the cream. As the driver takes the can he hands out the check for the last can. Their policy is to "pay as they go."

Sunday school is held every Sunday morning at the Union Gospel church in Eagle Point. The newly elected officers are Superintendent, Charles C. Wade; assistant superintendent, Reroy Jackson; treasurer, Verna Cingcade; secretary, Mr. Everett of Los Angeles. The public is cordially invited to come and join in the worship. Every Sunday morning at 10.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Farm Bureau Cooperative Exchange was held at the Hotel Medford last Saturday when a goodly number of the Eagle Point farmers attended. Among those present were Karl Each, Gene Wilows, Sam Johnson, H. French, Ross Kline, Sam Harsh, Lester Throckmorton, Conrad Englehart, George Givan, George Stowell, Charley Givan, Anna Swazy and R. A. Wiedman.

The Civic Improvement club and the Ladies' Aid society combined will hold an all-day meeting Thursday, January 10, in Brown's hall. These ladies have a big day's work before them being comforters and quilting quilts. The quilting bees are not ancient history yet. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon such as these ladies know how to prepare.

Mrs. C. A. Pruitt was a pleasant caller last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mittelstadt were callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wiedman.

Don't forget the dance at the Lake Kinkaid hall Saturday night. The Kinkaid orchestra will furnish the music.
