Deputy District Attorney Says Keyes Wanted to Help Rosenberg — Fitts Delivers Scathing Denunciation of Predecessor.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Deputy District Attorney Julian Richardson, prosecutor of the Julian Petroleum fines, testified that Keyes told him on the last day of the Julian trial that he wanted to do something for Ed Rosenberg, one of the principal figures.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Asa Keyes, former district attorney of Los Angeles county on trial for bribery and conspiracy in office today was slated to hear state's witnesses testify alleged overt acts against him. Yesterday, the veteran lawyer listened with bowed head while his successor, Burton W. Fitts, delivered a scathing denunciation of his former chief.

Fitts' statement to the jury, which lasted an hour, painted Keyes as "associate, confidante and receiver of money and costly gifts" from Julian Petroleum case defendants. He was then prosecuting. Only the district attorney's voice broke the silence of the court room as Fitts heaped one charge upon another in outlining what the state expects to prove.

The state will show, Fitts said, that Keyes received $125,000 for obtaining dismissal of charges against Ed Rosenberg. He listed payments of $27,500 from Jack Bennett to Ben Getoff, former traffic engineer, claiming that Getoff told Bennett that Keyes "needed the money" to pay off gambling debts and buy a new home.

The jury will be locked up for the remainder of the trial. That order was given yesterday by Superior Judge Edwin L. Butler, following Fitts' statement, and after charges of jury tampering had been made on the opening day of the trial.

Keyes, acting as one of the own attorneys, replied to Fitts' statement "It is one thing to make these allegations in a statement and another to prove them. I am positive the evidence will not bear them out."

Fitts declared that not only Keyes, but also Mrs. Keyes and her daughter, Elizabeth, will be shown as recipients of gifts in con-

GAS WAR UNCHECKED BY ORGANIZATION OF PORTLAND RETAILERS

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—In the face of the organization last night of the Portland Retail Gasoline Dealers' Protective association there was little chance to be seen today in the status of Portland's gasoline price war. The price range during the forenoon was from 15 1/2 cents, to which figure it dropped in many stations during the war, to 21 1/2 cents, the "ante-bellum" price.

Many operators, however, hinted that the price might drop during the day. The protective association was organized by A. S. Vosberg, attorney, who said he was acting for representatives of the group. He issued a statement last night saying an immediate cessation in the price cutting could not be expected.

The retail dealers' association came as an apparent surprise to most of the 400 dealers at the meeting, as well as to 30 garage owners who had planned to urge service station operators to join the Portland Automobile Trades association.

PRODUCE SHOWING LITTLE CHANGE IN PORTLAND PRICES

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—Fruits, vegetables and dairy products showed little change today from Wednesday's quotation. The only difference in eggs was on medium firsts, which went up one cent higher from 39 to 41. Butter dropped one cent to 42 cents on firsts.

Rejuvenated potatoes, by some called new potatoes, were being offered at 7 cents. Beaches bakers were held at $1.75. First grade at $1.50, and choice Yakimas at $1.25 a hundred. These were wholesale prices.

The onion market is still firmer at $4.50 to $4.75 with the prediction that the price will soon soar above 15.

Oranges and lemons remained unchanged. Larger sized grapefruit was getting scarce and dealers were advising purchase of the smaller sizes.

Bananas were scarce and of poor quality mostly. Dressed meats were stationary.

Wall Street Report, NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Easier credit conditions and favorable trade news, including an unexpectedly large increase of 303,712 tons in the unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation last night, provided the groundwork for another brisk advance in prices in today's stock market. Renewal of selling pressure against some leading industrials caused a temporary sinking spell around midday, but fresh buying support was quickly supplied, and a long list of issues advanced 3 to 10 1/2 points above yesterday's final quotations.

Both E. S. Steel and General Motors were heavy late in the session, but most other stocks advanced smartly with the demand keen for particular issues. St. Paul preferred crossed 81 to the highest level since reorganization and Studebaker around 88 was at the best figure in five years. The closing was firm. Sales approximated 4,000,000.

POLICEMEN FOIL PLOT, (Continued from Page One.) The plan, Holt said, was to lure Wood to the doorway of his office, beat him unconscious, carry him to an isolated spot to be killed, and leave the body with narcotics stuffed in his pockets so police, when they found it, might think Wood had been killed as the result of a dope feud.

Police of Detroit, Riverview and Wyandotte, deputy sheriffs, state police and newspaper men surrounded the isolated frame structure which houses the construction company offices late yesterday afternoon to await the coming of the conspirators.

At 10 o'clock two men crept through the heavy shrubbery in front of the office building. One, Haggerty, hid behind an ornamental urn beside the office door. The other was Holt who, in accordance with the plot, stepped to the door and called Wood.

An Wood stepped onto the porch the concealed man leaped toward him with a lifted blackjack. At the same instant Wood, who has but one arm, fired. Haggerty fell dead. As the shot sounded a car, occupied by two men, drove to the walk leading to the office and its occupants opened fire upon the group on the porch.

Immediately a fusillade of shots burst from the shrubbery, and the car, with windshield shattered, sped away.
