BELLVIEW LADIES HOLD AN ALL-DAY CLUB GATHERING

BELLVIEW, Ore., Jan. 11.—(Special)—The Upper Valley Community club met in the club rooms on Wednesday, January 9, for an all-day meeting.

A wonderful covered dish luncheon was served to 16 members at noon. The afternoon was very profitably spent with a business meeting at which many matters of importance were discussed.

Mrs. Mabel Mack was with the members at this meeting and gave a very interesting talk on "Salads—kinds, when and how to make."

Some interesting news was made by the ladies and later discussed as to whether they were properly balanced. The ladies also tackled a very pretty comfort during the afternoon.

The new silver for the club kitchen was received by the members. They are happy that they now have dishes and silver for the kitchen. New lockers are to be added to the dining room in order that the newly acquired fixtures may be made secure against thieves.

The ladies discussed ways and means to pay insurance on their building. It was not definitely decided, but an old fashioned dance was suggested for Valentine day; also an old fashioned box social and program to be given before that time.

The next meeting will be held on the second Wednesday of February with Mrs. L. D. Meservey and Mrs. T. A. Merryman as hostesses.

Mrs. J. L. Künzler is confined to her home with an infected ankle. The doctor in charge, however, promises to have her cured within a short time.

Mrs. Jackson Gyger of Nell Creek was in attendance at the Bellview club meeting Wednesday.

Mrs. W. G. Tucker and Mrs. W. D. Jackson were in Medford on business Saturday afternoon.

Art Edwards was taken to a Medford hospital the last of the week, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.
