DYNAMITE BLASTS MINING RESERVOIR ON FOOTS CREEK

FOOTS CREEK, Ore., Jan. 11.—(Special)—Clay Biles returned to his home last Saturday night from the hospital in Medford. His right side was affected by the poison and his hand is now in a serious condition.

J. H. Short visited his mother, who lives in Phoenix. She is Mrs. L. Short. She is sick in bed with a bad cold.

Fred Lates' largest reservoir was dynamited last Thursday night. The bank was so thick it held and only $30 or $40 worth of damage was done.

Mrs. Bertha Poyer left Tuesday to go back to Applegate. She is keeping house in Applegate for Herman Walter.

A new year's work has commenced in Sunday school. Attendance has been poor on account of the prevalence of sickness but it is to be hoped that regular work will soon be in order again.

DIVINE HEALING SERVICE BY EVANGELIST SCOTT

(Contributed) The sick will be prayed for tonight at the Tabernacle, Newtown near Main. Evangelist Scott preached a powerful sermon last night and a good attendance was on hand.

Services are being held every night this week. Sunday will be the crowning day of the week and good crowds are expected at both meetings.

Classes for all in the Bible school at 9:45 a. m. and young folks' services at 6:30 p. m.

Shredded Wheat Advertising Returns to Mail Tribune

After an absence of some time "Shredded Wheat" returns to the columns tonight beginning a schedule for 1929. This is one of the most useful whole wheat products that is nationally advertised.

The company advertises "a shredded wheat biscuit is just the kind of food for breakfast that starts one out feeling fit for the busiest day. Food for everyone, vitality, strength—plus all the brain of the whole wheat. Perfect food for growing youngsters—and they like it too."

Shredded Wheat has a splendid program every Monday at 10:30 over coast radios.

Obituary

CAMPBELL.—William N. Campbell, well known resident of Medford, where he has resided for the last 21 years, passed away at his home, 115 King street, at 10 p. m. yesterday, following an illness of one week. Mr. Campbell was born in Adams county, Virginia, December 16, 1854, aged 74 years and 24 days. He was the last of a family of four children. At the age of 5 years he moved with his parents to Wisconsin, where he grew to manhood on the farm. In 1882 moved to North Dakota and three years later was married to Lillie J. McCune and they were born three children—Mrs. C. O. Pinkerton of North Dakota, Charles J. Campbell of the Campbell Clothing company of this city and Mrs. Donald Springer of Portland. Mr. Campbell spent many years in the newspaper business and was also active in the real estate business. He was later married at James town, N. D., to Hattie Carr. They were born two children—William Jr. of Medford and Mrs. William Webster of Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Campbell also survives. He was a member of Medford Lodge, P. B. O. Elks, and also the Masonic order. The remains are at the Conger funeral parlors, where arrangements are being made for the funeral, which will be announced soon.

McLarin to Fight NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(AP) Joe Glick, the lightweight pants-presser from Williamsburg, battles Jimmy McLarin in the 16 round feature bout in Madison Square Garden tonight.

The bout is at 138 pounds for McLarin no longer can make the lightweight limit and will campaign as a welterweight hereafter.
