

EAGLE POINT GRANGE HOST FOR CEREMONY

(By Mrs. Gertrude Haak)

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Jan. 12.—(Special)—These items appear a bit late, but the correspondent has been quite ill and unable to get out the copy sooner. We hope that since we are relieved of the heavy burden of Grange work which we have been carrying for several years (both county and subordinate), we will be able to devote more time to the official publicity. We believe that proper publicity is a strong factor in building up our Grange and in increasing attendance by letting our people know what the Grange is doing.

It is so easy to get in the habit of staying at home on Grange night, especially these cold nights, but if our Grange is to do the work it should do, and can do, we must have the loyal support of every member.

There is no meeting of the Grange that does not have some question come up during the business session or the lecture hour that is of vital importance to the farmers and the people of the rural community. And so, farmers and members, remember that the Grange is working for your interests. Come and help us work for your own and your neighbors' interest.

The Eagle Point Grange has had a constructive program from the beginning, with an enthusiastic and energetic group of members always willing to help wherever they are placed, and with their four small corners and "I in mine," the work is accomplished without it being too great a burden to anyone.

So we greet the membership and wish the Grange a happy and prosperous year, hoping that each member will do his or her bit to make the whole come out right.

One of the beautiful things about the New Year coming every twelve months is that with the New Year one always feels like making a new start and new resolutions and, while one does not often carry out all the new resolutions, yet there is the recognition of mistakes made in the past and a desire to do better, and that means a great deal in the race of life. And so, with the clean, new page of a new year before our Grange, and with the mistakes of the past still fresh in our memory, let us try to keep our Grange year of 1929 as free from blot and soil as is humanly possible.

Our Grange made a splendid beginning in starting its year's work on New Year's night. This was a most interesting and profitable meeting.

Joint Installation

Worthy Master I. R. Kline had arranged for a joint installation of officers with other Granges in the county. This was the first joint installation ever held in the county and was a splendid success. Officers of four Granges were installed: Lake Creek, Jacksonville, Sams Valley and Eagle Point.

As the long line of officers, 44 in number, filed into the hall and marched around the room, they were heartily cheered and it was an impressive sight. The beautiful ceremony was impressive throughout and we believe will furnish a real inspiration to the many Granges taking part for their work during the year.

Those in charge of the work were Mrs. Gertrude Haak, installing officer; Mrs. Luella Kline, regalia bearer; Mrs. Grace Couvée, emblem bearer; Mrs. Julia Dawdes, conductress.

The principles upon which the Grange is founded, its lofty ideals and high aims, as well as the earnest instructions to its officers, as set forth in the installation ceremony, cannot help but inspire officers and members alike with a love for a loyalty to our order. And love and loyalty are the motive power for intelligent labor.

We hope that this auspicious beginning of our Grange work on New Year's day augurs well for a year of successful Grange activities and continued social and economic cooperation by the several Granges in the county.

It was with a feeling of sadness that we saw our master for the past three years step out of his position as our leader and into the ranks. Under his leadership we have had three years of unprecedented development for our community. And under his leadership we have built up a Grange which (numerically speaking) is second in the state, but which is fifth to none in its activities, its loyalty and co-operative spirit. This has not been done, however, without its attendant heartaches, discouragements and difficulties. But today finds us more united, more loyal, more hopeful and more ready for the work to come than ever before.

Given Never Absent

It was with the same twofold feeling of the heartstrings that we saw our secretary, Charlie Given, who has been our secretary since reorganization, escorted from his post by the conductress to a place in the ranks. Good natured and courteous, faithful, efficient, diplomatic and ethical are the qualifications we place after his name. Charlie Given is the only member of our Grange who can claim the distinction of never having missed a business meeting of the Grange since its organization nearly four years ago.

Following closely upon that record came Tommy Given, gatekeeper since reorganization and now steward; I. R. Kline, master for the past three years; Mrs. Gertrude Haak, lecturer for three years, who have each missed but two business meetings.

Our new master, Alfred Mittelsteadt, goes into office with the full support of a loyal membership who have faith in his integrity and in his ability to handle the duties appertaining to his office with judgment and success.

His address to the Grange (upon attaining the chair) is characteristic of his personality. It was practically as follows:

"I suppose that you will expect me to tell you what I want to do this coming year, also what I intend to do. I can do that in a very few words. I want you to live up to the principles of the Grange and I intend to live up to the obligation which I took here tonight. It is my hope that we will have a successful year."

The New Year's eve dance netted a neat sum for the building fund of the Grange, as well as furnishing a jolly good time for all who attended.

The dance on the 5th was a most enjoyable affair, although there was not a large crowd present.

It is believed that the new ways and means committee will continue the policy of giving dances every two weeks.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, the 15th. On this night the officers of the Talent Grange, as planned, last Thursday night, on account of the illness of Mrs. Haak. This was very much regretted as we are also glad to render any service to our brother Granges.

Mrs. Haak will also be unable to take charge of the joint installation at the Central Point Grange, as she is not yet sufficiently recovered to go out of the house. We believe, however, that the assistants will go to Central Point on Wednesday night and assist in any way that they can.

SCHOOL RESUMED AFTER HOLIDAYS AT BUTTE FALLS

(Special)

BUTTE FALLS, Ore., Jan. 12.—(Special)—School began Monday after a two weeks' Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nea returned Saturday from Salem, where they spent their vacation visiting at the home of Mrs. Nea's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover returned Friday from a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Marysville and Palo Alto, Cal.

Miss Naomi Van Grouse spent her vacation with friends and relatives in Manzanita and Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Richmond did not return until Monday. Mr. Richmond has been ill with the flu at his parents' home in Portland. Mrs. Lee Stoddard substituted for him during his absence.

Those who remained here during the holidays enjoyed Butte Falls' wonderful winter weather. The nights are cold and frosty but the days are like spring. Some day when people of the valley learn of our delightful climate some wide-awake person will build a winter resort here. It would make an equally ideal summer resort as the summer weather is much cooler than in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Shimerville spent Wednesday and Thursday at Grants Pass and Rogue River. Mr. Cullen accompanied them as far as Rogue River and will remain there for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Goss have returned to the Mt. Pitt district after spending the holidays at their home here. During the holidays they were visited by their daughter and family of Hill, Cal.

Mr. Frank Hoover returned Saturday to Elverta, Cal., after spending the Christmas holidays with his family here.

The old-time dance given here Wednesday night was a big success. There will be another in two weeks.

Harold Hildreth returned to Eugene last week to resume his studies at the university.

Floyd Hoyal of San Francisco, who has been visiting friends here for the past week, returned home Sunday.

A good sized crowd enjoyed the basketball games here Wednesday evening between the town teams of Butte Falls and Prospect, and the boys' high school teams of the same place. Both were fast, exciting games. The high school game was the first league game of the season and our boys won with a score of 25 to 17. The score for the men's teams was 35 to 19 in favor of Butte Falls.

Eugene Walton and Percy O'Neil left Thursday for Eugene, where they will attend the state high school conference.

Miss Helen Simerville, who is a student at the Southern Oregon normal school, returned to school Sunday after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents here.

Claude Miles of Medford was a visitor here over the week end. Earl Wynore left last week for Eugene, where he entered as a freshman at the University of Oregon.
