

Local and Personal

Court house employees and county officials here, as well as of all other counties in the state are much interested in the fact that a bill providing that all county offices shall be kept open during the noon hour will be introduced at the 1929 legislative session, according to Grant Buyer, county clerk of Marion county. The bill may provide that all county offices shall close at 1 p. m. on Saturdays.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 2371*

A concession in charge of Al Smith, a member of the Junior class was conducted at the armory Saturday evening. The Junior class will hold concessions at all of the basketball games, held in Medford. The committee in charge of these concessions includes: Ben Day, Charles Barnes, Ruth Hooker, and James Metz.

Thomas Realty Co. Loans on furniture and other collateral; 8% straight or installment loans on city property. Main block, corner Main and Front, upstairs. 2301*

John W. Johnson and Scott Davis, two well known Medford men on their trip around the world, had reached Bombay, India, according to the latest word received from them last week, and after visiting other cities in that country planned to visit the Holy Land.

Hose mending, runners removed, and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop. 2167*

Lee L. Jacobs, veteran secretary of the Elks lodge, has been confined to his home the past two weeks or more with a cold, during which time he conducted much of the detailed lodge business at home. However, his condition is improving and he will soon be back again on regular duty at the Elks temple.

Fresh smelt arriving daily at Johnson's Market. 1*

G. N. Moore has arrived here from Medford and has taken a position with the G. Street Twentieth Century store. Mrs. Moore and daughter will join him this week—Grants Pass Courier.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 2371*

Miss Josephine Koppes, who has been ill with the influenza for the past three weeks, was able to leave her sick bed Friday for the first time, for a few hours and again yesterday, and she will probably be able to be out again by the middle of the week.

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 2371*

The trial of I. M. Phillbrook of Elsie Point arrested on the charge of trapping beaver without a license, following his arrest by Game Warden Roy Parr, was continued in Judge Taylor's court here last week to January 18, when entered a plea of not guilty to the charge.

Fresh smelt arriving daily at Johnson's Market. 1*

Marion Van Scoye, of Medford, who is a student at the University of Oregon, was recently appointed house solicitor of the Chi Delta sorority for the "Oregonians," the University year book. Miss Van Scoye, who formerly attended the local high school, is a junior in the school of education.

One lot of winter hats, including Gage hats to $18.50, going at $1.98. One lot to $7.50 at 82c. New spring hats now on display, priced very modest. The Emmy Lou Hat Shop in M. M. Store. 284*

A Duroc Jersey red hog, weighing 850 pounds, was slaughtered for family use by Clarence Rockhill in the Grand Island district of Oregon last Tuesday. Alfalfa pasture and corn has been the bulk of its feed.

Doors and windows cheap at Medford Lumber Co. 2371*

The many Medford and other Jackson county friends of United States District Attorney George Neuner are pleased to learn from Washington, D. C., dispatches that he is assured of reappointment for another term in that office.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co., Phone 239.

Mrs. H. F. Hansen arrived yesterday from Alberta, Canada, to attempt to locate her sons, Andrew and Raymond Hansen, who she thinks still reside here. She had not heard from them for some time.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 2371*

J. W. Whipple, manager at Grants Pass of the Southern Oregon Gas corporation, and Mrs. Whipple are visiting in Medford over the weekend with relatives and friends. Mr. Whipple is also attending to some business matters with the head office of the corporation here.

Wood—all kinds—oak, laurel, fir and dry slabs. Medford Fuel Co. Tel. 631. 2371*

The Lane County Nurses' association announced last week that hereafter special nurses will be on duty 12 hours instead of 29, in accordance with a new 12-hour duty regulation passed unanimously by members of the organization.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371*

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton held court in Grants Pass last Friday and yesterday. He will remain in that city until the grand jury of Josephine county is in session this week, and will then spend a few days in Medford holding court in Jackson county.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 2371*

First Sergeant Roy Hewitt of Medford, took the examination for second lieutenant of infantry in officers reserve last Wednesday night.

Notice—Plumbing repairing of all kinds. Call Will Swartz at 868-L. 292

Important business is to be transacted at the next meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, which will be held at the armory club rooms tomorrow. This is the first meeting of that organization in 1929, and plans will also be made at this time for the Medford Auxiliary members to attend the district conference to be held in Grants Pass on January 13.

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 2371*

Among the out-of-town visitors in Medford yesterday were Ruth Hood of Rogue River, Nellie Elhan of West Side, Julia Shirley of Lake Creek, Mrs. Lela Burdham of Eagle Point, A. E. Collett, Mr. and Mrs. Max Schulz and Miss Rose Schulz of Sams Valley, E. A. Whitman of Phoenix, John Stille of Indian Creek, Frank Dean of Willow Springs and Leo Potter.

Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co. 2371*

Miss Iva Fewell is among the local residents who will spend today visiting friends and relatives in Grants Pass. She plans to return this evening by motor and may stop off at Gold Hill while en route home. Miss Fewell is the regular correspondent for the local high school to the Mail Tribune, causing every Saturday to be her busy day preparing high school news.

Coal by the sack or ton. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 2371*

County agents of Lane Douglas, Josephine, Jackson and Coos counties will meet in Eugene during farmers' week to start February 17. F. L. Ballard, state leader of county agents, will be there from the Oregon State college to speak at the meetings.

"Charis" Rep. Phone 479-M. Mrs. Sadie Allen. 2321*

Preparations are going steadily ahead for the local teachers' institute at Phoenix next Saturday, beginning at 9:30 in the morning. The last institute was held at Gold Hill and it was such a success that a large attendance is expected at Phoenix, where several speakers from the Oregon State Normal school at Ashland will be present. A high school session will be held in the forenoon from 11 to 12 o'clock.

Best Utah lump coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 2371*

Skilling will not be good today in the Siskiyou and Greening mountains, but despite that fact, several parties are planning all-day outings in the snow. Last Sunday, snow was poor in the mountains and as a result of a week's sunshine, the depth of the snow is said to be much less. Other parties will spend the day in the Union Creek section, where the snow is also reported to be scarce.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengwald, Hotel Holland, Phone 993. 1*

The Southern Pacific railroad company has purchased the first champion and the grand champion load of 15 yearling steers at the 10th annual livestock show at Ogden, Utah. The meat is to be used in dining car services. Total weight of the herd is 14,710 pounds.

State Senator George Dunn of Jackson county is slated for the chairmanship of the fisheries committee of the senate in the coming legislature, which convenes in Salem tomorrow.

Following a visit in Medford with the Harold Wells family, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harland and children left Medford Friday for their home in Oakland, Cal.

Miss Marjorie Lindley has taken over the secretarial duties of Miss Josephine Koppes at the county health unit, while the latter has been confined to her home with influenza.

Out of 109 local and 22 transient applications for employment at the local branch of the United States free employment service, only a limited few were given jobs, according to Chris Gottlieb, manager of the branch. Due to the slack season, he is forced to turn away many applications every day, but he is looking forward to a busy season within six weeks, when construction will begin on several new structures in the city.

The next term of circuit court here will be called the third Monday in February, with Judge H. D. Norton on the bench and Presenting Attorney-elect George A. Coding appearing for the state. Most of the cases now docketed are civil and equity suits.

In a basketball game at Gold Hill Friday night, the Jacksonville high school boys' team was defeated by a score of 21 to 11. The Jacksonville girls' team was also defeated by Gold Hill.

Mrs. R. J. Conroy and children are expected home some time this week from their California visit on which they departed some time before Christmas.

Miss Geraldine Gardner of Medford, student at the University of Oregon, has been elected to the Phi Kappa sorority for next year.

The Odd Fellows and Hebekehs of Gold Hill will hold a joint installation of officers at their lodge hall next Wednesday.

Among the Josephine county dairymen who were in attendance at the two-day convention of the state dairymen's association at Medford last week were E. H. Wise, Ed Hughes, Bob Tolin, Warren Tuttle, M. M. Almsworth, Dave Orvis, Carl Schmidt, D. O. Fredrick, Mr. Christensen, Harry Miller, Mrs. George Sively and County Agent H. R. Howell.

R. B. Hammond returned last Friday from a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. William Parsons and daughter Doris, of Oklahoma City, Okla., are guests for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hamilton near Central Point. Mrs. Parsons is a sister of the local woman and also has a sister at Jacksonville, Mrs. Charles Wallace.

Changes in the Oregon statutes to facilitate litigation against auto drivers from outside of the state will be urged at the next session of the legislature by the Marion County Bar association. It is pointed out that under the existing laws derives from outside of the state can do damage to local cars and get away before their machines can be attached in a damage action. In the case of a damage action no attachment can be made until judgment is obtained.

Judge and Mrs. F. L. TouVelle of Jacksonville left yesterday to spend six weeks or two months in Los Angeles and other southern California points.

Following a honeymoon tour of two months, during which time they visited Alton and New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bohner returned to Central Point last week and have established residence on ranch property recently purchased by Mr. Bohner near Central Point.

Robert Galligan, the Canadian world war veteran and local "news boy," plans to leave tomorrow for Tijuana, Mexico, to work around the race horse stables, after having spent over two months in Medford. Fortune has not been smiling on Galligan and of late the Red Cross has been providing him with free room and medical attention. He suffers from asthma and because his voice has become weak as a result of sickness, he does not sell papers any more on the street and has been existing principally through the kindness of charity. He thinks, however, the Mexican climate will do him good, and has plans of returning to Medford in the summer.

Last spring Mrs. Roy Higgins planted a Prince of Wales gladiolus bulb at her home in the city. The bulb was of No. 4 size planting stock. When it was dug this fall it had developed five No. 1 bulbs and had 300 bulblets.—Grants Pass Courier.

Rev. A. C. Archer, pastor of the Free Methodist church at Eugene, is spending the week-end in Medford to hold several services here.

Miss Camille Clemenson left yesterday for Eugene to visit friends and to join her father, W. M. Clemenson, who will meet her while en route in his home here from Portland. They will return to Medford together.

Chris Gottlieb, local billiard wizard, yesterday received an invitation from G. R. Collins, secretary of the National Billiard association, to take part in the Pacific Northwest tournament to take place at Seattle, Wash., January 25, but due to other business, he will be unable to attend. In the letter written by Mr. Collins, the local player was told he would have the best possibilities of winning the tournament as the inning average of the players would not be over five, whereas the average of Mr. Gottlieb is from six to seven.

Walter Leverette, accompanied by his family, is planning to leave this week for southern California to spend several weeks at seashore resorts.

New buildings in Klamath Falls during the past year reached a total of $951,246, and from 1923 to 1929 invested $8,292,836 in new construction. The banner year was 1928, when $2,775,968 was spent.

Yesterday was the heaviest day of the week at the sheriff's office in the issuance of temporary auto licenses, with 38 issued to motorists from all parts of the county. The issuance of licenses has been heavy all week and probably will be until February. Licenses are issued only to motorists who did not have plates in 1928 or came into Oregon from out of state points.

Following a visit in Medford with the Harold Wells family, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harland and children left Medford Friday for their home in Oakland, Cal.

Miss Marjorie Lindley has taken over the secretarial duties of Miss Josephine Koppes at the county health unit, while the latter has been confined to her home with influenza.

The annual state examination for eighth grade grammar school students will be held in Jackson county schools next Thursday and Friday, according to an announcement yesterday at the county school superintendent's office. The examinations will be given on the regular days.

Mrs. Edith Lumsden of Portland arrived in Medford yesterday to visit for several days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colvin. Mr. Colvin and Mrs. Lumsden were former classmates at O. S. C.

News that Miss Ruth Sawyer, popular Medford girl had pledged the Alpha Xi Delta sorority at O. S. C. this week, has been received with interest by her Medford friends.

A. J. Weifner, sales manager for Simon Shattlesworth and French, fruit distributors of New York, arrived in Medford yesterday for a few days' special business.

Wood Turin to Agate

Next time you come across a petrified tree it may interest you to know that in a few centuries more it will become agate from the jewelry and marbles of another age may be made. Up to a few centuries ago, notes the Farm Journal, this wood-stone was highly prized as a magic charm, and was believed to be able to do everything from stopping the flow of blood to exorcising a hurricane.

There's one consolation. The Democratic party $1,600,000 debt is owed to people who are accustomed to getting nothing.

Classified advertising sets limits.

CHILOQUIN TEAM VISITS IN CITY

The basketball team from the Chiloquin high school accompanied by approximately twenty others, visited several hours in Medford yesterday afternoon. They left here about 5:30 p. m. to return to Talent, where they played the Talent high school basketball team last evening. The students were traveling in one of the Chiloquin high school buses.

VETERAN KNOWN IN CITY GIVEN AWARD

Of interest to World War veterans of Medford and elsewhere is the fact that a jury in United States Judge McNary's court at Portland last week returned a verdict awarding Robert H. Wolfe, ex-service man, benefits of a war risk insurance policy dating from April 1, 1924, to date.

Wolfe enlisted in the army at Medford, Feb. 29, 1918. While at Washington University in Washington, D. C., March 25, the same year, it was developed he was suffering from tuberculosis. Benefits of his insurance were paid from that date until April 1, 1924, when he was examined and it was declared the tuberculosis had been arrested. His contention that he still suffered from the disease was the base of the suit.

If he gets her a big diamond on credit, she will live always in a rented house; if he's rich and buys her a small one, the property will be his—never "ours."

Radio Program KMED

Local music lovers will be interested in the splendid Copera radio program which is scheduled for next Tuesday evening, Jan. 15, from 9 to 10 p. m. The program will consist of a pianoforte recital by pupils of Rosa Blackmore Willett.

A special feature will be a half-hour recital by Miss Aileen Crawford, artistic student. Miss Crawford's splendid playing is well known to Medford people and a big local audience is assured.

The program follows:

(a) Prima Donna Schottische King
(b) Russian Mazurka Moszkowitz
Jean Leverette
Salut d'Amour Elear
Leona Daugherty
Campanella Mazurka Sewell
Pauline Rogers

(a) The Lark Song Tschickowsky
(b) Pizzicato (Sylvia) Deibes
Edith Hodgkins
(a) Spring Song Mendelssohn
(b) serenade Moszkowski
La Vonne Anderson
(a) Veil Dance Primi
(b) Blue Arabesque Laick
Doreen Leverette
(a) Liebestraume Strelezki
(b) Black Key Studies
(1) If I Were a Bird Henselt
(2) Butterfly Chopin
(c) Haindrup Prelude Chopin
(d) Polka de la Reine Raff
Aileen Crawford (artistic student)

Today ONLY RIALTO Continuous Shows from 12:30 to 11 P. M.

The World's Goofiest Comedian As a Don Juan of the Boulevards

chester Conklin

You'll Laugh
You'll Howl
You'll Scream

World's goofiest comedian! Chester Conklin casting his wondrous moustache into a ring of crooks... for love, fool and a hundred dollar bill.

ALSO GOOD ADDED SHORT COMEDY Admission Mats. 10-25, Evens. 10-35

3 Big Days STARTS Tomorrow

Richard Barthelmess IN "SCARLET SEAS"

Biggest Theatrical Event In History of Medford

It is with exceptional pleasure and no little pride that we are enabled to announce the advent of the All New GAY PAREE to

HUNT'S CRATERIAN

Medford. The engagement is for one night, Wednesday, January 30, directly following its San Francisco run at the Curran Theatre.

For the first time a New York Winter Garden revue is being offered BEFORE playing its Manhattan engagement in cities west of Chicago. So successful have been the recent tours of other Shubert extravaganzas—after the New York runs—that the producers are giving patrons of this section an opportunity of seeing one of the larger revues while still in the full flush of its pristine vigor and before long tenancy on Broadway has tarnished the lustre of its newness. It is of especial interest to this city to know that the success enjoyed by A NIGHT IN SPAIN last season caused the Shuberts to include Medford in the route of the new edition of GAY PAREE.

The cast includes such stage celebrities as CHARLES "CHIC" SALE, Stanley Rogers, Frank Gaby, La Pulchra, Sylvia Froos, Franklyn Batie, BERKHOPF TROUPE, Kelo Brothers, Margie Evans, Margherita Marano, Virginia Murray, Oliver Rosen, Gaschrey & Hilly, Lillian Herbert, John McDowell, Charlotte Terry and Charles Mac. The entourage numbers over 150.

Mail orders are now being received. Those accompanied by self-addressed, stamped envelope will be filled in rotation. Prices $1 to $3.

HUNT'S CRATERIAN CENTRAL THEATRE MAIN

TODAY ONLY Continuous Shows 1:30 to 11 P. M.

FANCHON & MARCO'S HOT MOMMA GOOSE

A Bag Full of Girls, Gags and Giggles

With ROSE VALYDA The girl with the double voice

DOROTHY AND HARRY DIXON That pair of funny acrobatic dancers

BERT PRIVAL Famous Russian ballet dancer

THE THREE GIRL FRIENDS Three beauties who sing harmony to a perfection

And the Famous Sunkist Beauties

ON THE SCREEN

Buddy Rogers IN "Someone to Love"

Admission Mats. 25 and 60 Evens. 25 and 75

STARTS TOMORROW LON CHANEY In the Sound and Music Special "West of Zanzibar"

Day after Day

IT takes a good many hungry mouths to eat up the hundreds of thousands of loaves baked in our ovens each year—and if we satisfy all these crucial housewives and their families, day after day, why can't we satisfy you?

We could not have built up this business, nor could we hold it, week in and week out, if we did not use the best of ingredients and the most modern methods in making

Fluhrer's Milk Bread

Some of your friends—probably a good many of them—arguing that our bread can be depended upon for uniform high quality, day in and day out. They are buying it regularly, assuring themselves and their families of good bread at every meal.

Surely all of our customers can't be wrong about it. Won't you try a loaf—today—and see for yourself what we have to offer?

COLONIAL BAKERY
Southern Oregon's Finest Bakery

Scottish Rite. Stated meeting Siskiyou Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., January 14th. Election and installation officers. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secy. 294*

Dr. Emmett Carpenter

CHIROPRACTOR

Spinal Adjustments
Massage
Electrotherapy
Office Phone 430-R
Residence Phone 1299
308 Medford Bldg.

INVESTMENT BONDS

Offering, subject to prior sale, the following:

	Price	Yield
Regents of University of Oreg.....	4 1/8 @ 100.	4.50%
Ore. State Agricultural College.....	4 1/8 @ 100.	4.50%
Klamath Falls, Ore., Bancroft Imp. 5 1/8	@ 103.59	4.75%
Society of St. Mary, First Mtg.....	5 s @ 100.	5.00%
Mortgage Guarantee Co.....	5 1/8 @ 100.	5.50%
Fixed Trust Shares.....	@ Mkt. about 5.00%
Medford Irrigation District.....	6 s @ 93.	about 6.50%
Talent Irrigation District.....	6 s @ to yield	6.50%
Tomlin Box 7% preferred stock.....	@ 103.	6.79%

M. N. HOGAN
209 Liberty Bldg. Phone 1151