

WILLETT PUPILS TO GIVE RECITAL FOR KMED RADIO

Local music lovers will be interested in the splendid Copco program which is scheduled for Tuesday evening, January 15, from 8 to 10 p. m. The program will consist of a pianoforte recital by pupils of Rosa Blackmore Willett, well known musical instructor and radio artist.

A special feature will be a half-hour recital by Aileen Crawford, artist student. Miss Crawford's splendid playing is well known to Medford people and a big local audience is assured.

In addition to Miss Crawford, the following pupils will be heard: Edith Hodgkins, Pauline Rogers, Jean Laverette, Leona Dougherty, La Conna Anderson, Doreen Lovette. The young artists range from the ages of 8 to 14 years and they are expected to put on an interesting program.

Another Copco radio program of local interest is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 29 when the music department of the Junior high school will put on an hour of vocal and instrumental selections. The program will be directed by Miss Melba Williams, instructor of music who will also be heard in a group of soprano solos. The Junior high harmonica quartet will also be featured in several attractive numbers.

POMONA SPECIAL MEETING CALLED

E. H. Strohmeyer, (Special)—Legislative committees of the different granges of the county met at Central Hall, Central Point Saturday evening, January 12.

Matters taken up included the question of place of meeting with the national grange lecturer, who will be in the valley in the near future. Pomona special meeting was talked over and motion made and carried to convene at Talent for the day meeting and at Central Point for the evening meeting.

A resolution on the Columbia basin bill was talked over and will be taken up at Pomona Grange. Opinion was expressed that agricultural expansion should await adjustment between production and profitable disposition of what the farmer now raises.

A resolution on independent school districts regarding electing county school superintendent will also be taken up at Pomona Grange, as will some school laws. It was asked of the legislature for changes in regard to drawing pay while not at work.

Further argument on resolutions will be presented at the Pomona Grange meeting in Talent, January 26.

THREE EXECUTED IN PENNSYLVANIA

DELLEFONTE, Pa., Jan. 13.—(AP) Three men whose crimes brought death to five persons paid with their lives in the electric chair at Hockley penitentiary today. They were Charles F. Mellor and Benjamin Demarowski, of Philadelphia, and Tony Lucitt of Washington county.

All three men met their death calmly. The triple execution began with Lucitt, who was convicted of shooting Policeman Louis G. Knapp and Paul R. Fox in February, 1928, while running a cargo of moonshine.

Mellor, the next to go to the death chamber, shot and killed Max T. Harrison, assistant manager of the Cross Keys theater, Philadelphia, in an attempted holdup.

Demarowski, 32, shot and killed his wife, Catherine, 42, on the evening of April 15, 1928.

Relief from Gas Stomach Pains Dizziness

The doctors tell us that 90 per cent of all sickness is due to stomach and bowel troubles. You can't be well if your digestion is bad; you are likely to get sick unless you relish food and digest it properly.

Tanlac has a wonderful record as a relief from digestive troubles, even those of years' standing.

Mrs. Annie Waters, of 2732 44th Ave. S.W., Seattle, Wash., says: "I suffered from nerve-wracking stomach trouble. Every available remedy brought no results until I tried Tanlac. It built me up till my stomach trouble was cured."

If you suffer from gas, pains in the stomach or bowels, dizziness, nausea, constipation, or torpid liver; if you have no appetite, can't sleep and are nervous and all run down, you need Tanlac. It is good, pure medicine, made of roots, herbs and barks. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Money back if it doesn't help you.

Tanlac

52 MILLION BOTTLES USED

EAGLE POINT GRANGE WILL HAVE CANDIDATE WORK TUESDAY NIGHT

EAGLE POINT, Ore., Jan. 14.—(Special)—The Eagle Point Grange will hold its regular second business meeting of the month Tuesday, January 15 at 8 o'clock. When a large number of candidates will take the first and second degree of that order. The newly organized degree team which consists chiefly of the young people will put on the work under the supervision of Captain C. V. Davies. To make the lecture hour complete, the lecturer, Mrs. Lulu Ward, will have a few selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms, who have been living for some time on the Frank Rhoades place, moved into town and will make their home on the place belonging to Harry Lewis.

Mrs. Fred Reed and Mrs. Underwood, Virginia and son, Hall, visited with Mrs. Lottie Van Roy, while here, Virginia, Hall and Mrs. Underwood took a trip up to the snow line. While the ladies indulged in a friendly gossip, the visitors were all from Grants Pass.

Miss Burt, our high school teacher, reports a fine time during her vacation in Berkeley, Cal. The weather was warm and fine, just right for holidays. Miss Jamieson, primary teacher, had her tonsils removed while in Eugene and took sick just after her return to Eagle Point with a bad cold, but not serious. Mrs. Julia Davies is substituting for Miss Jamieson. Miss Aitkens, teacher of the intermediate classes, enjoyed her holidays in her home town of Medford and C. P. Davies enjoyed his vacation at his home in Eagle Point and is now ready for work again.

Ernest Dabaek of the Oasis service station and R. A. Weidman were business visitors in Medford Tuesday. Others making the trip to Medford were Earl Hanscom, Eli Dabaek, Mrs. Swazy and Sam Harnish.

Mrs. Roy Ashpole reports that she is nearly well again. For some time Mrs. Ashpole has been suffering and was under the care of Dr. Emmons of Medford, taking two treatments a day. Finally the trouble called for a minor operation and everything went all right. Now she is just about well again.

Sam Coy got the contract to furnish thirty tier of two foot oak wood to the Eagle Point school.

J. M. Spencer, formerly superintendent of the Eagle Point irrigation district, is now appointed water master of Umatilla county and is stationed at Pendleton.

The high school typing department is equipped with two new L. C. Smith typewriters, making four machines altogether.

A very nice family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Throckmorton on Wednesday, when a few relatives and friends enjoyed a hot tamale dinner. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wells, all of Central Point. Also Grandma Taylor, Mrs. William Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coy and Mrs. Mabel Harnish, all of Eagle Point.

Mrs. Ellsworth Stowell, who has been sick in bed a few weeks is able to be up and we hope will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonham spent last Thursday evening in Medford. While there, Mrs. Bonham attended a conference of the Eighth grade arithmetic committee which is arranging work for the Jackson county on individual study plan. The work is progressing.

The Parent-Teachers' association met Friday, January 11, with a goodly number present. The meeting opened with a short program by a few of the children: Piano solo, "Selected," Katherine Philbrook; recitation, "Timothy," Luella Smith; harmonica trio by Lucile Coy; Dale Cox and Leonard Philbrook gave a selection, "Home Sweet Home" which was well rendered. The Harmonica club is under the direction of Mrs. Bonham.

Another item of interest was a talk by Walter Davies. How these boys are going to learn how to cook (making a specialty of the flapjacks) under the direction of H. G. Fowler. A recitation, "Carmelita Rosales and 'Where do the Old Years Go,'" by Chester Robertson. The way to study aids was given by Frank Helms. Ladies serving on the hot lunch committee are as follows: Monday, Myrtle Smith; Tuesday, Mrs. Walker; Wednesday, Mrs. Cowden; Thursday, Mrs. Aitkens and Friday, Mrs. Hankins.

Mrs. Frank Lewis was taken to the Community hospital, to be treated for her kidneys and a bad cold. Mrs. Lewis has been sick on and off for quite a while and they think a rest in the hospital will do her good.

The high school girls' basketball team played the first game of the season January 11 with the Central Point high school girls' basketball team. The game was close all the way through. In the last quarter Central Point came up and won the game with a score of 22 to 24. This is also the first game to be played in the new gymnasium in Eagle Point. After the game the girls were treated to a cup of hot soup.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer of Medford have moved on to the Schaefer ranch. Two of the boys started to school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Corns, who have been staying with the Theron Taylor family, have rented the house on the Oasis service station.

Will the readers of the Eagle Point items call me on the phone when they have any news for me. My number is 21-2811.

Installing assistants from the Eagle Point Grange went to Central Point Wednesday and assisted Overseer Nealon in the Grange ceremony of installing the officers. Lady Conductress Mrs. Julia Davies, regalia bearer, Mrs. Luella Kline; emblem bearer, Mrs. Lulu Ward.

Among those attending the dairy men's meeting at the Hotel Medford were Geo. Stowell, Karl Eech, Geo. Givan, Theo. Hein, Tom Givan, Gene Hellock and Mike Heimbarger.

Miss Beverly Childers and Miss Helen Wilson, both of Medford are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walker this week. Another carload of lumber came out this week to our local lumber yard. The proprietor, W. C. Clements, says he has a large supply on hand.

The Presbyterian church choir will practice every week at the home of Mrs. Royal Brown.

Mystery Picture Hunt's Craterian

"West of Zanzibar," a production, synchronized with sound and with a surrounding sound program, in which Lon Chaney brings his strangest gifts of bizarre makeup and sinister mystery to the screen, is now playing at Hunt's Craterian.

set in a surrounding of stark and terrible revenge that devours its creator. Weird and fantastic rites of voodoo, devil-worshippers, in the heart of an African jungle; the strange spell of a sinister, masked "white voodoo," who, with tricks and illusions, rules tribes of superstitious and savage natives; a grim chase through the dark continent on a relentless mission of revenge; these are the dramatic highlights against which a wonderful love story is told.

CUBAN HEAVYWEIGHT SUFFERS CONCUSSION

MONTEVEIDEO, Uruguay, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Clemente Sanchez, Cuban heavyweight, was in a hospital today suffering from concussion of the brain after being knocked out by Mauro Galluzzo of Uruguay in a bout here Saturday night.

After taking a terrific beating during the seventh round, Sanchez came out dazed for the eighth. He was battered to the floor by his Uruguayan opponent and failed to rise after the count of ten. A hospital examination revealed concussion.

PORTLAND, Jan. 14.—(AP) The condition of Eric V. Hauser, capitalist and hotel man, who has been seriously ill here for several weeks was described as critical today.

Pantorium EYE WORKS

62 AND HOLLY STS. PHONE 244
A COMPLETE CLEANING AND DYING SERVICE

Merchants of Medford

We Have Ads and Advertising Campaigns Tested and Proven Sales Compellers

PREPARED ESPECIALLY for YOU

By the Most Practical and Most Successful Advertising Organization in the World!

THE MAIL TRIBUNE

Now Places the Newspaper Advertising Service of The Chicago Tribune

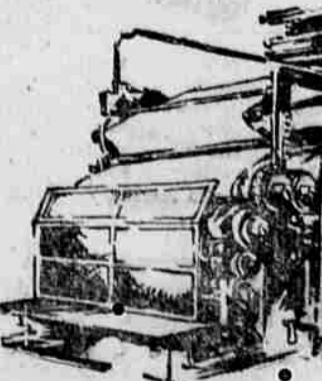

At Your Disposal—Free of Charge

AN ADVERTISEMENT is a "traveling salesman." The character of your store, its appearance and trading advantages are all judged by the appearance of your thousands of "traveling representatives" as they go forth to make their calls. Make these "traveling salesmen" reflect the atmosphere of your business. Make them more forceful, resultful and attractive. Get 100% maximum value out of your advertising dollar—

Spend Less Time in Preparation of Copy—Get Maximum Results

We have the exclusive franchise in this city for the World's Greatest Advertising Service—the Newspaper Advertising Service of The Chicago Tribune.

More than an advertising service . . . a business builder. Contains thousands of productive advertising ideas (scores of them on your own business), thousands of layouts, illustrations, copy and headings. Created by America's greatest newspaper advertising artists, copywriters and merchandising experts in conjunction with actual merchants. Based on proven ideas and illustrations, tested beforehand for pulling power. Timely with split-second up-to-dateness. You get the benefit of the experience of America's best advertising men and America's shrewdest merchants in your own line when you use Chicago Tribune Advertising Service.

MAIL TRIBUNE

Phones 74 and 75