DARK HORSE IN PASADENA OPEN TAKES LAURELS

Last of Far Western Fairway Play Captured By Craig Wood, Newark Pro —Dallas Jeffers Next in Money—Von Elm Third.

PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 17.—(AP)—The "gold trek" over the far western fairways under way since last December, was ended today and the big shots of professional golfdom turned their faces towards Texas plains, where two tournaments offer further opportunities to enrich themselves.

First will come the El Paso open, with a purse reported to be $3,000 on Jan. 19 and 20. The golfing brigade then will march to San Antonio, where a pot of gold aggregating $6500 awaits to be won in the Texas open January 24 to 27. The South Central open, scheduled for Hot Springs, Ark., Jan. 31, Feb. 2, will close the money season.

With the departure from this section of the golfers, one of the most successful and richest series of tournaments in the history of western golf was at an end. Purses aggregating over $35,000 were distributed among the money finishers in nine major events.

But two champions successfully defended their crowns in the nine events the second victory of Macdonald Smith, the great stylist from Great Neck, Long Island, in the $10,000 Los Angeles tournament, richest of the many purses, was a sparkling one. Leo Diegel, national professional champion, retained the San Diego, Cal., title.

Dark Horses Win.

The first and last tournaments of the string were won by "dark horses." Dr. O. F. Willing's victory in the Portland open was a surprise one. As his amateur status forbids the taking of cash prizes, first money in the Portland event went to Johnny Farrell. Craig Wood, stalwart blonde from the Forest Hill club at Newark, N. J., set a phenomenal pace in winning the Pasadena event yesterday, which benefitted him to the extent of $1400. Wood had a card of 72-66-138, to win over illustrious players, such as Hagen, "Mac" Smith, Armour and George Von Elm, blonde Detroit amateur. Another "dark horse" galloped in for second place money, $600 when Dallas Jeffers of Long Beach finished in 74-66-140. Von Elm was third with 69-71-141.

"Wee" Bobby Cruickshank of Patchaug, N. Y., had 73-69-142, and Henry Cuici of Bridgeport, Conn., tied him with 70-72-142. "Mac" Smith followed with 72-71-143 with Armour, bearer of cards reading 69-75, one stroke behind.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Walter Hagen, golf professional today had been served with papers attaching his golf earnings to recover judgments and other alleged debts to his divorced wife, Mrs. Edna C. Hagen, amounting to $8935. Hagen's recent winnings in southern California tournaments included prizes of $1500 in the Long Beach open, which he won and a total of $275 in the Los Angeles and Pasadena opens.

The papers naming the noted golfer defendant in a superior court attachment proceeding instituted by Mrs. Hagen, were served on "The Hale" yesterday on the Pasadena municipal golf course, where Hagen had just completed play in the $4000 Pasadena open tournament in which he won $175. He won $100 in the $10,000 Los Angeles open.

The attachment papers alleged that Hagen had not settled a judgment obtained in New York by the former Mrs. Hagen for $1056 for back alimony; that he had failed to pay alimony for two months amounting to $1000 and that he had failed to carry out an agreement made in New York when the divorce was granted November 17, 1927, that he would pay debts contracted by his wife prior to October of that year. The amount of these debts was stated to be $5978.

REIGH COUNT OUT TO REGAIN YANKEE PRESTIGE LONG LOST

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Reigh Count's trip to England marks the first invasion of an American thoroughbred to enter the classics on the flat in a quarter of a century.

While Billy Barton, an American-bred steeplechaser, was sent last fall to train for the Grand National in which he finished second, no other American-bred horse has entered the major races abroad since the Belmonts, Whitneys and other famous turfmen took their stables overseas in 1912 and 1913.

In the Belmont contingent were several famous racers, including Tracery, Fair Play and the great sprinter Prisicilian, but none was good enough for the Ascot Gold cup, for which Reigh Count will compete. No American-bred has won an English classic since Cap Lells took the Epsom Oaks in 1901 in the colors of Foxhall Keene.

LENGLEN TO SAIL, BALDWIN BOY HAS ELUDED MOTHER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Confirmation of indications that Suzanne Lenglen, French tennis star, had left here for New York, and that she and her mother had made advance arrangements for their sailing for France, was obtained here today. Also admissions had come from the suburban estate of Mrs. Anita Baldwin, that Mrs. Baldwin, heiress to late E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin estate, that Mrs. Baldwin was attempting to locate her son, Baldwin M. Baldwin, who checked out of his Los Angeles club on Monday, the same day that Mlle. Lenglen left her hotel.

The two-day mystery surrounding the whereabouts of the French woman was dispelled by the Biltmore hotel, where Mlle. Lenglen spent three days after abruptly leaving the Baldwin tsate, where she and her mother had been guests over the holidays. The hotel admits that arrangements had been made through the travel bureau of the New York City Biltmore for bookings for the two women on a ship sailing shortly for France. The Los Angeles Biltmore was unable to say just what were the arrangements made in New York, or whether or not young Baldwin was to accompany the pair on the ocean voyage.

At the Baldwin estate it was learned that an airing of opinions last Thursday had been followed by the abrupt departure of the two French women and young Baldwin. W. E. Harrington, representing Mrs. Baldwin, although having declined to discuss reports of a "row" at the estate, described the reported occurrence as "not exactly a row; they just up and left."

WOOD READY FOR WRESTLING DANE

Sailor Jack Wood, matched with Fred Mortensen, the Terrible Dane of Grants Pass next Monday night at the Rialto theatre, is saying no more in connection with what he plans to do to his opponent, but has entered a heavy training program and plans to let his wrestling demonstrate his ability. Mortensen is training in Grants Pass and has also refrained from bragging, indicating both men are determined to let wrestling do their talking instead of boasts.

Jack Wood.

Next Monday's match may be rough, but unnecessary roughness will not be tolerated. If a foul is committed, the wrestlers must continue the match and the wrestler causing the foul will receive no money for his work. M. D. Bowers of Gold Hill has been chosen as referee and two judges will be chosen from the ringside to keep a check on the two men, who held a grudge against each other long before Monday night's match was ever proposed.

KARASICK WINNER WILD WRESTLING MATCH PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Al Karasick of Portland won over Clete Kauffman of Columbus, Ohio, in the light heavyweight wrestling match here last night. That is, it was scheduled as a wrestling match, but the spectators were treated to a bit of everything from tossing each other through the ropes, kicking in the stomach and from the rear, gouging eyes, pulling hair, biting and scratching. It was a grudge affair from the start. At one time Kauffman dived from the ring in his eagerness to get at Karasick, who, after being thrown through the ropes, was sitting down for a little rest and had reached in his corner for his towel. Karasick took the first fall in 37 minutes and 10 seconds with a series of flying headlocks after he had clipped Kauffman on the chin and sent him through the ropes. The blow dazed Kauffman and Referee Chet Wiles assisted him back into the ring. Kauffman came back fresh and determined and took the second fall with a full Nelson in 6 minutes and 50 seconds. The final fall came so quickly many spectators were in ignorant of what happened, when Karasick suddenly freed himself from another full Nelson and grabbed Kauffman around the neck with his two hands and threw him over his head with a flying mare. Kauffman was stunned when he landed on his back. The time for the final fall was 6 minutes and 50 seconds.

Ray Lyness of Vancouver, Wash., took one fall and the decision from Sailor Pete of Portland in the preliminary.

Precautions against colds and "flu"

Do these two things:

1. Protect nose and throat
2. Keep system in good condition

There's no need to get panicky because the papers are full of news of an influenza epidemic. There's no use in isolating yourself because a lot of other people are sick with it. If you take two simple precautions every day—and then don't worry—the chances are you will throw off any cold or "flu" germs you are exposed to, and keep well.

We're not recommending that you dose yourself with a lot of medicines, either. Just observe two common-sense health rules which can be easily followed.

FIRST of all, make sure your system is in first class order. Don't let it get slowed up or sluggish. See to it that it functions perfectly. The easiest way to get run down and in a condition to pick up disease is to neglect this all-important matter.

Physicians agree that, particularly in times of epidemic, purging by laxatives and cathartics is not advisable. Many doctors are therefore prescribing Nujol, as in no case does it cause exhaustion or weakening of the system in any way.

Nujol can't possibly upset you or disagree with you. For it contains absolutely no medicine or drugs.

Get a bottle today at your nearest drug store and start taking Nujol tonight as our simple way to keep fit and to protect yourself against influenza.

That's the first precaution. Now for the second. Keep your nose and throat well protected with Mistol.

When you get a bottle of Nujol, get a bottle of Mistol, too.

Dr. David says:

"I'm advising all my patients these days to keep Mistol on hand and use it regularly. The first thing in the morning before you go out. And again at night when you come home. Don't be afraid to use it freely. It will do no harm. And then stop worrying. You've done all you can to safeguard yourself.

"Put Mistol up your nose. There's a special dropper that comes in every package that makes it very easy to use. Just tilt your head back and drop it in your nose until you feel it in your throat. You'll notice the pleasant, cleansing effect at once. Mistol clears your head and makes breathing easy. It has a healing, soothing effect on the membranes and relieves any irritation or inflammation. It helps dry up a running nose. Use it, too, as a gargle. Mistol is good for a sore throat or hacking cough. And above all, protects the nose and throat against germs.

"Don't wait till you begin to sneeze or your throat aches. Take my advice and get a bottle of Mistol today. Every druggist knows it."

The combination treatment of Nujol and Mistol is a double safeguard against influenza. Start this wise two-fold precaution now. Don't delay.

Nujol and Mistol are both made by the same famous laboratories, of the finest quality materials and with the greatest skill possible. Both preparations are harmless. At all druggists. Aren't they worth trying?
