OWEN-OREGON HAS RECORD BUSINESS FOR JANUARY DAY

The largest January business in the life of the Medford plant of the Owen-Oregon lumber company was recorded yesterday, when between 45 and 50 orders for carload lots of lumber were received, according to General Manager James H. Owen. The orders were from various parts of the land.

As a result the plant is operating on a five day basis, instead of the four day basis originally planned.

General Manager Owen said that the lumber business was exceptionally strong now, and the best "I have ever seen it in the month of January." He attributed the hopeful condition to a general opening up of the building industry, and the policy of curtailment adopted by lumbermen generally some time ago.

The logging camps of the Owen-Oregon company located in the Butte Falls district, and the life of that town, will not be opened before March 1st, if then. No definite date has been set for resumption of activity, as there are plenty of logs on hand.

The sawmill is now running on a five-day basis, and will be placed on a six-day basis as soon as conditions warrant, General Manager Owen said.

TRACTOR COMPANY LOCATES IN CITY

Medford has a new business establishment in the opening today of the Miller-Stanford Tractor company on South Grape street at Eighth, dealers in farm motive equipment and operators of similar establishments in Eugene and Klamath Falls. The local store will be in charge of J. C. Kay and will carry caterpillar tractors, tussled graders, float equipment and spare parts. A service department will also be operated and will be in charge of expert tractor mechanics.

DE MOLAY ALUMNI IS ORGANIZED BY MEDFORD YOUTHS

Medford has a new side issue Masonic body in the DeMolay Alumni club, which was organized this week for the fellows whose active membership in the DeMolay order is automatically terminated to inactive, or honorary membership, when they attain the age of 21 years.

The purpose of the club is to aid the DeMolays whenever possible, enjoy good times together, and to promote or continue the fellowship begun when they were active DeMolays.

All DeMolays who have attained their majority in good standing are eligible and encouraged to associate with this new branch of the order of DeMolay. The DeMolay Alumni club is an international organization under the same supervision as the order of DeMolay.

The officers of the local club are the following: President, Vernon Turpin; first vice-president, Aubrey Norris; second vice-president, Elton Waldron; secretary, Webster Clark; treasurer, Carl Strickland. The officers are held for one year terms. The club's meetings will be held on the third Wednesday of each month.

The Goodyear Pathfinder's body is made of genuine Goodyear super-tread cord and the new tread is wide, embodying an exceptional degree of traction and non-skid protection. These new style Pathfinders are attracting considerable attention locally.

STATE SOLONS ON VISIT TO ASHLAND

Ashland was host today to two state senators, Will Marks of Albany and L. T. Reynolds of Marion county, and one state representative, Mark J. Johnson of Clatsop, while they were in the city investigating the condition of the Southern Oregon Normal school to gather information to aid in making recommendations as to whether or not the state shall appropriate $175,000 for the school.

The visitors were met by 15 Ashland business men and at noon were guests at a special dinner at the Letha Springs Hotel. They spent this afternoon at the normal school.

EVENING OF MUSIC FOR CHURCH GUILD

The Crater Lake Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet on Monday evening, January 21, 1929, at the home of Miss Helen Dallis, Florence avenue. The hostesses are Mrs. Grant Nelson, Mrs. Grace Holmes and Mrs. W. H. Walker.

In continuing the study of Christian influence on art, the evening will be spent in demonstration of the development of this influence on music and illustrations of this development will be shown under the direction of Mrs. H. E. Marsh who will be assisted by members of the musical fraternity in Medford.

Theatres

For the first time in his career, Will King will be seen locally on the stage without his famous character makeup with a putty nose and crows' whiskers.

King, in his original character, first appeared before the public in 1895 in "A Night on Broadway."

"It was just like parting with an old friend," King said recently, "as I bid farewell to the old costume and makeup. But after we started rehearsing the new show for Fanchon & Marco, I had a feeling you are likely to get when you arrive in a strange new country. I felt like a new man. Hundreds of new jokes and funny bits came to us and many of them are presented in the show."

Lew Dunbar also bid a fond farewell to the familiar costume, and says: "But, you know, I think I got funnier within five minutes after the decision was made."

The new Will King will be featured in Fanchon & Marco's idea, "Chicken 'n' King," at Hunt's theater Sunday.

The annual meeting of the Jackson county Red Cross chapter was held this noon at the Hotel Medford, an account of which appears elsewhere in this paper.

VESPER SERVICES TO BE PRESENTED SUNDAY

Another vesper service will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 3:15 p. m. So many comments of appreciation of the deep impressions made by the service two weeks ago have been received, that this one is planned in response to many requests.

The program will consist of organ numbers, a scripture reading by Marjorie McNair who so pleased every one by her reading on Christmas Sunday night, a concert solo by Mrs. H. C. Mulholland.

There will also be a tableau of the Cross with a devout worshipper accompanied by the playing of the hymn, "The Old Way Cross" by the organ, the service closing with a few stereopticon slides of scripture and a great missionary hymn. The theme of the service will center around the gospel and missions. The setting of music and lights add wonderfully to the impressiveness of this half hour vesper service.

Every one is urged to be in their seats for quiet and meditation at
