

FACULTY CHANGES FOR SPRING TERM AT SENIOR HIGH

Several changes are to be made in the local high school faculty beginning with the spring semester in February, according to Ralph Bailey, director of publicity.

Miss Nettie Hansen, divines and history teacher has resigned on account of ill health and will return to her home in Eugene. Her place in the history department will be filled by Miss Johnnie Fleet, who has been teaching English.

To complete this readjustment of the schedule, one new English teacher will be added to the corps of local high school instructors to take Miss Fleet's place. This teacher has not as yet been elected by the school board.

Miss Carol Batusky, who has been teaching part time in the high school and junior high school will in the future devote her entire time to the former. She will, in addition to her course in Occupational, which she has been teaching, handle a group of history courses. A new Latin teacher, as yet not elected, will also be added to the staff the first of the semester.

The increased enrollment, which at the beginning of the semester will have added 100 new students, bringing the total enrollment up to over 800, has necessitated the election of new teachers to the present staff, according to Mr. Bailey.

MEDFORD HI BAND ONE OF 35 TO BE ASKED IN CONTEST

OREGON STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 18.—(Special)—The Medford high school band is one of 35 representative high school bands of the state to be invited to the seventh annual band contest sponsored by Kappa Kappa Psi national band honorary fraternity, to be held at this college in April. Board and room will be supplied by various living organizations.

Entrants will be divided for the first time this year into two groups. Schools having more than 400 students will comprise group A, and schools of fewer than 400 students dividing B. This plan will afford smaller schools a greater chance for recognition, explains the general committee.

Four prizes will be given. The Seiler-Lucas music house of Portland offers the grand prize, and Kappa Kappa Psi a cup for the second place award. Members of the Oregon State military cadet band will finance a third trophy. A local music house will supply an award for the fourth place contestant.

Medford high school's band proved itself winner among eight contestants last year. The entry list is expected to be larger this season. A banquet, complimenting visiting bandsmen, will be given in the Memorial Union dining hall.

VARIETY STORE HAS BIG SELLING EVENT

The West Side Variety store, at 222 West Main street, is launching a store-wide Stock Reducing Sale today, featuring the combined stocks of that concern and the Oriental Variety Store, which was formerly located on North Barrett street. Recently Luke Ryan transferred the entire stock of the Oriental store to the West Main street location, which greatly crowded the West Side Variety store location. This, together with the fact that spring goods will be arriving soon, is the reason for the sweeping selling event.

Dry goods, women's wear, notions, hardware, novelties and hundreds of other items are being offered at special reductions during this selling event. The sale will continue throughout next week with special bargains offered every day, according to Mr. Ryan.
