Mrs. Lyle Turner has recovered from a slight operation performed upon her vocal cords.

MUTT AND JEFF—Oh, Well, That's One On Me

THANKS FOR THE FEED, JEFF, BUT YOU LOOK WORRIED! WHAT'S THE MATTER?

I'VE BEEN SUSPENDED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF HOUSE CHARGES AND I CAN'T SIGN THIS CHECK; I'VE GOT AN IDEA; I'VE GOT A MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING.

BUD, I'VE ALWAYS BEEN A GREAT ADMIRER OF YOURS. WOULD YOU MIND DRAWING A LITTLE PICTURE ON HERE FOR ME?

WITH PLEASURE, JEFF.

GEE, BUD, THAT'S CLEVER! NOW WOULD YOU MIND SIGNING IT?

CERTAINLY NOT, KID. HOW'S THAT?

FINE! MUCH OBLIGED, BUD. THAT'S MY DINNER CHECK!

But man must eat... It would have been a shock to thousands of pleasantly awed individuals if they had been aware that the marbling, tooth-knashing, hairy monster behind the strong bars of Ringling's circus was not really wild and never had been in Florida.

Editorial Correspondence

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Jan. 19.—The Good Ship Sedan had a new and interesting experience today. Continuous rain now for six days, had left it somewhat soiled and bedraggled.

Here the G. S. S. was given a practical demonstration of American business efficiency—how it works and why it succeeds so sensationally. At the garage they said they could not have the car washed in less than two hours and the charge would be $3.

In 15 minutes the car rolled out clean outside and in, and forking over the $1.50 we went on our way rejoicing. Not only was it clean, but polished and the inside carefully combed with a vacuum cleaner.

Cars were going in the laundry and coming out like sausages out of a sausage machine. One man did but one thing, and according to the brick attendant, there were 24 hands at work on the car in those 15 minutes.

Specialization again. It will be only a question of time when the car owner will no more send his car to the garage to be cleaned than send his collar to the haberdasher for the same purpose.

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

WHAT THE HEALTH AUTHORITIES NEVER TELL

The general run of health authorities in this country are still holding out for the non-infectious "cold."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Perennial Yarn. R. E. sends from the wilds of Wisconsin the 784th clipping I have received about the "discovery" of a Vienna doctor, that a man may be nourished with food through his skin.

The Recent Near-Epidemic. We are hoping, though hardly expecting, to find some allusion in your column to the announcement that the prohibition authorities intended to permit physicians to prescribe more than the established limit of liquor during the flu epidemic.

Quill Points. Of course prohibition encourages thirt. At present prices, people must save for a wet day.

Chivalry is the quality that enables a man to believe, next morning that it was his deliberate intention to propose to her without any encouragement.

The point the Supreme Court must decide is whether water in the snow is safe to drink.

This is the day of mass production. The Muskegon Piston Ring Company has orders from the Chevrolet company for 60,000 rings a day, another order for 100,000 rings a day to supply old model T Ford cars.

Some people laughed when Henry Ford said he meant to build 10,000 automobiles. Automobile makers said he would ruin the business, destroying its credit by such extravagant statements. He has made 15,000,000 cars.

Dr. Little, head of the University of Michigan, one of the youngest American university presidents, resigned.

He advocated a "same form of birth control" didn't want students to use motor cars, objected to an alleged blacklist of the Daughters of the American Revolution, that probably would have kept Franklin, Jefferson and surely Tom Payne, from addressing the daughters.

Peace treaties aren't worthless. They prevent almost everything except fighting.

The railroads justifies gouging the public. Perhaps Uncle Sam calls it economy to spend four billion because there are more figures above than below it.

Correct this sentence: "I bought none of the peddler's linen," said he, "but he still bowed and smiled while packing up to leave."

Servants would work for $2 a week in the North, also, if they could "vote" $25 worth of rations.
