RIVER ICE HELPS FLOOD OF BOOZE TO DETROIT SIDE

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Opportunities afforded liquor smugglers by the frozen Detroit river were described by the Toronto Globe today as follows:

Six inches of river ice interrupted by less than 100 feet of open water, coupled with the fact that Sumner C. Sleeper, chief of the Detroit customs patrol, and a dozen of his men had thrown up their jobs, presented to the rum trafficking fraternity an opportunity which they have been denied for many months.

Taking advantage of the situation the smugglers speeded up production and by using small automobiles, sleighs and even old-fashioned toboggans, succeeded in transporting an undetermined quantity of liquor and Canadian beer to Detroit and its environs. The operations were carried on boldly and in the sight of hundreds of spectators who lined the shores to watch the progress of the scores of caravans over the frozen waste.

In several instances small cars were observed hitched to boats with steel runners which whisked them across in express time. When the open stretch of water was encountered the boats were utilized. Further down the river the ice was solid all the way across and the boats were dispensed with. On the Detroit side large vans labelled furniture and express were observed speeding away from the river within a few minutes after a cargo had landed. There was no attempt at interference at any time, so far as reported.

In one place a small rowboat, piled high with beer cartons, was having trouble picking its way through the openings in the ice-field. There were four men in the boat and each poled manfully to get their little craft through. In all it was a real field day for the fraternity.

CHURCH REFUSAL TO MOVE BALKS OPERA BUILDING

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A church whose members feel they have a "sacred trust" to maintain their edifice in the heart of New York threatens to prevent a complete realization of the metropolitan center planned by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

The Collegiate Reformed church of St. Nicholas, at Fifth avenue and Forty-eight h street, occupies one of the few parcels of land in the three blocks from Forty-eighth to Fifty-first streets, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, not included in the $3,000,000 a year lease by Columbia university to Mr. Rockefeller.

The Rev. Dr. Malcolm James MacLeod, pastor and Charles Stewart Phillips, treasurer, said today the church had repeatedly refused offers to sell or lease.

Dr. MacLeod said he believed landmarks in New York, particularly churches, should not be torn down. "The material things are great," he said, "but the spiritual things are greater."

The spire of St. Nicholas church has often been declared one of the most beautiful in the world. The bell in its steeple was cast in Holland in 1728. The church at one time refused an offer of $7,000,000 for the site.

A representative of Mr. Rockefeller said that if negotiations for the church site had been opened he believed Mr. Rockefeller would drop them immediately if he learned the church was unwilling under any circumstances to move from its present place of worship.
