STRIBLING'S 'PA' TO SCOUT JACK AND CHRISTNER

Little Fellow in Black Derby On Hand for Match Between Prospective Foes of Son—Tells of Big Shot in South.

By Edward J. Neil.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A chubby little fellow with a soft drawl from the southland, is peeping out from under the brim of his black derby today at things fistic in the big town. Tonight he will sit at the bedside in Madison Square Garden and turn his entire attention to Jack Sharkey's efforts to bruise K. O. Christner—and vice versa.

The little fellow with the slow smile is "Pa" Stribling, who raised his boy to be a fighter of such proportions that little Willie is now one of the leading heavyweights, one of the principals in the battle of the palms Tex Rickard planned for Miami Beach on the night of February 27.

"Pa" came all the way north from the Florida resort to scout Sharkey, if the fates are smiling on the late promoter's plans and Christner, if necessary.

But with the preliminary scouting over and nothing left to do but wait for the fistic pinpoints to explode tonight, "Pa" has time to dwell on the prospects of a record rate at Miami Beach and the enthusiasm for fights in general and Young Stribling in particular.

South Awakens.
"The south," he said, "is just finding itself athletically. We had the greatest football team in the country last fall in Georgia Tech. Bobby Jones and Wally Gray have thrilled the nation with their golf and Ty Cobb made baseball fans of thousands. Now Young Stribling has come along to take his place as the foremost southern representative in the boxing world."

"The Sharkey-Stribling match will be one of the biggest sport events in the history of the section and the boy must uphold the prestige of his predecessors, Georgians, and especially the fame of Max Baer, will move on Miami Beach almost to a man. There's never been anything like it down there."

"Florida never had but one big fight before and that was when the sport was practically outlawed. Those fans haven't had a real chance to yell since Jim Corbett stopped Charley Mitchell in Jacksonville 25 years ago."

"You know, southerners are more sentimental than northerners or westerners and we consider that this fight is something of a memorial to Tex Rickard. Tex was the man who gave the boy his chance and favored him to win the heavy-weight championship. The south won't forget that."

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The giant western scrapper, Ralph Smith, will have it over W. L. (Young) Stribling, Georgia heavyweight championship contender, in their fight here tonight in height, and reach, but the other measurements give Stribling the margin. The fight will be Stribling's last engagement before his elimination contest with Jack Sharkey at Miami Beach February 27.

ORLANDO, Fla., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Walter Willman, former member of the Chicago Casting club, today is claiming a joint hold on the world's record in the five-eighths ounce plug accuracy event.

Willman hung up a mark of 99.5 yesterday, his first second round landing just off the bullseye.

BASKETBALL TEAM EN ROUTE TO PLAY UPSTATE SQUADS

The Medford high school basketball team left for its morning at 10 o'clock by auto and will play games with the University of Oregon Fresh, the Oregon State Frooks and the Salem high school. They will return Tuesday afternoon.

The personnel of the team is as follows: Al Melvin and Fred McDonald, forwards; William Bowerman, playing center; William Moran and Clifford Taylor, guards; Chas. Thomas, sub forward; Roy Green, sub guard; Oad Hughes, William Dolyn and Bernie Hughes. Bernie Hughes makes the trip as a driver of one of the autos and will be exhibited upon the campus as a sample of Medford football material. He is regarded as the best high school center in the state and of varsity caliber, and it is not likely that he will find time dragging heavily on his hands at either Eugene or Corvallis. It is also understood that the University of Washington has assured Mr. Hughes that he would not be chased home if he showed up at that institution next September for study.

The Frook team does not take the Medford basketballers lightly, as they have been drilling hard to perfect a style of play against the home squad. A defeat by a high school team on the home floor, according to university tradition, is as surely disgraceful and costly as the freshmen being severely paddled by the upper class men. As there is nothing death about the paddling, the campus games will be mighty struggles.

The game with Salem Monday night in that city will be the feature game of the season, and the Salem selection of the Medford team to pack the gym with spectators and pull the Salem aggregation out of the financial hole.

Next Friday night the Medford team plays the Klamath Falls team at the arena.

ATHLETIC GIRL TO MARRY STRANGLER

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Miss Elaine Tommaso of Glenfield, Ill., daughter of the late Salvatore Tommaso, director and composer, will marry Ed Strangler, former heavyweight wrestling champion, who announced last night. The date of the marriage was not revealed.

Miss Tommaso, who is a pianist and accompanist, arrived from the west coast yesterday with her mother and sister. Lewis was due from New York today. He has a match with Martin Pleschman here next Tuesday night.

Lewis, who has been twice married and twice divorced, met Miss Tommaso in Los Angeles last fall. "I probably would never have met Mrs. Lewis if I had not been so interested in sports," she said. "We began playing golf and then went swimming together."

Miss Tommaso is 25 years old, a tall, athletic appearing brunette. She is a graduate of the Northwestern University school of music. Her youth was spent in Evanston, a Chicago suburb, in a home in which art was stressed. Yet she found time for many forms of athletics, she explained, and has continued her interest in sports.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 25.—(AP)—With the cold still moderated and the snow rapidly disappearing, the expected decline in the price of eggs came with a thud. Middle cut values all down the line. Standard extras dropped 2 cents and standard firsts followed with a 1 cent decrease. Medium extras and medium firsts dropped 2 cents. Today's prices were: Standard extras 23; standard firsts, 22; medium extras, 20, and medium firsts, 19.

Butter prices held stationary, with the exception of standards, which went down 1 cent to 43. Butterfat quotations failed to take any decline.

The orange war that began among Oregon City retailers a week ago has moved down upon the Portland market, especially among the wholesalers. Plentiful stocks inspired dealers to reduce those by lowering the prices a bit, but instead of the move halting there it became a competitive squabble with the current general cutting of prices prevailing.

After Operations

"I was three times under an operation and I was very weak and nervous and could not eat. I suffered for ten years. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my husband bought me a bottle. I felt a little better and he bought me two more. I had the Compound in my home for two years and took it all the time. Now I feel strong and can do anything."—Mrs. A. Michalk, 5443 Mitchell Ave., Detroit, Michigan.
