When You Are Dead. Sheep, Mules, Exchange Seats. Mongolian Idiots. Justice—For Lawyers.

Work fearlessly, for the right you will be honored, and appreciated, after you die. Mrs. Pankhurst, thought women should vote. Since they created the men for wars, they should have something to say about war.

Everybody agrees with Mrs. Pankhurst now, and Mr. Baldwin, who opposed her, will unveil her monument.

When she was alive, demanding justice for women, they put her in jail. She starved herself until she was released, justifying the idea of disposing of her corpse, and that is what it would have had to do.

Released from prison, she renewed her fight, chained herself to the iron railings before the commons, was jailed again, and again entered self-imposed starvation.

Her courage won, British women vote in the house of commons and help to make laws. Mrs. Pankhurst lies in her grave, her death hastened by hardship, and those that hounded her, now honor her.

She is satisfied. Monopolies are pleasant, minimizing competition. But even monopoly may become burdensome. New York stock exchange brokers, have actually more than they can do. Their clerks work from nine a. m. to eleven p. m. Even generous bonuses cannot make up for that.

Wall Street expects "ten million share days" before this pleasant market runs its course. Stock exchange seats have risen from $60,000 to $825,000. Brokers that once called it a good day, if they dealt in 200 shares of stock, now deal in thousands of shares in single transactions, one house doing close to 1,000,000 shares in a day.

A new exchange must be built, covering a whole block, and 275 new seats must be added to the present 1,100 seats. The members, in this arrangement, will divide about $137,500,000 profit.

Do you wonder that boys leave the farms?

All farm animals, horses, mules, cattle, sheep, swine, in the United States have increased in value $440,205,000 in the past year. The total value of the nation's live stock is about six billions of dollars.

The increased value for 20,000,000 farmers is about one-third of the sum that will go to 1,100 stock brokers, through the sale of exchange seats and that does not include an increase of $500,000,000 in the value of 1,100 seats already existing.

A sympathetic heart protests against excluding immigration of Filipinos. The question is one of policy, not of sympathy. If this country intends to exclude Asiatic peoples, it must exclude Filipinos, an Asiatic mixture.

It is not merely a question of "different standards of living," but of competition with races that are not assimilated. Question any experienced obstetrician as to...

FIREWORKS LOOMING IN 3RD WEEK

Much Discord in Hopper for Legislative Wrangles—More to Come—Income Tax Bill Last—Free-for-All Oratory Starts in Hearings.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 28.—(AP)—The Oregon legislature today opens the third week of its thirty-fifth session, and the day for the uncontrived presentation of bills, with enough fermenting discord already in the hopper to provide a constant display of fireworks to the remainder of the session, and with more explosive subject matter yet to be loaded.

Today is expected to see the bill to repeal the 1927 act authorizing the state board of control to borrow money from the trust funds of the industrial accident commission for the construction of a state office building here, the week promises to be one of free-for-all oratory. Industrial contributors to the accident commission and the sponsor Senator Butler's repeal measure tonight, and it will be fought by T. R. Kay, state treasurer, and other officials on the ground of necessity and economy.

Phone Hearing Tuesday evening the telephone and utilities lobby will have its inning when the House committee on the telephone bill will hold a public hearing on the rates and practices of the telephone monopoly comes up for public hearing before the senate committee on resolutions.

Members of the special investigating committee which has been holding public hearings on the telephone bill since the first day of the session, have undermined the proposal for municipal control of rates and practices and they question whether their plan will be sanctioned by the legislature unless it is limited to cities of 100,000 population and over. They assert, however, that the telephone bill will be amended by substituting municipalities in both houses. Wednesday afternoon will see a third hearing of major importance under way. At that time members of the Oregon land settlement commission, organized in 1919, will appear before a sub-committee of the ways and means committee.

The bill was introduced in state funds where some $30,000 in state funds have been set aside to establish a fund of model farms in the independent case, Roseburg and in the Ochoco irrigation district, and to explain whether there is any good reason why the state should continue to appropriate money for what has proven to be a losing venture.

Auto License Fee This week is also expected to bring forth the first of a series of public hearings on the automobile license fee regulation bill as drafted by a special committee headed by Senator Kiddle. The chief objection heard to the bill as drafted is that it makes no concession to old cars in the schedules of fees.

Members that Senators Norblad, Hall, Eddy, Upton, and perhaps a few others would this week present separate bills or one joint measure directing the highway commission to speed up work on primary roads in the districts they represent, either through the issuance of additional highway bonds or through revision of the present highway program, could not be confirmed.

Defer Pleading OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Pleadings of Henry S. Johnston, suspended governor of Oklahoma, to five articles of impeachment before the senate court of impeachment were deferred today on motion of Johnston's attorneys until Thursday, when counsel indicated demurrer will be entered to eight articles voted by the house.

THOUSANDS WELCOME HOOVER PARTY TO FLORIDA

Thousands lined the streets of Miami to welcome President-elect Hoover and his party on their arrival there for a vacation at Belle Isle.

COUNTY'S LEVY "ALL HIGHEST" BLIZZARD GRIPS FOR 1928 CUT UNSTRAINED BY NORTH PART OF TO 19 MILLS BIRTHDAY POMP OREGON STATE

Inside High School Districts Levy 16.6 Mills—Well Under Exhausting Program—Guests Get Fancy Menu Cards—Hermine Remains Secluded. Ashland 15—To Raise Total of $601,068—Eagle Point Lowest.

DOORIN, Holland, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Former Kaiser Wilhelm arose at 7 o'clock this morning as usual, read the bible, had breakfast and walked in the garden. Servants said he showed no signs of strain on account of the exhaustive program of yesterday when the Hohenzollerns gathered to celebrate his 70th birthday and to hail him as king and emperor. During the evening the guests partook of a repast more elaborate than at noon. Each guest was given a menu card with a gold border and bearing a golden Hohenzollern crown and a picture of the Kaiser in the uniform of a field marshal.

Evening repast on the all-highest's seventieth birthday, his majesty, the Kaiser and King. Today only part of the Hohenzollern clan was the Kaiser's guests as many were invited to the homes of Dutch noblemen. Count Bentinck will entertain half of the birthday party tonight at Amerongen castle, and the other half with the Kaiser as an honor guest tomorrow night.

Wears Decorations. On his 70th birthday yesterday the former Kaiser stood resplendent in a field marshal's uniform of the first royal guards. Upon his breast were the highest decorations within the gift of imperial Germany and many other nations. Made participants in the celebration, saluted him as "his majesty, the Kaiser and King." Princess Hermine, whom the Kaiser married in exile, was not present to share her husband's triumph or to be addressed as "empress." The official explanation was that she was ill with what at first seemed to be chicken pox, but probably was only influenza. There was a rumor current, however, that she was only diplomatically ill since the greater part of the Hohenzollern clan refuse to recognize her as "her imperial majesty," conceding her merely the title of the Kaiser's spouse.

TERRIBLE TURK CRUSHED NEATH WRECKED AUTO PRICES TREND TO HIGHER LEVEL IN LATE DAY TRADE. PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 28.—(AP)—Hassan Muhammad, 38 year old wrestler, was killed near here today, crushing him to death. The Los Angeles mat artist, known in sport circles as "The Terrible Turk" for his tactics in throwing, was enroute here to witness tonight's match between Earl O'Shucker of Ohio and Casey Hinger of Iowa. He had intended challenging the winner.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Wide contrasting fluctuations again featured the late session of the stock market today, but most stocks were inclined to follow Commercial Solvents which closed at 24 1/2, a new high, and more than ten points above Saturday's close. Westinghouse Electric jumped seven and Colorado Fuel and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph five points. Midland Steel products Preferred fell seven. The bills encountered steady liquidation. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 4,800,000 shares.

LATCH OPEN FOR A CALL BY ALFRED

Hoover Would Be Most Happy to See Former Governor Smith—Al Non-Committal About Visit—Objects to Pestering By Reporters.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 28.—(AP)—President-elect Hoover said today he would be "most happy" to see former Governor Alfred E. Smith, who is spending part of his vacation time at Coral Gables, only a short distance from the Hoover home on Belle Isle.

Mr. Hoover's statement, made in reply to a question from a newspaper correspondent, follows: "By all means I should be glad if Governor Smith has time to call. I should be most happy to see him."

Advised of Mr. Hoover's statement by telephone, the former New York governor said he had no statement to make.

"Will you see Mr. Hoover?" he was asked. "I said there was no statement," the Democratic leader replied. He added that he was interested, but that he was in Florida for a vacation and subjected to newspaper correspondents, continually calling him on the telephone. "I would be glad to see you men in a group any time," he said. An effort to bring the president-elect and Mrs. Smith together through a third party was undertaken today by Hasallton Wright, press agent for Miami, who called at Hoover headquarters. This request was flatly refused, advisers of Mr. Hoover taking the position that they would not become a party to what they termed a "publicity stunt."

BOY BANDITS GET BARRAGE ONE IS SLAIN

Seventeen-Year-Old Portland Lad Slain in Clackamas Robbery—Four Pals Landed in Portland Jail—All Residents of Rose City

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 28.—(AP)—The body of a 17-year-old boy lay in the morgue here today—the victim of a revolver in the hands of the man he sought to rob.

Four other boys were in jail, awaiting whatever charges were to be placed against them. They were captured after their comrades had been mortally wounded.

Oscar J. Bank, 17, was killed when the five boys were attempting to break into a store at Barton, Clackamas county, after midnight Sunday morning.

Louis Nelson, 17; Dyd Barr, 18; Louis Schartz, 17; and George Carter, 17, are in jail. All live in Portland.

As the boys were robbing the store, Harvey Gibson and Andy Tucker, his son-in-law, heard a noise and appeared on their porch nearby. After shouting to the youths, both men opened fire, intending to shoot the five from the two automobiles which the boys had stolen and in which they intended to make their getaway. One of the bullets struck young Bank, fatally wounding him. The boys ran to their cars, but were unable to get one of them started. Bank died as he fell into the tonneau of the other machine. Two of the robbers ran to the side of the road and hid and the others fled in their automobiles. When they reached Portland they placed Bank's dead body on a curb and notified a nearby home that "a dead man is lying in the street."

Driver Buried Under Avalanche of Milk Bottles and Snow

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 28.—(AP)—An avalanche of milk bottles, snow and an overturned horse-drawn milk wagon, buried 17-year-old George S. Smith, driver of the wagon, early today. Smith was excitedly pulled from under and taken to a hospital with an injured leg. Smith said his horse chided as they rounded a corner. His wagon slid, struck the curbing and overturned. A pedestrian, after taking the reins of the animal, called the fire department.

EUGENE GOSSIP SAYS CALLISON NOT SIGNED UP

Campus Rumor That Medford Coach to Join Oregon Staff Not Substantiated—Has Many Offers On Coast Is Report.

A special article sent out by the press bureau of the University of Oregon today gives publicity to the rumor that Prink G. Callison, coach of the Medford high school for the first six years, is slated for a coaching job at some coast college the coming year.

There is no defuturism in the report, which has been in the air since last November. Callison began leaving with his basketball team for the north last Thursday, said that he expected to "know within a month what was going on."

Callison has been mentioned as a coach at the University of California, southern branch, at the University of Utah, and a half dozen smaller institutions, and a couple of California high schools.

The special article from the University is as follows: UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Jan. 28.—(Special) The rumor has been circulating over the university campus to the effect that Prink Callison, Medford high school's "wonder coach," is in line for a job with the Wehford coaching staff.

Right at present, however, there is no vacancy on the staff, and so far both Callison and Virgil Earl, director of athletics at the U. of O., have been non-committal upon the subject.

Because of the phenomenal record which Callison has made at the southern school in the past few years, it is a well known fact that he has had coaching offers from various schools up and down the coast. It is very obvious that excellent athletic material has been developed at Medford in the past few seasons, and the officials of the various institutions are well aware of the fact that wherever Callison goes many of those players will follow him.

If anyone thinks that Callison hasn't made a record for himself, let him absorb the following facts: In his six years as athletic coach at Medford high school, Callison has not dropped a single football contest, and has only been tied once. For the best three seasons his teams have been undefeated football champions of the state in basketball he has won six southern Oregon championships; one state championship, has been runner up twice, and has won one consolation tournament. During the present season, it begins to appear very likely that he may win another state hoop title in basketball, which, in the southern part of the state, is a very minor sport. Prink has managed to collect three district championships. In 1924, which has been the only year of late in which the southern Oregon schools have competed in track, Callison's pupils placed first.

HOOPER INDORSES CAL'S NAVY PLAN. WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(AP)—A message from Herbert Hoover to President Coolidge endorsing the president's naval views and denying statements inferring the contrary, was sent to the senate today by Chairman Hale of the senate naval committee. Profit In Spraying. LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—Knox county farmers who followed advice of their county agent in spraying for fruit trees received from $1 to $3 a bushel for apples this year and have put 3000 bushels in storage. Apples not sprayed brought around 50 cents a bushel.

LIMITATION ON SESSION IS DISPUTED

Hoover Due for Opposition By Democrats in Effort to Limit Extra Session for Relief—Senator Robinson Sounds War Cry—Declared Unconstitutional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover is going to bump into a fight with the Democrats on his proposal to limit the intended extra session of the new congress this spring to the consideration of tariff and farm legislation.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, sounded the war cry today with a declaration against the president-elect's proposal which he terms unconstitutional.

"There are many things on which legislation will be needed if the extra session is called," said Senator Robinson, "and certainly there is no constitutional method by which the senate can be limited in the exercise of its legislative duties."

However, Republican leaders are looking confidently to the power of an overwhelming majority in the house to carry out the limitation scheme. It is conceded that if the house Republican leaders finally decide only to organize the necessary committees for consideration of the tariff and farm relief that no other legislation can be put through there, Republicans will have a majority of almost 100 in the senate.

The senate can go ahead and pass all the bills it wants in the extra session but if the house majority refuses to consider them they cannot become laws. House leaders do not intend to consider anything but a tariff and farm relief in deference to the wishes expressed by Mr. Hoover in his conference here this month.

The Hoover administration's scheme can be upset only by a coalition of Democrats with a healthy size block of Republican votes in the house. House Democrats are quaking the prospects but their hope is faint.

PORTLAND RAIDS CORRAL 155 MEN

PORTLAND, Jan. 28.—(AP) As the result of police raids conducted over the week end, 155 men were taken to the police station on charges ranging from vagrancy to gambling and possession of liquor. Thirty men were arrested Sunday night at a pool hall. Charges were preferred against only fourteen of the 26, however. Three, found playing pool for money, were charged with gambling. Eleven were charged with vagrancy.

Saturday night was the big night. More than 125 men were taken to the police station, questioned by detectives, finger-printed and their records compared with those on file.

Will Rogers Says: NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—New York gives its annual reception again tomorrow to Captain Fried of the America. First Officer Manning and his men are just starting in on their life saving careers, they are practically amateurs yet. But this Fried, it's getting so a boat won't make up its mind to sink till they know he is out on the ocean some place. He takes on more passengers in the middle of the ocean that most ships do at port. If Hoover don't put him in his cabinet, why Mussolini will on his. An SOS is that bird's telephone number. So viva, the whole American crew, and the generous passengers on board. Yours, WILL ROGERS.
