

WHILLOCK PLANS ESTABLISH STORE AT JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., Jan. 29.—(Special)—C. W. Whillock, recently purchased the brick building which the late John Wells had his upholstery business. He will put in a grocery store in part of the building. Mr. Whillock has a store in Medford, one in Butte Falls and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Sanders of Klamath Falls will manage for the Sheddicks of Medford an up-to-date upholstery business in the other part of the building. The Sheddicks are interior decorators and Mr. Sanders comes to our city highly recommended. William Holloway of Medford will manage the grocery store for Mr. Whillock.

The senior Sunday school class with their teachers, Mrs. Sanden, enjoyed a social evening Thursday at the church. Many games were indulged in and delicious lunch was served. This is a monthly affair and the class looks forward to the occasion.

Mrs. Fred Fick and Miss Mollie Heit attended a luncheon at the Lighthouse hotel in Ashland Saturday given by Mrs. Hal McNeil, honoring the officers of the Daughters of the Nile.

Mrs. John Knight of Jacksonville sang two solos for the Valley Radio church of Medford Sunday evening. A beautiful, large bouquet of artificial flowers made by Mrs. Kate Hoffman, with the assistance of Miss Mattie Egan, and presented to the Presbyterian church, was very much appreciated by the congregation Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McKee of the Applegate and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Childers attended the funeral Sunday afternoon of Mrs. Debra Hinkley, services were held at Paul's undertaking parlors and the body was laid to rest in the Phoenix cemetery. A number from the Applegate attended.

The Home Foreign Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. G. O. Sanden, Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance. Plans were made for the annual thank-offering dinner to be given Thursday evening, February 14. A short play, "Who's Who in Africa," was put on by five high school students. Some time was spent in sending for a hospital in China. During the social hour the hostess served a lovely luncheon. The society will meet with Mrs. Forbes in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dugan at Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. John Wells is here for a few days from Corvallis, attending to business.

A. C. Babb is spending this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Miss Carman Dorothy returned home last Friday after spending a week nursing at the D. Scott home in Medford.

Mrs. Dora Cameron, Miss Patsy Neff and Miss Lora Johnston made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker of Medford were dinner guests at the T. C. Norris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culey of Big Applegate were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dew.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray were dinner guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell at Amy's place.

Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter, Violet, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland in Medford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Gammon has been quite ill with a gripe at her home the past two weeks.

Miss Wilma Shelley spent the week end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelley, of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bush of Medford were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Adams and Mrs. Fred Butcher were Medford shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Norman Lewis was the weekend guest of June Thompson of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris were Sunday visitors at the Walker Ricks home out of Medford.

Mrs. Frank Salsberry was transacting business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

George Maxwell spent Thursday evening at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Carl Neidermeyer and little daughter, Barbara, were callers at the home of Miss Ina McCully on Friday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hoefs was a Medford caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Cameron visited friends in Grants Pass last Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis spent Sunday at the Witt Matusz home.

Rev. Elmer McVicar was a business visitor in Medford during the week.

Mrs. M. L. Nelson had the misfortune of falling Friday of last week and tearing the ligaments in her ankle and is now confined to her home.

Mrs. Florence Fredrick of Medford and Jim Habb were united in marriage, Thursday, Jan. 24, at Grants Pass. The ceremony was performed by the captain of the Salvation Army of Grants Pass. Mr. Habb is foreman of Alfred Carpenter's ranch north of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrell of Medford were guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell and Amy Dow.

Judge H. D. Norton of Grants Pass will finance the broadcasting of the programs of the Valley Radio church of Medford during the month of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, of Gold Hill were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stanwood.

Clifton Childers, who is attending the Beaver Creek school, spent the week end at his home here.

Howard Lewis has returned to Applegate after spending the week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cople and daughter, Wilma, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Purcell were shopping in Medford Monday.

The N. N. A. benefit dance given Saturday night was attended by a large crowd and was very successful, both socially and financially.

The boys' high school basketball team of Coquille and the girls' team of Eagle Point played the Jacksonville boys and girls at our local gymnasium Wednesday evening. The boys' game was a tie, 16 to 16, and the Jacksonville girls were victors.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dugan at Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. John Wells is here for a few days from Corvallis, attending to business.

A. C. Babb is spending this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Miss Carman Dorothy returned home last Friday after spending a week nursing at the D. Scott home in Medford.

Mrs. Dora Cameron, Miss Patsy Neff and Miss Lora Johnston made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker of Medford were dinner guests at the T. C. Norris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culey of Big Applegate were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dew.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray were dinner guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell at Amy's place.

Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter, Violet, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland in Medford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Gammon has been quite ill with a gripe at her home the past two weeks.

Miss Wilma Shelley spent the week end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelley, of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bush of Medford were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Adams and Mrs. Fred Butcher were Medford shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Norman Lewis was the weekend guest of June Thompson of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris were Sunday visitors at the Walker Ricks home out of Medford.

Mrs. Frank Salsberry was transacting business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

George Maxwell spent Thursday evening at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Carl Neidermeyer and little daughter, Barbara, were callers at the home of Miss Ina McCully on Friday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hoefs was a Medford caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Cameron visited friends in Grants Pass last Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis spent Sunday at the Witt Matusz home.

Rev. Elmer McVicar was a business visitor in Medford during the week.

Mrs. M. L. Nelson had the misfortune of falling Friday of last week and tearing the ligaments in her ankle and is now confined to her home.

Mrs. Florence Fredrick of Medford and Jim Habb were united in marriage, Thursday, Jan. 24, at Grants Pass. The ceremony was performed by the captain of the Salvation Army of Grants Pass. Mr. Habb is foreman of Alfred Carpenter's ranch north of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrell of Medford were guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell and Amy Dow.

Judge H. D. Norton of Grants Pass will finance the broadcasting of the programs of the Valley Radio church of Medford during the month of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, of Gold Hill were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stanwood.

Clifton Childers, who is attending the Beaver Creek school, spent the week end at his home here.

Howard Lewis has returned to Applegate after spending the week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cople and daughter, Wilma, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Purcell were shopping in Medford Monday.

The N. N. A. benefit dance given Saturday night was attended by a large crowd and was very successful, both socially and financially.

The boys' high school basketball team of Coquille and the girls' team of Eagle Point played the Jacksonville boys and girls at our local gymnasium Wednesday evening. The boys' game was a tie, 16 to 16, and the Jacksonville girls were victors.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dugan at Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. John Wells is here for a few days from Corvallis, attending to business.

A. C. Babb is spending this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Miss Carman Dorothy returned home last Friday after spending a week nursing at the D. Scott home in Medford.

Mrs. Dora Cameron, Miss Patsy Neff and Miss Lora Johnston made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker of Medford were dinner guests at the T. C. Norris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culey of Big Applegate were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dew.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray were dinner guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell at Amy's place.

Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter, Violet, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland in Medford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Gammon has been quite ill with a gripe at her home the past two weeks.

Miss Wilma Shelley spent the week end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelley, of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bush of Medford were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Adams and Mrs. Fred Butcher were Medford shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Norman Lewis was the weekend guest of June Thompson of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris were Sunday visitors at the Walker Ricks home out of Medford.

Mrs. Frank Salsberry was transacting business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

George Maxwell spent Thursday evening at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Carl Neidermeyer and little daughter, Barbara, were callers at the home of Miss Ina McCully on Friday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hoefs was a Medford caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Cameron visited friends in Grants Pass last Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis spent Sunday at the Witt Matusz home.

Rev. Elmer McVicar was a business visitor in Medford during the week.

Mrs. M. L. Nelson had the misfortune of falling Friday of last week and tearing the ligaments in her ankle and is now confined to her home.

Mrs. Florence Fredrick of Medford and Jim Habb were united in marriage, Thursday, Jan. 24, at Grants Pass. The ceremony was performed by the captain of the Salvation Army of Grants Pass. Mr. Habb is foreman of Alfred Carpenter's ranch north of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrell of Medford were guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell and Amy Dow.

Judge H. D. Norton of Grants Pass will finance the broadcasting of the programs of the Valley Radio church of Medford during the month of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, of Gold Hill were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stanwood.

Clifton Childers, who is attending the Beaver Creek school, spent the week end at his home here.

Howard Lewis has returned to Applegate after spending the week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cople and daughter, Wilma, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Purcell were shopping in Medford Monday.

The N. N. A. benefit dance given Saturday night was attended by a large crowd and was very successful, both socially and financially.

The boys' high school basketball team of Coquille and the girls' team of Eagle Point played the Jacksonville boys and girls at our local gymnasium Wednesday evening. The boys' game was a tie, 16 to 16, and the Jacksonville girls were victors.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dugan at Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. John Wells is here for a few days from Corvallis, attending to business.

A. C. Babb is spending this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Miss Carman Dorothy returned home last Friday after spending a week nursing at the D. Scott home in Medford.

Mrs. Dora Cameron, Miss Patsy Neff and Miss Lora Johnston made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker of Medford were dinner guests at the T. C. Norris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culey of Big Applegate were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dew.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray were dinner guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell at Amy's place.

Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter, Violet, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland in Medford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Gammon has been quite ill with a gripe at her home the past two weeks.

Miss Wilma Shelley spent the week end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelley, of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bush of Medford were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Adams and Mrs. Fred Butcher were Medford shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Norman Lewis was the weekend guest of June Thompson of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris were Sunday visitors at the Walker Ricks home out of Medford.

Mrs. Frank Salsberry was transacting business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

George Maxwell spent Thursday evening at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Carl Neidermeyer and little daughter, Barbara, were callers at the home of Miss Ina McCully on Friday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hoefs was a Medford caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Cameron visited friends in Grants Pass last Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis spent Sunday at the Witt Matusz home.

Rev. Elmer McVicar was a business visitor in Medford during the week.

Mrs. M. L. Nelson had the misfortune of falling Friday of last week and tearing the ligaments in her ankle and is now confined to her home.

Mrs. Florence Fredrick of Medford and Jim Habb were united in marriage, Thursday, Jan. 24, at Grants Pass. The ceremony was performed by the captain of the Salvation Army of Grants Pass. Mr. Habb is foreman of Alfred Carpenter's ranch north of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrell of Medford were guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell and Amy Dow.

Judge H. D. Norton of Grants Pass will finance the broadcasting of the programs of the Valley Radio church of Medford during the month of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, of Gold Hill were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stanwood.

Clifton Childers, who is attending the Beaver Creek school, spent the week end at his home here.

Howard Lewis has returned to Applegate after spending the week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cople and daughter, Wilma, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Purcell were shopping in Medford Monday.

The N. N. A. benefit dance given Saturday night was attended by a large crowd and was very successful, both socially and financially.

The boys' high school basketball team of Coquille and the girls' team of Eagle Point played the Jacksonville boys and girls at our local gymnasium Wednesday evening. The boys' game was a tie, 16 to 16, and the Jacksonville girls were victors.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dugan at Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. John Wells is here for a few days from Corvallis, attending to business.

A. C. Babb is spending this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Miss Carman Dorothy returned home last Friday after spending a week nursing at the D. Scott home in Medford.

Mrs. Dora Cameron, Miss Patsy Neff and Miss Lora Johnston made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker of Medford were dinner guests at the T. C. Norris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culey of Big Applegate were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dew.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray were dinner guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell at Amy's place.

Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter, Violet, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland in Medford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Gammon has been quite ill with a gripe at her home the past two weeks.

Miss Wilma Shelley spent the week end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelley, of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bush of Medford were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Adams and Mrs. Fred Butcher were Medford shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Norman Lewis was the weekend guest of June Thompson of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris were Sunday visitors at the Walker Ricks home out of Medford.

Mrs. Frank Salsberry was transacting business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

George Maxwell spent Thursday evening at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Carl Neidermeyer and little daughter, Barbara, were callers at the home of Miss Ina McCully on Friday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hoefs was a Medford caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Cameron visited friends in Grants Pass last Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis spent Sunday at the Witt Matusz home.

Rev. Elmer McVicar was a business visitor in Medford during the week.

Mrs. M. L. Nelson had the misfortune of falling Friday of last week and tearing the ligaments in her ankle and is now confined to her home.

Mrs. Florence Fredrick of Medford and Jim Habb were united in marriage, Thursday, Jan. 24, at Grants Pass. The ceremony was performed by the captain of the Salvation Army of Grants Pass. Mr. Habb is foreman of Alfred Carpenter's ranch north of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrell of Medford were guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell and Amy Dow.

Judge H. D. Norton of Grants Pass will finance the broadcasting of the programs of the Valley Radio church of Medford during the month of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, of Gold Hill were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stanwood.

Clifton Childers, who is attending the Beaver Creek school, spent the week end at his home here.

Howard Lewis has returned to Applegate after spending the week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cople and daughter, Wilma, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Al Piche.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Purcell were shopping in Medford Monday.

The N. N. A. benefit dance given Saturday night was attended by a large crowd and was very successful, both socially and financially.

The boys' high school basketball team of Coquille and the girls' team of Eagle Point played the Jacksonville boys and girls at our local gymnasium Wednesday evening. The boys' game was a tie, 16 to 16, and the Jacksonville girls were victors.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Dugan at Ashland Sunday.

Mrs. John Wells is here for a few days from Corvallis, attending to business.

A. C. Babb is spending this week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Childers.

Miss Carman Dorothy returned home last Friday after spending a week nursing at the D. Scott home in Medford.

Mrs. Dora Cameron, Miss Patsy Neff and Miss Lora Johnston made a business trip to Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Barker of Medford were dinner guests at the T. C. Norris home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culey of Big Applegate were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dew.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Ray were dinner guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell at Amy's place.

Mrs. Ethel Olson and daughter, Violet, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sutherland in Medford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Gammon has been quite ill with a gripe at her home the past two weeks.

Miss Wilma Shelley spent the week end at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shelley, of Central Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bush of Medford were recent visitors here.

Mrs. Vivian Wilson, Mrs. Elmer Adams and Mrs. Fred Butcher were Medford shoppers Saturday afternoon.

Carroll Norman Lewis was the weekend guest of June Thompson of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Norris were Sunday visitors at the Walker Ricks home out of Medford.

Mrs. Frank Salsberry was transacting business in Medford Thursday afternoon.

George Maxwell spent Thursday evening at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. Carl Neidermeyer and little daughter, Barbara, were callers at the home of Miss Ina McCully on Friday afternoon.

Miss Alice Hoefs was a Medford caller Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Wilbur Cameron visited friends in Grants Pass last Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur Lewis spent Sunday at the Witt Matusz home.

Rev. Elmer McVicar was a business visitor in Medford during the week.

Mrs. M. L. Nelson had the misfortune of falling Friday of last week and tearing the ligaments in her ankle and is now confined to her home.

Mrs. Florence Fredrick of Medford and Jim Habb were united in marriage, Thursday, Jan. 24, at Grants Pass. The ceremony was performed by the captain of the Salvation Army of Grants Pass. Mr. Habb is foreman of Alfred Carpenter's ranch north of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cantrell of Medford were guests Sunday of Grandma Cantrell and Amy Dow.

Judge H. D. Norton of Grants Pass will finance the broadcasting of the programs of the Valley Radio church of Medford during the month of February.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanwood and son, Carl, of Gold Hill were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stanwood.

Clifton Childers, who is attending the Beaver Creek school, spent the week end at his home here.

Howard Lewis has returned to Applegate after spending the week at home.

Mr. and