

OFFICERS ARREST 10 FANATICS BY USE OF TEAR GAS

GRAND FORKS, B. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—During 10 prisoners, taken with the aid of tear gas, police stood victorious today in their second clash with the Doukhobor fanatics.

The first skirmish was won last Friday by naked fanatics, when they put to rout two provincial policemen sent to arrest members of the colony for taking their children from school.

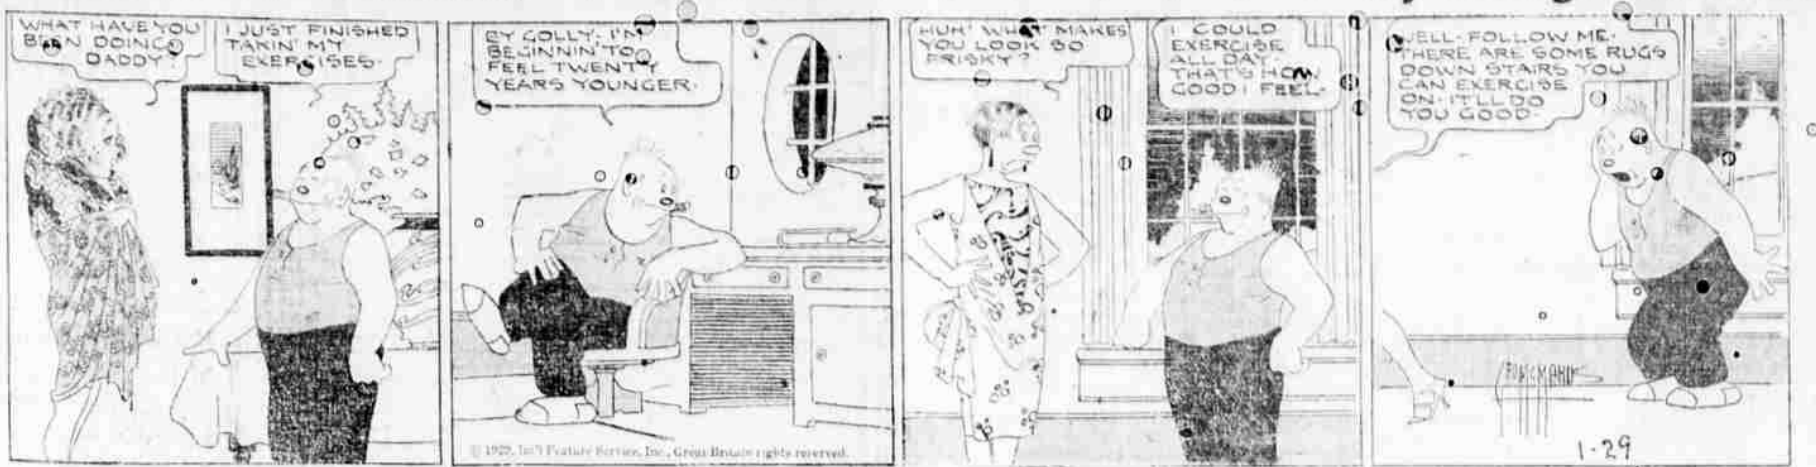

Returning to the attack yesterday, 14 police found 20 members of the colony, men and women, mobilized in a house. The fanatics resisted the invaders and a lively battle ensued in which the women joined.

When the officers turned the tear gas into the house there was a rush for windows and the heat-ventilators were overturned. Despite the smothering gas and the smoke from the overturned stove, Steersnikoff, leader of the colony, refused to leave the house. Police dragged him naked into the snow before he ceased to resist.

The Doukhobors, a sect known as the sons of freedom, are Russians whose religious tenets include the belief that Christ was wholly human. The rules of their sect also forbid the wearing of clothing even in sub-zero weather.

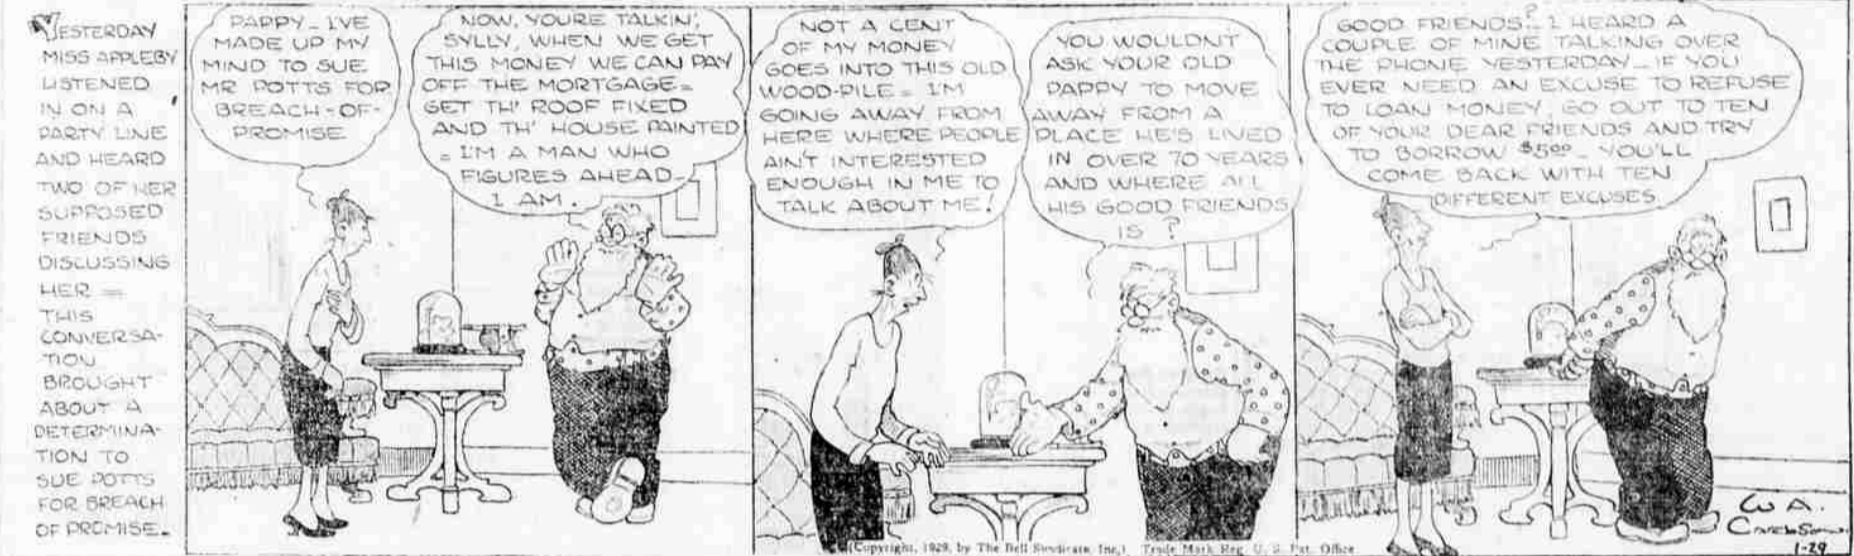

Word was received from Victoria, B. C., that the provincial department of education would press charges against the leaders of the colony to compel the members to abide by the school laws and send their children to the public schools.
