

PLEA OF WIDOW DISALLOWED FOR PENSION BENEFIT

The plea of Mrs. Cleo Ryckman, a widow, and mother of six children, the eldest 14 years, and the youngest five years of age, to be transferred from the widow's pension fund to the widow's pension list, was denied this morning by the county court, upon affidavits legal grounds. Any change from her present status was opposed by County Judge Sparrow, who told the hearing:

"This lady comes in here and bewails the court. 'We don't get along very well together,' said Judge Sparrow. 'She has a lawyer to advise her, go to her lawyer, and I told her it would be better if she could afford a lawyer, she ought to spend more on her children. She has a Buick car with a new license. That certainly uses some gasoline. It does not look right.' 'We have our own widows, who have lived most of their lives here,' continued Judge Sparrow. 'They are working their fingers to the bone, and have hardly enough to wear. I, for one, had no objection to granting any more aid in this case.' Mrs. Ryckman told the court she had 'blowed out the court.' 'He asked me how many kids I had,' she said, 'and I regarded a part of his remarks as an insult.' 'I told you I never said that,' Judge Sparrow interpreted. 'But even if I did it was the truth.' Mrs. Ryckman flared when Judge Sparrow said: 'You were in here with a gentleman friend. He is my cousin,' the widow retorted.

Continuing after that had a statement showing that Mrs. Ryckman spent last October had received over $200 from the Red Cross and the county indigent fund.

"No matter what angle you approach this question, she is going to win the argument," Judge Sparrow warned his fellow-officials as he turned his back.

When the court denied her plea, Mrs. Ryckman left. She came to the hearing with Mrs. Lillian Roberts of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Ryckman came to this city with her husband and children last fall from Arizona. Her husband died, and she became a county charge.

GROWING LADS NEED FOOD FACTS

Parents Should Explain the Place of Sugar in Nutritious Diets

Thoughtless parents sometimes tell their children that sweets are bad for them. This is misleading. An eminent specialist states positively that it is not good sense to deny children sugar. Sugar may properly form a part of the regular diet in the kitchen and on the table. Proper nutrition to children is so important that parents take the time and the trouble to explain it in detail. Medical authorities are warning the public these days to see that growing children and young people understand the importance of eating enough nourishing food. Young girls must be watched or they will become victims of the dangerous craze for slimmness—becoming thereby easy prey to tuberculosis and other diseases.

Teach your children that it is dangerous not to eat plenty of body-building, health-giving, energy-developing foods. Sugar is invaluable in making all kinds of healthful cereals, fresh and canned vegetables and fruits more palatable and enjoyable.

Children will eat nutritious foods with more zest if they are properly sweetened with nature's ideal flavor. Sugar is food in its least expensive form. Modern candies containing nuts, fruits, milk, chocolate and sugar make excellent desserts. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Blondes—Brunettes—Red-heads such widely varying types yet all screen stars alike have the vital appeal of smooth lovely skin..

9 out of 10 screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap

AN exquisite, velvety skin is any girl's greatest charm, and for a screen star it is all important, leading motion picture directors say.

"Screen history has proved that the cleverest make-up can't imitate beautiful skin under the glare of the close-up. I don't know a single girl without really lovely skin who has won enough of the public to become a star," says William Beaudine, director for Fox Films.

"A star must always guard the perfection of her skin—the glaring lights of the close-up reveal the slightest unevenness," Merna Kennedy explains.

The next time you see her in a close-up notice how fine and smooth Lux Toilet Soap keeps her skin or Clara Bow's, Bebe Daniels', May McAvoy's. When next you see your favorite screen star, whoever she is, remember that nine out of every ten lovely stars use Lux Toilet Soap for smooth skin.

Indeed, all the great film studios, following these stars' example, have made Lux Toilet Soap the official soap in all dressing rooms.

The exacting screen stars like the fact that this delicately fragrant white soap is made by the French method. "It gives my skin that beautiful smoothness I thought only fine French soap could give," Renée Adorée says. You, too, will like its caressing lather that leaves your skin so satin smooth. Use it for the bath, too, and the shampoo, as the screen stars do.

CLARA BOW, Paramount, so famous for her charm, says: "Lux Toilet Soap is a great help in keeping the skin in perfect condition."

JOAN CRAWFORD, M. G. M., says: "Never have I had anything like Lux Toilet Soap for keeping my skin fresh and smooth."

ELEANOR BOARDMAN says: "Lux Toilet Soap's excellent for the very smooth skin a screen star must have."

EVELYN BRENT, Paramount, says: "A star just must have a smooth skin. Lux Toilet Soap is so pleasing and soothing."

MARY BRYAN, Paramount, says: "Lux Toilet Soap is certainly lovely for keeping smooth 'studio skin' in perfect condition."
