

WOOD-ALLEY BOUT MAY BE ROUGHEST MATCH OF SEASON

If Medford and southern Oregon wrestling fans would see a match fraught with action, the battle between Tom Alley, master of the crucifix hold, of Portland, and Sallor Jack Wood of this city at the Rioito theater next Monday night, promises to easily fill the bill.

Alley is considered as one of the best drawing cards in Portland and has defeated some of the best matrons on the Pacific coast. He has flashes of temper over which at times he admits he has little control, indicating he will be more colorful than the late Hassan Muhammad, the Turk who wrestled in Medford last year.

Wood, however, will guard himself carefully from such bold and plans to give Alley one or two he will be unable to break.

In addition to the main event, fans are promised some fast action in the bout between Tommy Ryan, Medford's wrestling tailor, and Tex Porter, who claims Ryan will be unable to throw him twice in one hour. Ryan is confident he will win.

J. W. Hunt is among the Klamath Falls visitors here who arrived yesterday.

MEHLHORN PICKED TO WIN IN DIXIE

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 31.—(AP) Leading professional golfer of the nation came tramping into Dixie today to begin a two-month stand for prize aggregating $59,000.

First action was scheduled here today with a professional round-up, preliminary to the south-central tournament, which is to open tomorrow over the 72-hole route.

Bill Mehlhorn, who recently checked off a snip 271 at El Paso and turned out some tricky shots at San Antonio, was the pre-tourney favorite. Horton Smith, too, was expected to land well up in the names claiming a part in the $59,000 awards.

The defending titleholder, Mac Donald Smith, is not on hand, although three former winners are here. They are Bobby Cruikshank, Mehlhorn and Al Watrous.

Miss Dean Holt is still confined to her home recuperating from the effects of an influenza attack.

GERMAN PUGILIST IN FINE CONDITION FOR RISKO BOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP) Max Schmeling, heavyweight importation, will get the biggest chance of his career to climb into the front rank of contenders for the title tomorrow night and he will be in better shape than he has been for any of his previous American engagements.

In his ten-round battle with Johnny Risko of Cleveland in Madison Square Garden he will weigh 185 pounds, having put on five pounds in three weeks.

For the German, who bears a marked facial resemblance to Jack Dempsey and looks a little like him in action, it is the biggest chance of his career. A year ago Risko, with decisions over Jack Sharkey, Pauline Goddard and George Godfrey, was considered in the top ranks of heavyweights.

To Try Comeback

Sande

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP) Earl Sande, once America's greatest looney, may attempt a comeback this year. Reports from Maryland say that Sande is training strenuously in an effort to cut down the weight that forced him to announce his retirement last summer.

Unable to endure the daily torture of making weight, Sande quit the saddle at the close of the fall meeting at Belmont last season. He trained his own small stable and campaigned with more or less success at Aqueduct, Jamaica, Pimlico and Bowie.

DEMPSEY STARTS BALLYHOO BLAST FOR MIAMI BOUT

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 31.—(AP) With Young Stribling starting his light training work and Jack Sharkey en route to Miami Beach from Boston, details of the elimination bout in which the two will participate February 27 were day-tallying today.

Stribling, accompanied by his family, arrived in Miami Beach last night. Sharkey, accompanied by Mrs. Sharkey, Johnny Buckley and Mrs. Buckley, left Boston last night and will arrive tomorrow.

The Boston sailor said he will not inaugurate his training program for several days.

"I have nothing to with the amount of training Sharkey and Stribling do," Dempsey said last night. "My concern up until now has been to see that they were both here by February 1."

Stribling appears to be in excellent physical condition, Dempsey said last night after a banquet in honor of the Georgia contender.

"Sharkey is in a similar condition, and I believe he is, the fight fans are going to see a regular show," Dempsey said. "Both of the boys are young and aggressive and they know their business."

MONTGOMERY WARD BOWLERS GIVE TOMLIN THREE GAME DEFEAT

Montgomery Ward bowling artists made short work of the Tomlin Box Factory quintet in their match on the Salsatorium alleys last night, winning all three games. In justice to the losers, however, it must be said that the 129-pin handicap which they were compelled to spot the big store quintette was a deciding factor in the outcome.

Tomlin, ace, gathered in high game honors with 291 in the third canto, while Heckathorne of the same team contributed high score for three games of 523.

The light-house color 7-5 roll against the Mail Tribune team tonight, and considerable interest attaches to the match as there has always been keen rivalry between the two teams in the city bowling league.

ROUGH WRESTLING COSTLY TO CLETE

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 31.—(AP) When Clete Kauffman of Columbus, O., elected to rough it with George Kotsanos, Hollywood wrestler-movie actor in their match here last night, he found Kotsanos perfectly willing and as a result Kotsanos took two straight falls from the Ohionian. The first fall followed a succession of jolting reverse headlocks under the chin which sent Kauffman spinning dizzily to the mat.

CHICAGO CUBS TO GET LESTER BELL IN TRADE

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(AP)—The New York World says today that Lester Bell, third baseman of the Boston Braves, will be traded to the Chicago Cubs at the annual schedule meeting of the National league here Tuesday. The Braves will receive cash and probably a player or two.

He coughed ... the Villain! and the love scene had to be taken all over!

MADGE BELLAMY . . . Beautiful Fox star in her latest release, "Mother Knows Best."

Madge Bellamy explains the growing popularity of Old Golds in Hollywood

"The 'hero' in a movie may easily become the 'villain' if he coughs at the wrong time. A cough isn't nice at any time, but when it interrupts the taking of a movie scene, it's a calamity! Re-takes are costly!

"The high tension of movie work makes smoking a vital relaxation. But we relax with OLD GOLDS.

They're so smooth, as smooth as the polished manner of Adolphe Menjou, who himself is an OLD GOLD fan. "While they're the most enjoyable of cigarettes, OLD GOLDS mean absolute 'fade-out' for throat-scratch and smoker's cough."
