

TALENT GRANGERS HEAR PROGRAM IN POMONA MEETING

By Mrs. M. E. Tryer

TALENT, Ore., Feb. 1.—(Special)—The Pomona Grange met on Saturday at the Community Hall. The morning was taken up with the business meeting, this being the first regular meeting of the year. Reports from the different Granges of the county were submitted by the masters of each, showing very satisfactory progress, new members being taken in, in each Grange. At the noon hour a delicious chicken dinner was served by the Talent Grange, about 125 members enjoyed Talent's hospitality at this time.

At the close of the dinner hour a very enjoyable program was presented by the new Talent lecturer, Mrs. Floyd Bell. The first number rendered was a vocal solo by Miss Elizabeth Higgins, then a ten minutes talk by Mrs. Linnie Muller of Hornbrook, Cal., on Grange work in northern California, a butterfly dance and song by little Miss Betty Boone, was greatly enjoyed by everyone present, a violin selection by Mr. and Mrs. Everett Boone accompanied on the piano by Miss Margaret McCoy.

The new officers were installed at the close of the program. They are to serve for two years. The executive committee elected were: Ross Kline of Eagle Point, John Neidemeyer of Jacksonville and George Hilton of Central Point.

The next regular meeting of the Talent Grange will be held on Thursday, February 7. An urgent request is made for all members to be present at that time. A hard time dance will be given by the Talent Grange tonight (Friday). Everyone is invited, and a good time is anticipated by all Grange members.

Obituary

Mrs. W. M. Petri was stricken with paralysis last Thursday and died at her home at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, January 27, 1929. Some two years ago Mrs. Petri suffered from paralysis, but had practically recovered when stricken a second time. The paralysis affected her entire body, paralysis of the respiratory organs causing death.

Mrs. Margaret B. Sturgeon Petri was born in Erie county, Pennsylvania. She was aged 50 years, three months and 24 days, at the time of her death. From Erie, Penn., she moved to North Dakota, where the family resided for a number of years, moving to the Talent district 19 years ago and locating on Anderson creek, where the family have resided until the time of her death. She leaves her husband, Win. Petri, three sons Charles, Richard and Elton, and one daughter, Margaret.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Stocks parlors in Ashland. Rev. P. K. Hammond officiating. Interment was made in the Sterns cemetery on Wagner creek.

developments will be reported to the local grange. All of the legislative committees of the various granges in the county are working as a unit.

Many Eagle Point grangers attended the special meeting of the Pomona Grange at Central Point, which had been called to take care of unfinished business left over from the regular session. Many resolutions of special interest to farmers were voted on, and the floor debate proved interesting and some of it very enlightening.

DEEP SNOW WELCOME BY CLIMAX FARMERS

CLIMAX, Ore., Feb. 1.—(Special)—A luxurious mantle of snow covers everything here to a depth of 12 inches or more and the dark woods with their long hanging branches look like mysterious entrances to some fairy land.

Farmers rejoice for much snow on the mountains insures an abundant supply of water for the coming season.

Mrs. A. J. Grissom spent the week end with relatives near Medford.

The following transacted business in Medford last week: A. J. Grissom, N. P. Hanson, N. N. and W. F. Charley and L. H. Wertz.

CAN YOU FIND THE TWINS?

Find them! Sure you can! They are all alike, you say! Whoa! Not so fast! They are not all clothed the same. Many young ladies look alike and the eighteen on this page look like each other, but the "TWINS" are dressed exactly the same, like all real twins. Now look again. How about the hats? Trimming is different, isn't it? That's where the fun comes in, finding the Twins.

CLUES

At first glance all of the pictures look alike. But upon closer examination you will see that almost every one differs in some way from the others. In some you will find a difference in their wearing apparel. Have they all earrings or necklaces? How about their coats and hats? Are they trimmed the same? Some have bands on the belts and crowns; others have not. Maybe the difference is just the buttonhole in the lapel of the coat.

EAGLE PT. GRANGE

(Official)

Eagle Point grange will hold its regular business meeting next Tuesday night at 8 p. m. The master announced that the grange would open promptly on time.

The 4th and 4th degree team will confer these degrees on members ready for them.

During the short lecture program, Henry French will give a talk on poultry. Mr. French is one of the large and successful poultry raisers of this district and so is well qualified to discuss this subject. Those interested in poultry will doubtless find this an interesting part of the program. Several musical numbers have been arranged.

The ways and means committees will give another of their popular dances Saturday night, Feb. 2nd. Refreshments will be served as usual, by the home economics committee.

The legislative committee is keeping in touch with the state grange legislative committee at the state house, and any important
