BOY SCOUT PAPER HOLDING CONTEST TO SELECT NAME

The monthly paper, "Crater Sparks," published as an activity of the scouts of the Crater Lake council, is holding a name and heading contest. Valuable prizes are to be awarded by Russell's, the local scout outfitters, who are sponsoring the paper. Interest has been evidenced in the contest by scouts of Medford and the surrounding district. Several headings are already turned in and still be received until Friday, February 8th.

The contest is open to all scouts and the rules are simple: The heading must be complete, including names for paper and suitable drawings to illustrate. The headings may use an original name or the present one, as desired. Scouts may enter several headings if they wish. There are to be three prizes: First — Breeches, belt, shirt and hose; second—Breeches; and, third —Official neckerchief.

The third issue of the paper is off the press today and will be distributed to all scouts. Copies may be obtained at scout headquarters. There is no charge for the paper. The last issue is a special number for anniversary week. A new and attractive arrangement has been devised by the staff and a four-page paper was necessary to hold all the news.

The scouts are enthusiastically receiving the paper and Wm. Lee Bricker, the scout executive, states that it has met a real need in scouting in the council. It is possible through the medium of the paper, to maintain interest in scouting, and to advise all scouts of coming events, and encourage activities. Russell's Inc., are rendering a real contribution through their support of this activity.

NONE HURT WHEN BUS LOSES BRAKE AT REESE CREEK

REESE CREEK, Ore., Feb. 1.—(Special.)—On the evening of January 30 about 5 o'clock, what might have been a very serious accident, had it not been for the cool-headedness of the driver, occurred at the intersection of the Butte Falls road near the Reese Creek bridge, in the Crater Lake highway. Mr. Parker, who has the contract for transporting the high school students to the Butte Falls high school, we understand, had made up his load after the close of school in the evening as usual, consisting of some 16 students, and started on his usual rounds. Arriving at the Reese Creek schoolhouse, Miss Beulah Waddell got off as usual and the bus continued on its journey until it arrived at the above mentioned intersection when it seems that for some reason the brakes refused to hold and not having time to safely make the turn into the highway the driver, still trying to apply the brakes, went over the grade some eight or ten feet below, landing right side up in a soft dirt fill that was put there some time last year. The accident caused no little excitement and soon there arrived enough help to have cared for most any emergency, but to the delight of all present no one was hurt. After some difficulty the bus was safely landed on the highway by the aid of a stump puller owned by a nearby farmer.

Mrs. Francis Miller, Reese Creek's intermediate teacher, is suffering with a very bad tooth this week, and her room is being taught by Mrs. Cummings of Medford.

J. A. Woods is back at work for the Eagle Point Irrigation district after being off on account of urgent farm work.

Tom Vestal has been working for the irrigation district, improving the time, having been laid off from his position with the Owen-Oregon bridge crew until they begin operations again in the spring.

Walter Enskerg has been helping Charley Humphrey build fence this week.

The Eagle Point Irrigation district has some 14 men at work cleaning the Brown lateral. They expect to finish this week, which will about finish the work on the laterals, leaving them in the best condition they have been in for several years.

The Sunday school lesson for next Sunday, February 3rd, will be on "The Holy Scriptures." The key to the lesson is found in the golden text, as follows: "Open thou mine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law." Ps. 119:18. John Stille will preach on the subject of Christian Science for the next few Sundays. His subtext for next Sunday will be "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

LINCOLN BANQUET LITHIA SPRINGS HOTEL ASHLAND THIS YEAR

(Contributed).

Of the three anniversaries that fall in February—St. Valentine's, Washington's and Lincoln's—that of Lincoln becomes more predominant every year. Not that we cherish any less the traditions of the old saint that watches over all lovers, nor that we falter in our respect for the father of his country. But with the sure instinct of a democratic people, we feel ourselves growing closer all the time to that gaunt, weary, devoted backwoodsman who was misunderstood by many during his life and died in martyrdom. Each year we see him more clearly and a little differently.

The Jackson County Lincoln club is recognized as one of the best on the coast and for 14 years has celebrated the event in Medford. This year the same club will hold their celebration at the Lithia Springs hotel in Ashland with a rousing good program and noted speaker.

The number of tickets will be greatly reduced this year and you better engage yours at once. Cole Holmes and Fred Scheffle of Medford and D. M. Green, Fred Homes and Miss Johnson at the Tidings office in Ashland will supply you.

FIRST CHRISTIAN C. E. SERVICE OF INTEREST

Special music will be furnished by the young people, and the opening song service will be conducted by a member of the Young People's society. All are urged to come, and learn of the great youth movement.

NEW PARK CHIEF WESTERN MAN OF LONG EXPERIENCE

Enough additional information about E. C. Solinsky, whose appointment as the new superintendent of Crater National park was tersely announced by telegraph yesterday from Yosemite national park, has been learned to know that the new park official is a western man, graduate of the University of California, an athlete and man of tremendous physical strength, between 42 and 45 years old, and an exceptionally able government officer with many years of national parks service, and is a worthy successor to Colonel C. G. Thomson, who was recently promoted to the superintendency of Yosemite national park.

Not only that, but his personal popularity is attested by the fact that he is known all over the Pacific coast as "Al," and also as a powerful outdoors man. He will come to Crater national park fully trained in the national parks service and its ideals. All that he needs in taking over this park is familiarity with it, and southern Oregon acquaintanceship.

For fourteen years past he has been connected with the staff of Yosemite park, and for the past several years has been assistant to the superintendent of Yosemite park in charge of all construction and maintenance of buildings, roads, trails, etc., in that park.

Another desirable feature about his coming here with his charming wife and daughter is that the family will be a welcome addition to the social life of this community. The daughter is 16 years old and is described as exceptionally beautiful and accomplished.

Nothing definite is known as yet as to just when the Thomson and Solinsky families will exchange locations, except that Mr. Solinsky is expected to come here soon, and likewise Colonel Thomson is expected to leave soon.

SCOOP IS SCORED BY LUCKY STRIKE

A veritable "scoop" in the advertising world was achieved by the American Tobacco company this week when Captain George Fried's glowing endorsement of Lucky Strike cigarettes was "broadcast" to millions of smokers through newspaper ads in hundreds of daily newspapers. The heroic rescuer, commander of the United States liner America, which saved the crew of 32 men of the tramp freighter Florida off the Virginia capes recently is an enthusiastic supporter of the famous Lucky Strike doctrine "reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet."

Captain Fried's modest account of the rescue reads like a novel of adventure. After plunging thru high seas and icy, mountainous waves, the America reached the distressed Florida after a 350 mile dash. Thirty-two desperate men, numb from exposure and nerves shattered by their ordeal, were transferred to the rescue ship where, according to Captain Fried, hot coffee and "Luckies" gave them new life, comfort and relaxation. It was Fried's second heroic act, he having effected the rescue of the Antinoe's crew about three years ago when in command of the President Roosevelt. Chief Officer Manning, another hero of the Florida rescue, is another ardent Lucky Strike smoker.

Today's Mail Tribune publishes the Lucky Strike advertisement in which Captain Fried's endorsement of "Luckies" appears. This ad was sent by air mail from the offices of Lord and Thomas and Logan, well known advertising agency, the postage for the plate amounting to approximately $13, evidence that the American Tobacco company and Lord and Thomas and Logan agency are strong backers of air mail activities.

CRUCIFIX HOLD HAS TERROR FOR WOOD

With the match only two days away, Sailor Jack Wood today declared himself prepared for Tom Alley and his crucifix hold at the Rialto theater next Monday night. The "crucifix" is a mystery to most wrestling fans of Medford and they are wondering if Alley will be good enough to clamp it on Wood. This hold has won the majority of his matches of Alley, and is one which he boasts no living man can break.

Wood is in the best condition this season and is confident he can give Alley a few points in wrestling. Alley appears tonight in Eugene against Bob Myers of Tillamook, and will probably arrive in Medford tomorrow for his appearance here Monday night.

In Monday's semi-windup, Tommy Ryan is taking no chances in Tex Porter, whom he promises to throw twice in one hour, as Porter has made up his mind to throw Ryan in one. Porter is sure that Ryan but has faith in his wrestling ability.

Seeley Hall and Leslie Scheffel make up the committee in charge of the dance for the drum corps.

CENTRAL POINT GRANGE BALLOTS ON TWELVE NEW APPLICATIONS

(By E. H. Strohmeier)

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Central Point Grange met Friday night with about one hundred grangers in attendance, and with their many smiles we are expecting warmer weather.

Another lot of twelve applications were balloted on and elected.

Twenty-two from Sams Valley were visitors and Sams Valley grange drill team, with Paul McKinnis in charge and Miss Frances Wilson at the piano, put on the degree work in a most pleasing manner and sixteen candidates found their way partly into the grange mysteries.

As the time was getting late only two vocal numbers were given, by Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, and for those who enjoy the programs, there will probably be more in the future.

The tables were put in order, and a most wonderful "mulligan" stew with rolls and coffee was served. There were surely no empty vests showing up this time, even our worthy lecturer seemed fully satisfied.

At our next regular meeting, February 15, some kind of a cake walk will be in evidence and I am not just familiar with all the details, but all the ladies will bring cakes and all the men should bring their pockets full of "dimes."

We are hoping to have a record breaking attendance.

GROUNDHOG 'BOLONEY' SAYS WEATHER MAN, ALSO 'APPLESAUCE'

Inasmuch as this is groundhog day and the sun came out for several hours, the subterranean porker saw his shadow and hence there will be six weeks more of winter—maybe—according to old folk lore. The day was not generally observed, the barber shops being open as usual as the barbers had overlooked a bet. It was the first big day that was not formally observed by the tonsorial men since a year ago last groundhog day.

The postoffice, banks and general business functioned as usual, but Everett Anderson, chief clerk at the Hotel Medford, better known as Andy, knowing it was some sort of a big day, became confused and pinned an old shamrock in his coat lapel.

Wishing to learn how the U. S. weather bureau looked at the situation in view of the sunshine, a Mail Tribune reporter asked L. Walter Dick, head of the Medford branch of that bureau, about it, thereby obtaining the shortest, most emphatic interview ever recorded on the Pacific coast.

"Is there anything to this old saying about the ground hog and his shadow?" meekly inquired the newspaperman.

"Applesauce!" exploded the former St. Louis man with the scientifically, government trained and meteorological mind, "and lots of it," so vehemently that the interviewer fled to the Liberty building elevator with the loud shout of "Boloney!" pursuing him down the corridor from the weather bureau office.

That's that—six weeks more of winter, diluted with applesauce and baloney.

FABERS ENTERTAIN WILLAMETTE CLUB AT CENTRAL POINT

CENTRAL POINT, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special)—Monday night after the Willamette University Glee club entertainment, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Faber entertained seven of the club members, those being Fraternity brothers of Mr. Faber and Miss Edith Findley, who was a Delta Phi sorority sister of Mrs. Faber, also Mrs. Reed, the house mother and chaperone. They also invited a few Central Point young people to make up a party. Cards were the diversions of the evening. Those of Central Point were the Misses Irene Lampert, Helen Lampert, Elizabeth Southwell, Elizabeth Scott, Lola Davis, Vera Davis, and Mildred Bergur, and Jack Bolds. The Glee club members were Messrs Clark Wood, Raymond Derrick, Wesley Roeder, Howard Miller, Willis Hathaway, Paul Geddes and Ronald Craven. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served by the hostess.

Many Central Point people will be interested in a former Central Point girl, Miss Kathleen Wright, after several years' silence. Mrs. Carl Jacquet in Portland, was a recent hostess for Miss Kathleen, where her engagement to Lieutenant Lee Spurgin of Manila, P. I., was announced. Miss Wright will sail soon for the islands, where her wedding will take place. Mrs. Jacquet will be remembered here as Miss Beulah Wright.

At a boy scout meeting recently Alvin Tollefson was elected scout master and Earl Weaver assistant. They met again Thursday evening in the high school building.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Effie Castor gave a party for her son, Marion, it being his birthday, as a surprise. The party was given at the home of Mrs. R. W. Lampert. It was a "sure surprise." The evening was pleasantly spent with music and games. Those enjoying the evening were the Misses Margaret Pruit of Medford, Sybil Castor of Eagle Point, Audrey Garman, Elizabeth Scott, Roberta Reames, Bernice Reames, Vera Davis, Elizabeth Southwell, Gloria Bolds, Helen Lampert and Irene Lampert and Messers Marion Castor, Orvill Castor, Eugene Reames, Carl Coleman, George Johnson, John Clark, Gerald Morningstar, Dean Owens, Harry Eldon, Theron Brown and Jack Bolds. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Castor, assisted by Mrs. Lampert.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bursell were callers Monday in Central Point.

Everett Scott was in Medford Tuesday.

L. L. Damon of Butte Falls came down Sunday for a visit with his family, returning Tuesday.

R. H. Paxson, who passed away at his home in Central Point Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, had been in poor health for several months, but was only confined to his home the past few weeks, and his passing came as a shock to many friends. Mr. Paxson was a member of St. Mark's Episcopal church, a devoted husband and father, and as a friend he was staunch and true. Stability and magnanimity were characteristics of him. He was loved by the children of the community and was always happy to do them a kindness. Mr. Paxson took a great interest in the culture of flowers for several years, especially dahlias, and was familiarly known as the "dahlia king." Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Episcopal church. Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton delivered an appropriate sermon and the Masonic order of Central Point also taking part in the services. The body was then taken to the Perl Funeral Home to lie in state until the evening train arrived, when Mrs. Paxson and daughter, Mrs. Eldon Drysdale accompanied the body to the crematorium in Portland. The sympathies of the community go out to the bereaved ones.

The P. T. A. of Central Point met Friday afternoon. Miss Elizabeth Burr gave a very interesting talk on her European trip. The first grade gave the opening exercises.

The executive committee of the boy scouts are Theodore Tollefson, Louis Humphrey, Floyd Ross, A. B. Maple and Everett Faber. They expect to have the largest and best troop in southern Oregon.

The Willamette University Men's club sang in the high school auditorium Monday evening and were entertained by a full house. Miss Edith Findley was pianist and also played the marimba, which was enjoyed by all. Miss Findley is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Findley, formerly of Grants Pass, but now of Salem.

Mrs. Mattie Parker has returned from a visit with relatives in Roseburg, and she, in turn, is now enjoying a visit from her two sisters, Mrs. Mahala Clark and Mrs. Emma Stoeber, who are visitors from Washington.

Mrs. Bert Bostel, who has been quite ill with influenza, is able to be at her customary place in Mann's department store.

Rev. Millard of Medford, accompanied by Miss Daughman and Miss Curry, assisted the choir of the Christian church Wednesday evening with their music. The church expects to give a musical in the near future.

Walter Frank had an accident this week at the Merriman corner. A Hudson car, with a Washington license, stopped suddenly and Walter ran into the back of it. The only damage was to his own car.

Guy Eddy had an auto accident at the Faber corner with his truck a few days ago, and a Ford car driven by an elderly couple from Eagle Point.

Will Ferguson was a business visitor in Medford Tuesday.

Alvin Williams drove to Klamath Falls with his truck and brought a load of potatoes over for E. C. Faber and son.

Mrs. Henshaw and son of Eagle Point called on Mrs. Henshaw's daughter Wednesday evening at the Damon cafe.

Miss Inez Gebhart of the 101 district spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. M. Johnson.

The Central Point I. O. O. F. No. 193 will have initiation next Monday night.

Roy Nichols was in town Thursday, also Frank Hammond was transacting business in Central Point.

Ansel Pierce, who is employed at Prospect, was calling on Central Point friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heinroth were visitors at the Damon Cafe Sunday.

C. T. Hamilton was transacting business in Central oint Thursday.

Mrs. Sarah Vincent came from Medford Thursday and will spend a few weeks at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vincent.
