Local and Personal

There will be no more fishing in the Rogue river until the Chinook salmon begin to run in March. Fishing for steelhead was ended Thursday evening, the closed season extending until April 15, when the season for small trout also opens. This brings a definite end for Rogue fishing for a month and a half at least. Salmon usually appear in the river in March but do not take a spinner until about the middle of the month. The season remains open on bass, catfish and salmon.

F. M. Coker of Bay Point, who gave his Oregon destination as Central Point, was among the California motorists who registered at the local branch of the out of state auto registration bureau here yesterday afternoon. Other Californians included Robert Fox of Los Angeles, who gave his destination as Portland, and I. L. Putnam of Yuba City, who gave his address as Salem.

"Dowb in Los Angeles everyone is talking thunder dam," said Reginald Filer, who returned yesterday from Southern California, where he had been spending several weeks. "Every empty store building," he continued, "is now occupied by some real estate slicker trying to sell choice lots around the site of the dam and on the street, they give you folders and little booklets telling how your dollar can earn more money. It seems as if the dam will be a boon to the city slicker and the doom of the proverbial sucker." Mr. Filer left Los Angeles by stage Friday morning and arrived in Medford early yesterday afternoon.

Popularity of the New Majestic Radio sets in Medford continues to take up all available stocks that the Palmer Music House has been able to secure. The first shipments were taken quickly. Many orders have been left by local people for the February allotments. The new small cabinets, the deep, rich tone and the moderate price have made them the outstanding radio set for this year. They have the unique position of being first to offer their 1929 sets to the public. The Palmer Music House is handling all orders in rotation and offer free demonstration in your own home, to insure your satisfaction. 315*
