Rogue River Academy News Notes

(Contributed)

The academy was favored with a visit last Thursday from Eld. O. H. Shreve, a returned missionary from India. He with his wife and two boys stopped over several days on their way to take ship returning to their field of labor.

He spoke at the Seventh-Day Adventist church Wednesday night and at Jacksonville Thursday night.

One reason we appreciate Eld. Shreve's visit is that he used to be the Home Mission secretary of the Southern Oregon conference and spent considerable time at Medford years ago when he was working in this field.

He goes from here to the Bookman convention being held at Mountain View, Calif. and then will return to India.

Elder Westbrook, our Southern Oregon Conference president was present at the program given by the seventh and eighth grades last Saturday night. Sunday night Elder Westbrook held a meeting at the church.

The students were very glad this week to receive their grades and credits for the past semester. Those on the extra honor list or those who received all grades above 85 per cent were Hazel Jenkins and Minnie Bunch. Those on the honor list who received above 80 per cent were Don Cady, William Gardner and Oma Fawcett.

The academy art class has entered into the contest sponsored by the Humane society. Those who make the most appropriate poster designs will be awarded prizes. The contest is international.

LOCAL GIRL WINS DRAMATIC HONORS

Miss Cecile Coon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coon of Medford, who is attending the University of Oregon, has been receiving a succession of honors in the dramatic and musical departments of the university, has recently been cast as the lead in two college operas to be presented during the months of February and March.

Miss Coon, who will be remembered for her fine work in "The Pirates of Penzance" and "Pinafore" two Gilbert and Sullivan operas presented by the local high school during 1924 and 1925, has been given the role of "Mimi" in "La Boheme" and that of "Elena" in "Mignon," which will be offered by the University of Oregon opera class, February 21 and March 12, respectively.

John R. Knight with the assistance of Mr. Coe, principal of the school, is organizing a harmonica orchestra in the school. The children are taking a great interest in this.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jenkins have rented the house of W. A. Childer in north Jacksonville adjoining Mr. Childer's home. They moved in the first of this week.

A number from Jacksonville attended the Christian Science lectures by Robert Stanley Ross, C. S. E. of New York City, given at the Riato theater Thursday evening.

Mrs. Chester Jones and Mrs. Kermit Combes of Medford spent Wednesday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Childer.

Mrs. David Gammon, who has been quite ill with the la grippe is improving.

GREATER MEDFORD CLUB TO LAUNCH DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Plans for the fund campaign to finance the new community club house, which will be erected soon opposite the local senior high school, under the auspices of the Greater Medford club, are well underway, and the drive will be launched through the month of February.

Members of the organization have been appearing before local civic clubs and civic groups to explain the need for such a building in the community. The object of erecting the club house, is to furnish a meeting place for every civic organization in Medford, according to Mrs. James Collins, active Greater Medford club member.

Aside from the various rooms which are to be held, an auditorium with a seating capacity of approximately 300, will be built and furnished, to provide a place for the new Little Theatre group recently organized by Tom Swen here, and other similar worthy groups, which would come under the head of civic organizations with constructive programs.

According to present calculations, construction on the building will begin early in the spring. Leland Mentzer, vocational instructor and his high school classes have offered their services on the building program.

MISS NORRIS' PLAY ON KMED TUESDAY

The local radio public will be pleased to learn that a brand-new radio drama by Miss Helen Norris will be broadcast by the popular "Copeo Players" Tuesday evening, Feb. 5th. The play which is entitled "The Chuckle" is a story of pioneer days in the west and is said to be one of Miss Norris' best efforts. The locale of the story is in a "wild and woolly" western town and the play is full of dramatic situations which promise to keep all "listeners-in" keenly interested up until the close of act 3.

The cast of the "Copeo Players" which will present this new radio program includes: Cecil, on radio favorites as Harold Corlan, Fletcher, Motha, Williams, Stella Quinzberry and Carlo Davis. The drama will be given through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power Co., during the regular "Copeo hour" and will be directed by Mr. Davis.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS HOLD INSTALLATION AT JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 2.—The Royal Neighbor lodge of Jacksonville held an open installation on Tuesday, January 26, with a very good attendance both from Medford and Jacksonville.
