

BEEF PRICES NOW FAIR FOR PUBLIC AND CATTLE MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—An opinion concerning the immediate future of America's beef industry was the outstanding note today in the second session of the three-day convention of the American National Livestock Association.

Not only did the speakers and opinion-makers speak well of an industry which they claimed has only recently started to recuperate itself, but the annual report of the president of the national organization, L. C. Bente, of Marina, Texas set forth that for the first time in a long while, the cattle man is receiving a fair price for his commodity. Bente said that the organization as a whole must be credited for this improvement in the condition of cattle raisers.

"No one is compelled to do without beef today because of the price," said Bente. "The price is no greater than most other things which a consumer must buy, and during the years of depression, beef sold below production cost."

PRODUCE IN PORTLAND HOLDING STATIONARY

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 6.—(AP)—With the exception of some fruits, which advanced half a cent to 45¢, market prices were unchanged Wednesday.

Vegetables remained stationary. Root vegetables are still firm because of scarcity.

Both sweet and Irish potatoes show an upward tendency.

Smaller size oranges, which have been flooding the market, were less plentiful and prices were firmer. Growers have cut down on shipments in order to stem the rapid decline.

This was announced here today by officials of the Air Lines, who said Charles T. Washburn, Boise business manager of the concern, was seeking the necessary data.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON REDUCTION OF CAR LICENSE FEE

SALISBURY, N. C., Feb. 6.—(AP)—People of Oregon may soon be buying auto licenses in July instead of January. Members of the house committee on roads and highways and the automobile and roads committee of the senate, meeting jointly Tuesday evening, were unanimous in their approval of Senator Jones's bill to change the date of expiration of automobile registrations from January 1 to July 1 of each year. The senate has already passed this bill, S. B. 16, without a dissenting vote.

Three and a half weeks have elapsed since the present session opened and no action has yet been taken on the proposal to reduce automobile license fees, membership of the committee dealing with automobile and road matters were reminded Tuesday. The bill to effect an average of 25 percent cut in license fees has been ready since the first week and spurred to hasten action, the committee of the house and senate will meet in joint session Wednesday night to consider it and formulate their reports on the scheme.

There have been Moslem-Hindu troubles here for several days, with the fighting between religious factions steadily growing in intensity.

The troops first fired a crowd of Muslims started to chase a cage which was being conveyed a wounded Hindu in a hospital. The action saved the wounded man from the mob.

These were nineteen known dead, most of them Muslims while the injured list exceeded that. Troops with fixed bayonetted rifles, shot while, Muslims and Hindus were stationed at important road junctions.

PORTLAND CHAUFFEURS LOSE CARS TO THUGS

PORTLAND, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Two taxicab drivers lost their cars and all the money they had with them when a pair of rough-cut men robbed them early today.

George Carr's cab was called to a second West Side point and when he reached there the men held him, robbed him of $1.50 and stole his car. An hour or so later, H. Sakers, another driver, was robbed of $5 and his cab stolen. Both abandoned machines were later recovered. Police believe the pair of men committed both robberies.
