

BOGGS TELLS SOLONS LOAN COMPANIES NOT LIKE BANKS FOR TAX

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 8.—(Special) "You can't tax us like banks because we're not like banks in many respects. It's either all or nothing. I can't set an arbitrary figure," declared Oliver C. Boggs of Medford, in opposing the building and loan clause in house bill No. 27 which proposes an excise tax.

"There is a clause deducting all interest on deposits in banks, but the building and loan associations are only allowed a limited exemption. The mutual loan companies exist only to build homes and you tax their deposits. Our income is what we have left after deducting expenses of operation and what we pay for money. We are much like a bank, except that we must pay more for money. Banks pay 4 per cent, while we must pay 7 and 8 per cent. It is a case of supply and demand entirely. Every borrower must buy stock equal to the loan. Why should a borrower pay more than one who owns his home? We have no other source of revenue than what the home owner pays us and if you tax us you tax the home owner," he said.

"After some discussion about a tax, Representative John H. Carlin of Medford asked, 'What would be a fair tax?' "You mean a franchise tax?" replied Mr. Boggs. "Yes, how much?" said Carlin. "About $50 for the size of our company would be about right," Boggs answered.

The bill, which has caused considerable interest in the state, is now in the hands of the house committee on taxation and revenue, awaiting additional hearings on the measure.

SAMARITAN ARMY GATHERING MONEY

Adjutant Buchanan of the local Salvation Army post has received a communication from Brigadier Albert E. Baynton, divisional commander, with headquarters at Portland, asking for the aid of an organization known as the Samaritan Army, for funds, and advising that the collectors are headed this way. It is claimed that, owing to the similarity of names, funds intended for the Salvation Army are unknowingly given to the Samaritan Army. Adjutant Buchanan yesterday presented the matter to the Chamber of Commerce and authorities.

The letter reads: "I have just received a letter from Captain Williams telling me that the Samaritan Army has been working in Salem for some time, and it is suggested that they are headed south. Captain Williams was able to block them in getting on the lookout. Everywhere the Salvation Army announces its self-denial effort somebody comes into the field collecting our territory. 'Anybody collecting in the name of the Salvation Army should be immediately arrested. If the Samaritan Army is working your territory you should make it clear to the public that the Samaritan Army does not mean the Salvation Army and people should not contribute to them money intended for our organization.' County Judge Alex Sparrow spoke before the Rotary club of Ashland yesterday on 'Indigents and County Budgets.'"

BENSON CLASS IN VAUDEVILLE TURN

Tonight, at Frank's Playhouse in the children's building, the pupils of Eve Benson's dancing academy will present a highly entertaining program of vaudeville and dancing for the benefit of the Episcopal church organ fund. An elaborate array of dance acts and stunts have been prepared, in which members of Frank's dancing academy will participate with the dancing academy students. Attractive costumes have been designed and made by Mrs. Homer Reed and no detail has been overlooked by Mrs. Benson in making tonight's benefit entertainment a signal success.

In addition to the varied dancing acts, there will be musical comedies, monologues, tap dances and clever stunts which will combine in making a diversified and enjoyable program. Because of the benefit show this evening there will be no stage presentation by Frank's troupe of comedians.
