Distribution Without Waste

"When I moved into town - I looked up a Safeway Store and a good school"

Mrs. T. tells us that her mind a Safeway Store in her town means as much to her comfort and peace of mind as the school she selects for her children.

"I have found from experience here and there," she tells us, "that I can save many shopping hours by coming to Safeway—and I save a good deal of money besides—and you know, we are all anxious to do that, too."

Mrs. T. is but one of thousands of shrewd women who have solved the problem of living well economically, with the utmost convenience by buying all foods at Safeway.

FATHER AND SONS BANQUET TONIGHT AT ELKS TEMPLE

Preparations are complete for tonight's Father and Son dinner at the Elks club at 6:15, with a complete program planned by the committee in charge under the direction of Chairman Allen Smith. The program will be broadcast over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virginia radio station, with Carl Tengwald at the microphone and the dinner will be served by a committee of the Catholic church ladies under the direction of Mrs. Sid Brown. Those expecting to attend are asked to assemble in the Elks Temple lobby at 6:30 prior to the dinner. The order of the program is as follows: America, invocation by Rev. Carmen Mell, music by high school orchestra, introduction of scoutmasters and scout troops, orchestra music, speech by Homer Platt, music, welcome speech by Allen Smith, speech by John C. Mann, special entertainment by Earl Davis, main address of the evening by Prof. Irving Vining and singing Star Spangled Banner. Frank Farrell is in charge of tonight's radio set-up and broadcast arrangement, while E. W. Gould is in charge of the decoration of the dining hall and arrangement of tables.

THE PIGTAIL NEW MEAT MARKET TO OPEN IN MORNING

A glorified set of pigs they are—those jolly little fellows, all scrubbed and shiny, who catch hold of each other's tetter extremities and follow the leader around the white and green tile walls of "The Pigtail," new market next to Jernin and Woods on Central, which will open its doors to Meadford buyers tomorrow morning. It is said that, true to the Bill Nye story, the leader of the pigtail parade, is blind so the whole caboodle of those other jolly young innocents, are being steered into the market where they end up by being served on a platter with a red, red apple in their mouths. This is all depicted on the picturesque walls of the little market, and the placard that decorates the archway leading into the center aisle. The painting was done by H. S. Cleveland, decorator and designer.

According to B. E. (Bud) Storm, manager of the new market, the slogan of the place of business will be "quality and cleanliness" and the staff will be to serve a discriminating public the best of a superior assortment of fine cuts. The pigtail will feature crown roasts, mutton ducks, veal and lamb patties, Saratoga chops, English chops and French chops, according to Mr. Storm. In keeping with the scheme of decorations in the white and green tile work, which was done by the Childers brothers, contractors, both Mr. Storm and his assistant, Lester Cash, will wear green smocks in the market, a deviation from the usual butcher's garb. The first 100 customers who make a 75 cent purchase in the market tomorrow morning will be given a free carton of Mayross sausage, which, together with the Mayross hams, will be handled exclusively by the Pigtail.

NEW FEHL BUILDING NEARING COMPLETION

The new business building which Earl Fehl has erected at the corner of 6th and North Ivy streets, immediately adjoining his Record-Herald building on the west, and which is now in the process of receiving its finishing touches will be entirely completed and ready for occupancy by the middle of March. Already two of the three store rooms have been leased, the corner room to be occupied by a confectionery establishment and the middle one by a barber shop with a ladies' beauty parlor in the rear. The other store room is in much demand, but Mr. Fehl will not lease it until he decides on a class of business and tenant he thinks would be best for the location. The rear of the building, fronting on Ivy street, was leased a month or so ago by the Southern Pacific Transport company for the headquarters and housing of its motor stages.

MANY ELKS PRESENT TO GREET J. R. M'KY

With a large attendance the official visit of J. R. M'ky of Eugene, deputy grand exalted ruler for Oregon south and the president of Past Exalted Rulers of the local Elks lodge had a very pleasing time and an enjoyable entertainment program last night. The candidates initiated into the B. P. O. E. L. R. badge membership were: L. R. Baker, Harold W. Brown, Ward Beener, Dr. A. R. Hodges and L. C. Sagor, and the first nominations were made for officers to be elected in March to take office in April.

STREET NERVOUS IN TRADE TODAY SOME GAIN MADE

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—(AP) Prices ebbed about nervously on the New York stock exchange today, as yesterday's sharp break and another increase in brokerage loans amounting to $10,000,000, left speculative sentiment completely unsettled. A pronounced rally developed during the forenoon, with a number of copper, steel, motor and merchandising shares remaining from $2 to $10 of the previous day's losses, but a "bear" raid soon after midday precipitated a rush to sell, wiping out most of the gains, and depressed several issues $2 to $5 under yesterday's closing prices. Fresh liquidation broke out when call money rose to 9 per cent in the final hour. U. S. Steel dipped to 17 1/2, comparing with last month's record of 192 3/4. Radio sold 3 1/4, contrasting with 1 1/2, foreigner gain of 364. Safeway Stores and Wright Aero slumped 7 points and a number of other important shares ruled materially under the previous close. The closing tone was weak. Total sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

EGGS STATIONARY FOLLOWING DROP

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 8.—(AP) After their general decline of Thursday, egg prices remained stationary today. In butter, there was half a cent advance in firsts to 44 cents. Butterfat was a cent higher. Country killed meats and poultry were light in supply and firm in price. Root vegetables are still unusually scarce because of the continued cold weather. A carload of Texas string beans, which are selling at 25 cents a pound wholesale, has arrived. Fruit prices show fluctuations. The smaller oranges, which have been cheap and plentiful, were reported to be dwindling in supply.

Obituary

LAUNSPACH—George Launspach, a resident of Medford and Jackson county since coming here from Glidden, Iowa, 21 years ago, passed away at his home, 307 South Oakdale, at 1 a. m., February 7. Mr. Launspach was born in Dubuque county, Iowa, December 5, 1861. At the town of Glidden he was married October 15, 1890, to Lizzie C. Peil, who survives him. During his residence in Jackson county he has been engaged in the fruit business and also in building contractor. The last building erected by Mr. Launspach was the much advertised model home on the corner of West Fourth street and Rose avenue. Besides his wife and his mother, Louise Launspach, of Carroll county, Iowa, funeral services will be conducted at the Congregational church at 1 p. m. Saturday, by the Rev. E. P. Lawrence of the Presbyterian church, of which deceased was a member. Interment in Medford cemetery.

Veteran of Alaska Gold Rush, F. W. Payne, Recounts Hardships Gold Diggers Encountered in '98

Retracing the "Trail of '98" is one of his pleasantest reminiscences, according to F. W. Payne, local resident, who hit the trail for the Klondyke regions in '98. Mr. Payne, like other local residents who have been in Alaska, either prior to the rush of '98 or since that time, is to be the guest of the Mail Tribune at the presentation of the "Trail of '98" moving picture, which will be shown at the Hialto theatre starting February 18. "There were two trails to the Klondyke," said Mr. Payne, who still has pictures and maps of the country explored in those days—"the old Dyea trail and the White Pass or Skagway trail. It was on the Dyea trail near Chilcoot Pass, where the fatal snow slide took place in 1898 that killed 62 people who were loaded down with their packs." Mr. Payne recalled with considerable humor what was known as the "sugget election" in 1900 at Dawson. This camp, being in Canadian territory, the American cit-
