Beating the regular time but failing to break his own record over the lap, Pilot Heber C. Miller of the Pacific Air Transport company took the air mail from Portland to Medford last Thursday in an hour and 54 minutes. His record is one hour, 22 minutes. Hopes that this might be lowered were felt when, as Miller took off from Swan Island airport at 7:06 a. m., a 46-mile north-northeast wind was blowing at the 3000 to 10,000 foot levels.

Members of the Talent Grange enjoyed an hour's moving picture show Thursday night through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company. A number of interesting reels were shown including pictures of Herbert Hoover's visit to the Rogue valley, Lindbergh at the Medford airport, the Medford-Portland football game and others. Of special local interest was a reel showing the big flock of 1100 turkeys raised on the Penland ranch at Talent last fall. These turkeys were hatched and brooded electrically and proved one of the best flocks in the valley, according to all reports.
