

SECOND TRIANGLE LAST RITES FOR DEBATE IN SERIES BENJ. H. PLYMALE PLANNED FEB. 20 OBSERVED TODAY

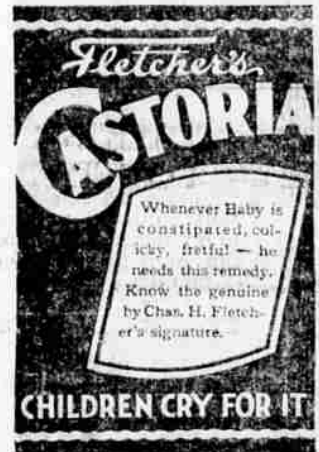

The second of a series of three triangle debates, which will determine the high school championship of southern Oregon, will be held by the Medford Grange, Pass and Ashland high schools, February 20 at a school, according to Ralph Bailey, local debate coach.

With Ashland-type points allowed of Medford, and Grange Pass as the favored interest in the results of the second contest is keen. The Medford affirmative team, consisting of William Daucherty and Laura Drury, who walked away from Grange Pass with a three-pointing decision in their favor, will meet the Ashland negative team which also won a three-pointing victory from Grange Pass in Ashland on the same night. In the 1929 high school tournament at 8 o'clock Wednesday, February 20.

ELKS WILL STAGE PADELFORD SCRAP

The boxing smoker scheduled for Monday, February 18, at the armory will be held at the Elks' temple instead, according to Matchmaker Jack Wood, and will be the first Elks' smoker held for over a year. Pat Padelford, local boxer, will be featured in the main event with Charlie O'Leary, 133-pound Seattle fighter, who is given credit with having knocked out some of the best boxers in the northwest. He has over 20 knockouts to his credit.

Padelford is already in the midst of a stiff training program for O'Leary and fans are assured of a hard fought battle between these two boys. In the six-round semi-windup Luddy Thornton, promising young local scrapper, will mix gloves with Fidel Saucha, 115 pounds, of Portland, regarded as one of the best men of his weight on the Pacific coast. He has had over 50 fights and last year fought Joe Swann for the flyweight championship of the Philippine Islands.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT

Indicative of the wonderful season with which the community observes the memory of Benj. Plymale last night the passing week following crowd which filled the auditorium at the Grange hall, observed his remains at 10 o'clock this morning.

Funeral rites, which were performed at the Grange hall, were beautiful and dignified, and which not only recalled some of the highlights of the local man's interesting and useful life, but brought to the highest order of consolation and comfort to those who gathered.

The American Legion and National Grange, secured a fine on either side of the sidewalk outside the church following the ceremony and stood with bowed heads as the last draped casket was carried there. They then formed a marching formation ahead of and at either side of the hearse, and proceeded the course of Main street to the cemetery. The long procession stretched the entire length of Main street from Oakdale beyond the bridge.

The American Legion had charge of the ceremonies at the grave, Horace Bronsley, past commander acting as chaplain. The local National Grange furnished choir and firing squad.

The active pallbearers at the funeral were Charles Reames, Herbert S. Deane, John Wilkinson, Vern Van Dyke, Peter Torkan and William O'Hara. Honorary pallbearers were Fred Weeks, Paul McDonald, William Hanson, William Asphob, Louis Richardson and John S. Orr.

WESTERFIELD TO TALK AT POULTRY MEETING

The last meeting of the Poultry club will be held Wednesday evening when N. C. Westerfield will address the meeting in the Agriculture building of the local high school at seven o'clock.

On Thursday evening, James C. Farmer will give an address in the high school auditorium. Mr. Farmer is representative of the National Grange and all members of the Jackson County Grange are urged to attend, as well as all farmers and townpeople that are interested.

Births

Born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. May Tucker, 216 North Holly street, an eight-pound baby, first named, Nellie Jean.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy of our many friends and especially the Elks and the American Legion during our recent bereavement, and for the many beautiful floral offerings.

LEIGON AUXILIARY MUSICAL PROGRAM ENJOYED BY MANY

The American Legion auxiliary held their February social meeting Monday evening in the club rooms at the armory. Approximately 28 members enjoyed the delightful musical program presented by Mrs. Roy Deane, Miss Mary Williamson, Miss Mary Greiner, and Miss Mary Greiner. An interesting and instructive talk on Abraham Lincoln was given by Mrs. M. L. Norry.

A check-up of the evening's activities disclosed the fact that the auxiliary had 22 nearer its membership goal of 25.

The boys' quart, led by Billy Mims of the Portland veterans hospital was presented to Mrs. Mary Jacobs. The 225 results from the sale of this quart was presented to the disabled veteran.

A check-up for the Jackson County Health unit was given to various members of the auxiliary for finishing at home.

Daily refreshments were served by Mrs. Laura Buckingham, chairman, and her able assistants.

UNION HI SCHOOL PLANS DISCUSSED AT CLUB MEETING

(By Asst. Walker)

GOLD HILL, Ore., Feb. 12.—(Special) The Gold Hill community club held their meeting on their regular evening, on Monday, Feb. 12 at the council room of the city hall.

The main item to be brought before the meeting at this time was the proposed subject of a union high school.

The full proposed idea of the union high school was put before the meeting. The districts which would include would be Sams Valley, Rogue River, Evans Valley, Foots Creek and Gold Hill.

The first point mentioned by a member present was the possibility of getting the other high schools to agree to combine into the union.

Mr. Meisinger, the Superintendent of the Gold Hill schools, who was present at this meeting, stated that a meeting had been held in Sams Valley for the purpose of determining their opinion of the union high school. The meeting, according to Mr. Meisinger, was not much of a success. The residents of that district did not seem to be in favor of such a plan at the present time. It was mentioned that at a future time, if a union high school were built, it was Sams Valley would possibly be in favor of such a plan and combine into it.

As to the other districts which would be included, they also are not entirely in favor of it. Rogue River does not seem to agree thoroughly with the question, although a number of the people there are strong for the plan. Evans Valley has practically withdrawn. Foots Creek district is said to be in favor of the plan.

As to the objection by the other districts, it was stated that the building of such a school was taken from the business standpoint. Rogue River feared that it might injure business interests in their locality. This question was much discussed by all those present and along with it came the question where to select the site for the new union high school.

Gold Hill does not feel that it will injure the business interests of this city.

The majority of those present agreed that this question should be considered from an educational standpoint instead of the business side, and that such a plan of union high school would not affect the business interests of either city, in fact, it would increase them, because if a high school were built under modern construction plans, it would be one of the finest attractions for people moving into this country that either city could have.

Another of the main items in the discussion was the question of taxes. The present tax rate of the Gold Hill district is approximately 9 1/2 mills. Mr. Meisinger stated that he had made a study of the tax rates in the different schools of Oregon that had formed into union high schools and that according to the data he had at hand, it would entail a cost of about eight mills for the new school, providing that the five districts would be included. Six mills, it is estimated will cover the operation of the new union high school.

To show the excessive cost of this in the smaller schools of the state, Mr. Meisinger compared the Central Point high school with the one in Rogue River. The cost of the Central Point high school is $12,000 per year, with a total enrollment of 111 students. Rogue River costs $900 per year with an enrollment of about 20 students. Thus $2000 is the difference between the two schools in operation and 41 students more in the latter.

If on the ratio of cost of the Rogue River high school, Central Point's expenses were as much, it would cost them about $19,000 per year to operate their school for one term.

It was also stated that Rogue River was not getting the returns out of their high school that Central Point was, and were paying a much larger amount for operation. The proposed plan, it is said, would remedy this evil of excess amounts being paid for operation but decreased taxes.

Mr. Freeman, an architect from Portland, was at the meeting and

HEALTH PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL OPEN TO PUBLIC

A special feature of Health Week being conducted at the high school, a "Health" program will be given tomorrow at 1 p. m., which will be of interest to townpeople as well as to students. Miss Bertha Bailey, of the public speaking class, will give a talk on "Health" at 1 p. m. and Miss Helen Williams, of the same class, will speak on "The Unpleasant Habit of Chewing Gum."

From the music department of the school, will be two parodies, Miss Alberta Kuhn will sing one entitled "Cigarettes," which is a parody of a popular song, and another by Norris Foster, who will sing a 4-5 song pertaining to health. "Smiles," will be one of the songs of the song.

Another interesting feature of this program will be a short skit given by Norris Foster and Victor Dollogo. The two boys will impersonate a scientist and a customer searching for some good medicine. "Happy's Vanity Case" will be the title of this humorous sketch.

The Girls' Athletic association will dramatize "Daisy of the South," which will demonstrate what happens when two foods are eaten. Miss Alberta Worth will also give a "Cocoanut Cane Dance."

This is the first "Health Week" that has been observed in Medford high school, and the departments are taking in the work pertaining to health education with remarkable enthusiasm.

Miss Jean Deady, of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, is at the school this week giving talks to the different classes, and departments, and looking in many ways to further the health movement.
