LINCOLN

"Honest Abe" Lincoln—rail-splitter, grocery clerk, lawyer, and President—was born in a crude log cabin in Kentucky, February 12, 1809.

His rapid rise to the Presidency, his steadfastness of purpose in doing his duty as he saw it, and his sterling qualities as a man, make up one of the most inspiring pages in American history.

Let us join in honoring the memory of a great man.

ODD FELLOWS TO GAIN CONVENTION AID FROM MOVIE

The Odd Fellows of Oregon are generally expected to be the first to raise money for the entertainment of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Oregon in Medford next May. Mr. Hunt has proffered a portion of the receipts from the production "The Trail of '98" to be given at the lodge beginning next Monday.

The local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will have at their disposal 200 tickets, the proceeds of which will be retained by the committee. There will be special tickets for this purpose, and they will be honored Monday and Tuesday. As this will provide a tidy sum for the grand lodge fund, every member of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges will exert every effort to dispose of the full supply of tickets. Each member is expected to assist in the sale.

The "Trail of '98" is heralded as one of the most graphic, thrilling and colorful epics of one of the most exciting stampedes to the newly discovered gold fields of Alaska. No more vivid historical era in the settlement of the United States is to be found than in the early mining excitements. There was an atmosphere entirely different from the pioneering and settlement of other sections.

The author of the story has followed closely this atmosphere and the producers have utilized every source of their vast resources to make the picture true to life and scene. It carries a high dramatic effect from start to finish, and has a number of prominent screen leaders in the cast, including Douglas Fairbanks, Harry Carey and Ralph Forbes.

GRAY-EYED LADY ASKS MAYOR FOR MATRIMONY AID

Many unusual requests from people in other sections of the state and from other states come to the mayor of Medford in the course of a year, as Mayor A. W. Pipes is beginning to learn. Here is a frank and naive one received by him last month from the northern part of the state, and may mean in the city or Jackson county who wants to marry a widow with a daughter 16 years old and three sons younger than that should communicate with the mayor.

"I don't know if you can help me or not, and I don't know if you will or you can. I am a widow, have a girl 16, three boys younger, the oldest 12 and the youngest 4. I set some support from them, though not enough to properly care for them. When school is out this spring we would like to get down to the southern part of the state, and as we would be among strangers, there is where you could help me.

"In the evening your acquaintances among widowers or bachelors around 40 years of age that might want a housekeeper, or wife? I am not a still hunt for a husband, though I could find a good man who would be good to the children and treat them as a real father. I'd like to be married before I turned 40 years old.

"If you know of any such man or woman, I would certainly be grateful to you if you would mention the matter to them, and I would be glad to correspond with them and become acquainted before they and the time school is out this spring.

"I am 5 feet, 4 inches tall, have brownish gray eyes, brown bobbed hair, am on the sunny side of 40, though mighty close, and am heavy.

"Hoping to hear from my request in the near future, I remain, etc."

Three-Star Picture at Rialto Theatre

A three-star picture and the third in a row from John G. Dert and Grota Garto is "A Woman of Affairs," now playing at the Rialto theatre.

This picture should increase the popularity of the two stars—just such a thing is possible.

In its sustained quality of emotional appeal, as well as in absorbing story treatment, it takes rank among the very first group of cinema successes. Michael Arlen, who established a great vogue with his sophisticated stories of modern life, contributed an original film story here that stands up with the best of his published works.

There is a fine cast with Hobart Bosworth, Johnny Mack Brown and Lewis Stone supporting Gilbert and Gairbo.

Beware Bachelors, Hunt's Craterian

"Beware of Bachelors," Vitaphone picture, is now playing at Hunt's Craterian. Vitaphone furnishes radiant symphonic accompaniment for the comedy of youth gone gallivanting, and the voices of the players add much to the delight of the swift and glittering story.

The cast is headed by Audrey Ferris and William Collier, Jr., and includes Clyde Cook, Andre Bergeron, Dave Morris and Margaret Livingston.

The plot is built about the efforts of a happy wife to teach her shell-doxer husband to pay less attention to the female part of his clients. To do this she adopts his own methods and meets with some adventures which make her as glad to hit back to the love nest as he to receive her.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—(AP)—A committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, reporting on the "present unsettled condition of the home," deplores "unfortunate marriages, many divorces, children who marry divorced persons and runaway couples without due caution, and low wage scales which force mothers into industry." The Russell Sage Foundation has found that there are 57 "marriage market towns" in 29 states.

As we pause this day to do homage to the memory of a great man, let us remember that it is the personality of Lincoln which is revered—that his character transcends his deeds.

Not all of us can be called to fill high places—to carry the banner in times of stress. But to each of us is given the opportunity to so live his life that he may have the love, regard and respect of his fellow men.
