

Local and Personal

A meeting has been called for Friday night of this week at the Hotel Medford... The proposed road will connect with the Oregon Coast highway at the mouth of Grayslake creek...

Guests from Portland registered at the Hotel Medford... The guests included H. G. Sander, J. A. Mattison, Fred Gaskill, L. P. DeHollis, A. H. Parsons, H. W. Handall, Hazlett Miller, G. C. Furrer, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Brown, W. J. Reed, A. E. Molson, A. O. Nelson, Arthur Hansen, C. H. Taylor, D. H. Williams, A. H. Hodgson, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Miller and A. O. Voss.

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' association, service clubs and the public are urged to attend the high school meeting. Mr. Farmer, a recognized authority on farm matters, will embody in his talk in interesting and helpful data, relative to the co-operative relation between town and country.

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

Over 100 spectators were present, most of whom formed in line to congratulate the three new citizens. Special ceremonies were also held by the American Legion and by members of the P. A. B.

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

That Crater National forest contains over one million acres, part of which is forest and mountain land, part suitable only for recreational purposes, some for grazing land and some for the protection of municipal water supplies.

The receipts from the Crater forest in 1928 amounted to $272,715.23, and the expenditures to $269,634.42. Twenty-five per cent of the national forest receipts went to the state and counties in which they were situated.

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

GRANGE LECTURE PLANS COMPLETE

Final preparations were made today for the coming tomorrow of James C. Farmer, national lecturer of the Grange, who will address Grange officials and members at the annual meeting of the Grange at 8 o'clock Thursday evening.

PASS RESOLUTION AFTERNOON MEET

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Medford Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed endorsing the action taken at the first meeting held at Roseburg last week, when several delegates from the local chamber were in attendance in connection with revision of general freight tariff rates.

JAPANESE PLAYERS IN LEAD CITY TOURNEY

Following two week matches the military tournament is leading toward an early close, with Fuji and Yama local Japanese players leading the field of six entrants. In last night's game, Chris Gottlieb defeated Harold Riddle on a handicap of 250 to 225 and on the evening before Riddle was defeated by Don Soper.

FARMER WEEK PLAN TO BE REVIVED FOR COUNTY MEET SERIES

Revising an old plan of holding farmers week programs, a series of meetings will be held in the county next week with a schedule arranged as follows: All meetings to commence at 10:00 a. m. at the City Hall in Ashland.

CITIZENSHIP PAPERS GIVEN THREE TODAY

Final citizenship papers were granted to three applicants this forenoon at the court house, where naturalization examinations were held under the direction of W. W. Wiggins, United States naturalization examiner. Papers were granted to Arthur Cyril Boyan of Medford and Edward Walker Jones of Central Point, both former subjects of Great Britain, and to John Jensen, a former subject of Denmark.

BROWN GIVES LIONS TALK ON CRATER PARK

The Crater National forest in a living asset to southern Oregon, said Lee P. Brown, forest examiner before the Lions club today. Mr. Brown explained the purpose of congress in setting aside the national forest as being (1) to insure a perpetual supply of timber, (2) to preserve forest cover which regulates the flow of streams, (3) to provide for the use of all the resources as to timber the maximum amount of service.

VON HOEVENBERG TELLS CONGRESS TARIFF ILLS

J. Von Hoevenberg, Jr. of Medford and Sammie Valley arrived in Washington, D. C. on Monday to submit bills to the ways and means committee of congress urging an increase in the tariff on cherries in behalf of the Oregon State Horticultural society and the Jackson county fruit growers league, both of whom he represents.

OBITUARY

PLYMALE—Frank Plymale of San Francisco, Cal., died yesterday of stomach trouble, in a hospital in that city. He was a brother of the late Ben H. Plymale, and was well known to the older residents of this city. He has relatives living here.

These Drug Stores Are Open Nights This Week

Jarmin & Woods, James McNair Pharmacy, West Side Pharmacy

Be sure of the Best Specify Fluhrer's bread when you phone your grocer.

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Medford Hi's Former Stars in Action

Gold Seal MILK BUTTER ICE CREAM PASTEURIZED - SAFE - PURE PRODUCED - PACKED - THE SANITARY WAY

THIS COUPON IS WORTH $2.00 West Side Variety Store 222 West Main St. Medford

THE FLYING FLEET THE PICTURE DEDICATED TO THE HEROIC FLIERS OF THE U. S. NAVY RAMON NOVARRO