

SHERIFF CLOSES WOODROW REICH APPLEGATE HOP IS LEADING IN SATURDAY NITE COFFEE CONTEST

Sheriff Ralph Jennings and Deputy District Attorney George W. Neilsen paid an official visit to a dance held on the Applegate Saturday night, and after beholding proceedings for an hour, the sheriff ordered the dance to cease at 1 o'clock, when it was scheduled to close until 3 o'clock. The clapping on of the lid brought some protests from those who claimed they were entitled to dance until 3 o'clock, but Sheriff Jennings was adamant, and the revellers wanted their way home.

It is alleged by the two officials that there was considerable "open drinking and necking." They found one young man in an alcoholic stupor, who said later that he swallowed two drinks and that was the last thing he remembered for two hours. When he regained his senses he denounced "weed bootleggers." The law was after the "weed bootleggers," but was unable to catch the wily northern bootleggers, who supplied the illegal beverages for the revelry, at a good profit.

The closing order of the sheriff came after the midnight supper, and was in the nature of a bombshell. It was argued by the dance management and others that inasmuch as the dance was for the advertised purpose of raising funds for aid in the building of a school home, it should be allowed to continue. The sheriff ruled that however worthy its purpose, it would have to halt.

Deputy District Attorney Neilsen said there were close to 150 cars from all sections of the county parked near the hall, and that he drove to the scene again yesterday and found many bottles of alcohol scattered about, and ascertained that the main drinking spot was on the Applegate bridge.

OCULT HEALING LECTURE TONIGHT

"Evolution and Reincarnation" was the theme of a lecture at Medford Theological society, 31 North Grape street, last night, when the Rev. Charles Hampton of New York discussed the evolution laws. He declared that the United States had become the laughing stock of the world in that certain states had made it a crime to think about evolution. Webster's dictionary and the Encyclopedia Britannica are automatically barred from all high schools and colleges of Arkansas, according to J. P. Womack, state superintendent of schools.

"The responsibility for this disgrace that has come upon our country," said the New York clergyman, "rests equally with dramatic materialists and dogmatic theologians. The scientist has less right to be dogmatic than the fundamentalist, because he is supposed to be more highly educated, and yet every scientist is constantly discarding the conclusions of science for new dogmas of materialism. It is not necessary to become a materialist in order to accept evolution, nor is it necessary to ignore the facts of science in order to remain a Christian. The solution of the problem of harmonizing science and religion is to revive the early Christian teaching of reincarnation, which traces the divine origin and evolution of both soul and body."

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Hampton will give his final lecture, speaking in "More Light on Occult Healing."

"My Tongue Was White and Furry"

"Some time ago I began waking up with a terrible taste in my mouth every morning and my tongue seemed to be covered with a white fur. At first I wasn't alarmed, but when I began to tire early in the day and suffer dull headaches, I realized my system was storing up poisons. I began taking Dioxol tablets for the ox gall they contain, as my doctor said there was nothing better for the liver and bowels. I was amazed at the amount of old waste matter expelled from my body, and in a very short time began to feel like a new man."

Let your liver become sluggish and it fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in the food waste. These poisons then are spread throughout the system, causing auto-intoxication, chronic constipation, sick headaches, and diseases of the stomach, blood and kidneys. The best thing for stimulating the liver, as doctors now agree, is pure, natural ox gall. Dioxol, containing pure ox gall, tones up the liver in a natural way and makes it function vigorously. When your whole intestinal tract is kept clean, your bowels move regularly, and you enjoy genuine health. Dioxol tablets are pure, natural ox gall in dainty, tasteless form, and cost less than 2c each at drugists. Try them and see what a difference it makes when your liver is functioning right. All good drugists sell Dioxol tablets. Special agent, Jarmin & Woods Drug Store.

EXPECT ODD FELLOWS AND REBEKAHS CROWD RIALTO SHOW TONIGHT

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are expected to give the Rialto theatre a good crowd tonight and tomorrow night, when through the courtesy of the Hunt company, they will share in the proceeds as a donation to the grand lodge entertainment fund. The local lodges have been provided with 200 special tickets, which will be honored tonight or tomorrow night and the members of the fraternities are sending special envelopes to see that every ticket is disposed of. But very few tickets remain unsold.

The Hunt company has provided one of the best attractions to be looked at the Rialto for this occasion for some time. "The Trail of '98" is an epic, a historical photo play of the great Alaskan discovery of gold was reported and contains many vivid and thrilling scenes, such as an immense snowslide, the burning of Dawson City and others. The production is intensely interesting and educational. A number of premier artists are included in the cast.

INTRODUCE BILL TO CLOSE RIVER IN HOUSE TODAY

The following telegram was received this afternoon from Representative William S. Brines, Jr. of Ashland:
"Joint Jackson and Josephine county delegation today introduced bill for closing streams flowing into Pacific ocean, south of Coquille river, and intend to use all possible energy for passage of same."

In a resolution adopted by the Jackson County Sportsmen's association a week ago, it was proposed to close all streams south of the Umpqua river to commercial fishing.

T. E. Daniels of this city heads the local sportsmen in their fight. He is now at home, and other leading fishermen of the city and valley will leave this week for the capital to aid. A general call for sportsmen of the state will be issued to rally to the cause, and one of the liveliest encounters of the legislative session is predicted.

ASHLAND NORMAL JUNIOR PROM IS COLORFUL EVENT

Surpassing in every particular any similar event in the history of the school, the Junior class of the Southern Oregon Normal school Saturday celebrated the third annual Junior Prom. The event was attended by more than 300 students and invited guests, who pronounced the affair the most colorful, the most delightful, the altogether outstanding social event of the season.

The auditorium was wonderfully decorated in a rainbow scheme. The walls were strewn with streamers to simulate the prophetic bow while at the other end of the hall a golden sun threw out its rays of light into an azure sky which had been made of strips of blue crepe paper draped across the room.

Music was furnished by the Ashland orchestra of Medford, a program consisting of 12 numbers and two epigrams. Dainty dance programs were furnished featuring the blue and gold of the class colors. A special feature was presented by Miss Helen Ostrander, Lillian Olsen, Frances Neff and Charles Hanson and at the close of the special number, the orchestra played the Southern Oregon Normal school alma mater song.

Those who sponsored the charming affair were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Strane, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fuller and President and Mrs. J. A. Churchill. Mr. and Mrs. Churchill were unable to be present on account of their absence in the northern part of the state. Members of the Southern Oregon Normal school faculty were also guests for the evening.

A large number of students gave assistance in the preparation for the dance and special committees attended to the varying needs during the evening. Lunch was served during the entire evening.

O'Leary of Seattle in the 10th and 11th events, preceded by a hot semi-windup and two good preliminaries. A capacity crowd is expected and tickets for the fight are reported to have been sold exceptionally well.

Pat Bradford is anxious to make his debut in the count and has been sparing no efforts to be in the pink of condition for tonight's bout, which promises to be one of the best seen in Medford for months.

FIRST GRASS FIRE OF YEAR ON EAST SIDE

A fast spreading grass fire on the east side at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon not only was conspicuous as the first grass fire of the year in Medford, but also served to bring out commendable qualities in Boy Scouts as fire fighting assistants and won for five well known boys Scouts warm appreciation and much praise from Fire Chief E. J. Holt.

MANN'S STORE TO PRESENT NOVELTY TRAVESTY ON AIR

"As It Ain't" is the name of a farcical travesty on department store technique, which will be broadcast over KMED, the Mail Tribune-Virgin station, by Mann's Department store, on their hour from 10 to 11 Wednesday morning.

The little playlet is one of contrast. First Mann's ready to wear department, with all its assortment of dainty spring frocks, featured in "Dress Week" which begins Wednesday, will be presented briefly. Then will follow the ridiculous farce, "As It Ain't," enacted by Jo Murray Rostel and Mary Greiner.

Local housewives, and the public in general will be interested and entertained by this novelty program, which promises to hold the interest and to prompt several good laughs during this hour.

IMPROVEMENT AT WEAVER STATION

Over $2000 worth of improvement is being made at the Weaver service station, on the corner of Main and Fir streets this week, according to Carl E. Weaver, who leased the place of business from the Standard Oil company January 1.

A crew of 10 men were on the job at an early hour this morning grading and graveling the approach and grounds around the station. A hydraulic lift is also being installed for greasing cars, and other servicing appliances will be added later.

According to Mr. Weaver, four or five electrically operated pieces of servicing machinery will be installed, making this one of the most completely equipped stations in the city.

BEALL LANE HOME RAZED YESTERDAY

Fire attributed to a defective fuse yesterday forenoon destroyed the home of Ed Brown, local plasterer, on Beall Lane and had gained such headway when discovered that efforts of neighbors to have the building were futile. However, the entire household furnishings were removed before the two-story building was destroyed. The loss is reported to be partially covered by insurance. A fire at Ashland yesterday evening was reported today to have destroyed a barn at the end of East Main street, but no particulars could be learned today.

THE TRAIL OF '98, Spectacular Picture at Rialto Theatre

"The Trail of '98," at the Rialto theatre, stands out as one of the most novel and spectacular melodramas ever transplanted to celluloid.

Hundreds of flaming torches, casting their almost ghastly light upon the snow, maddened men and hurrying dogs rushing over mountain trails, furnished one of the strangest effects ever flashed upon the American screen.

The scene depicts a mad stampede in the dead of night to the locale of a new and rich gold strike in the Yukon.

The leading roles are taken by Ralph Forbes, Dolores Del Rio and Harry Carey. Others are Karl Dane, George Cooper, Trench Holt, Johnny Downs, William Orinmond and Edward Oxen and Emily Fitzroy.

Mother Knows Best, Hunt's Craterian

"Mother Knows Best," is at Hunt's Craterian with Madge Bellamy, Louise Dresser and Barry Norton in the featured roles. This melodrama is a revelation of sight and sound synchronization.

This story of the rise of Sally Quail to fame on the stage gives ample opportunity for dialogue. Miss Bellamy's voice registers perfectly in her role as a celebrated vaudeville performer, of Al Nelson, Harry Lauder and Anna Held. Miss Dresser, as the mother, scores heavily in her speaking parts and in her action. Barry Norton as the composer and singer of "Sally of My Dreams," reveals a lyric baritone voice.

A great story, splendid acting, beautiful melody and good photography.
