WESTERFIELD HAS GOLD HILL TALK TO RETALIATE BY BANNING FRUIT

By Asst. Walker.

GOLD HILL, Ore., Feb. 15.—(Special)—A meeting was held at the city hall Tuesday evening, February 12 at which time N. C. Westerfield, a widely known poultry expert, was present and gave an excellent talk on raising poultry for profit.

One of the main points raised by this section, P. L. Waite, introduced Mr. Westerfield.

Mr. Westerfield laid stress on the necessity of a good laying strain of stock in order to make a success at this occupation. "In raising poultry," stated Mr. Westerfield, "one of the main necessities in order to make this vocation the most profitable is that of a good laying strain. A hen which will not lay over 200 eggs per year should, after her first laying year, be sent to the butcher. The kind of stock to obtain in order to make the most out of poultry raising, is the kind that lays from two to three hundred eggs per year. These are the type that make their occupation lucrative."

That feed was one of the most important questions in raising good stock, was another pointer given to those present. He stated that one of the main faults with most people engaged in this type of work is improper feeding. "A good hen may be ruined by feeding the wrong type of feeds and letting them improper care in this respect."

An extra crew of men is being employed at the Lively Lime company works on Kane's creek. The holes for the new electric power line to be installed by the power company are now being set, and immediate preparations for putting in this new improvement are being made.

A social evening was given on Wednesday, February 13, by the Rebekah Lodge No. 6 of Gold Hill at the L. O. O. F. hall, in commemoration of their anniversary night.

The regular meeting of lodge was held and the general routine of business was taken up. After the lodge session was dismissed a short entertainment was given, which was well appreciated by those present. The hall was well decorated for the occasion, and after the entertainment was presented, refreshments were served. All who attended enjoyed the evening, and state that the entertainment presented was excellent.

W. W. Hittle is now displaying an ancient Indian knife which he has recently uncovered at the Indian burial ground near this city. The knife is an excellent specimen of the craftsmanship of the former Rogue River Indians that inhabited this section. It is about 14 inches in length and was found buried in the ground. It is inscribed on both edges and sharpened at both ends, and seems to have a finely sharp cutting surface. The knife was uncovered about a day or so ago while he was leveling the land on which the former articles buried by the Indians were found.

MT. PITT DRIFTS

Thursday morning our school had a student body meeting, in order to elect a new secretary, as Irene Morrow, our former one, had moved away. We also elected a new inspector for cleanliness, which were Irene Anderson and Bertland Stanley.

Visitors.

Our beautiful weather brought many parents from their homes. The visitors were Mrs. Goss, Mrs. L. C. Tichman and Mrs. Jack Tungate. We were glad to have them come, for visitors are always welcome at our school.

Valentine Party.

At the Mt. Pitt school February 14, we had a Valentine party. Mrs. Joe Trefren, Mrs. Jack Tungate and son, Buddy Tungate, and Freddie Hoyerford were the guests. Miss Dessie Anderson was the Valentine queen and her helpers were Hazel McCabe, Zella and Gladys Buchanan. The Valentines were distributed, after which a treat from the teacher, Mrs. Roy Stanley, was given to the children. In the morning Irene Anderson brought her new camera and after the party was over the school was arranged with Mr. Pitt in the background for a picture.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON.

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croscote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs croscote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the croscote acts on the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germ.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis, and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

GERMAN DEMPSEY SAILS FOR HOME

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, the German Dempsey, sailed for home aboard the Deutschland Sunday with the breach between himself and his manager, compatriot and former close friend Arthur Hadow, wider than ever and the time of his return to American rings most indefinite.

Schmeling whose three knock-outs in four fights in this country made him the talk of the boxing world declared that rather than recognize Hadow's authority he would abandon all thought of fighting in the United States until the expiration of his contract Oct. 30, 1929.
