

HEROIC YOUTH IS SENT MANY GIFTS BY ASHLAND FOLK

ASHLAND, Ore., Feb. 19.—(Sp.) In response to a suggestion on the part of the Tidings editor, little Johnny Fields, the fine little fellow that received horrible burns about a week ago when attempting to save a little sister from a burning home at Lincoln, was the recipient of a wealth of gifts, toys and flowers that have been sent by kind-hearted people of the town. Johnny is doing as well as can be expected and is most grateful to the friends who have helped to brighten his long hours of suffering.

was particularly attractive with its wealth of brilliant blossoms and its dainty appointments. Mrs. R. L. Burdick was bridge hostess on Friday evening at her home on High street. Mrs. Doug Provost and Mrs. C. A. Halnes received recognition for first and second high scores. The hostess served delicious refreshments at a dining table attractive with a color scheme of yellow and green. Guests for this delightful affair were Mesdames A. Haine, Otis Johnson, John Sanders, V. Y. Mills, G. M. Green, Earl Crow, Gerald Wenner and Don Provost. Lovett Davis left Friday afternoon on his return to Chehalis, Wash., where he is engaged in his occupation of mining engineer on the department of a large coal deposit. Mr. Davis came down for a short visit with his family on Fairview street. He made the round trip by airplane. C. W. Cromwell recently arrived in Ashland from Etta, Cal., and bought a home on Fifth street. He plans possibly to bring his family over here to reside early in the spring. Fred Taylor, Glen Simpson and H. D. McNair motored to Crescent City on Wednesday and returned on Friday. W. H. Whitaker, formerly a groceryman at Klamath Falls but now living in his home on Liberty street, made a trip to his former home on Friday to attend to some business matters. Thad McElhannon recently spent some months in eastern Oregon on business and returned to Ashland several days ago. D. Hildebrand of Pine Ridge was in Ashland last week on a business trip. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jones, who live on a fine ranch west of Talent, were in Ashland Saturday on business and to see their friends. Mrs. C. W. Henry and Miss Cleo White drove to Medford Saturday afternoon to visit friends. H. V. Williams was over from Medford Friday on business. S. L. Munson of the Munson Motor company of South Tacoma, Wash., was in Ashland Friday noon and registered his attendance at the Kiwanis luncheon. W. W. McNealy, Klamath Falls realtor, was in Ashland Friday and attended the noon luncheon of the Kiwanis club. Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Tilton made a trip to the Willamette valley last week and when returning brought back the doctor's father for a visit of some time to Ashland. Roy and Mrs. Geo. W. Falls

DUAL STYLE SHOW MEN AND WOMEN PLANNED MAR. 1-2

One of the first spring style shows to be formally announced is the Adrienne Steward-Fred McPherson combination ladies' and men's fashion exhibition, which will be held at Hunt's Criterion theater the evenings of March 1 and 2. This unique showing will alternate models for both sexes, in sport and dress wear, and promises to be doubly entertaining for the mixed audiences invited on these nights. The feature picture scheduled for March 1 and 2 bears the appropriate title, "The Shopworn Angel." Mrs. Steward will show all the attractive spring fashions in dresses and coats and novelties. The necessary jewelry to be worn by the models will be furnished by Hephys. Mr. McPherson will display the new Modland series of men's attire, which are a decided and radical change in style over what had been worn during the past seasons. The modish peaked lapels, rope shoulders and fitted waist lines are some of the features which mark the masculine wearing apparel for the coming season.

Table with columns: CITY, High Temp, Low Temp, Weather. Includes entries for Baker City, Blinn, Boise, Denver, Des Moines, Fresno, Helena, Los Angeles, Marshallfield, Phoenix, Portland, Red Bluff, Roseburg, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, San Pedro, Seattle, Spokane, Walla Walla, Winnemucca.

MRS. HOFFMAN IN NEW YORK HEARS D'ANJOUS PRAISED

It was like meeting an old friend when Ethelwyn Hoffman, in New York last week on a buying trip, passed the fruit stand near the Pennsylvania station and spied a display of D'Anjou pears smiling out from their boxes in the morning sun. Because they looked so familiar to her, she strolled over near them and asked the vendor: "Are these California pears?" "Certainly not," retorted the man, with an expression of injured dignity. "These are Oregon pears. And let me tell you there are none better." Miss Hoffman listened with an air of detached interest. "Are you from California?" asked the man. The local woman shook her head and became silent, interested in the fruit display. "New York fruit merchants are waking up to the superiority of the Oregon pears, and the careful buyer now recognizes the difference in their quality and tastiness over any other," he went on, and Miss Hoffman remained long enough to hear him out on the subject. The local owner of the Ethelwyn Hoffman shop, returned to Medford Saturday, returning by way of Seattle.

REESE CREEK GRANGE SHOCKED BY BURNING OF EAGLE POINT HALL

REESE CREEK, Ore., Feb. 19. (Special)—The Grangers of Reese Creek, shocked to learn of the burning of the new Grange building at Eagle Point last Sunday morning, but as the Grange never goes back, we feel assured something better will come out of the seeming reverse, perhaps a creamery. Miss Christal visited with her parents in Grants Pass last Sunday. Willard Ball was busy one day last week hauling land plaster for the spring sowing. W. H. Grandell and family visited relatives in Grants Pass Sunday. Joe Minot, who has bought some land of his father, is busy clearing and getting ready for spring planting. A Lincoln and Washington program will be given at 7:30 February 22 by the pupils of Reese Creek school. The P. T. A. held their regular monthly business meeting February 15 with a larger attendance than usual. It is very encouraging to see the interest the parents are taking in the school this year. The wind has dried the ground to the extent that many have begun their spring plowing. Rube Johnson had an unusual experience of fire fighting the other day for this time of the year. He thought he would see how the grass would burn, as some of his neighbors were trying it with success, so tried it out, with the result that quite a piece of his rail fence came up missing. He said he was surprised that summer was so near. Frank Castor and family have moved into their new house on W. Hammel ranch, which is very modern and up-to-date. Mr. Jackson has been clearing some land for Charley Kincaid containing some eight acres that Mr. Kincaid has taken water for from the Eagle Point irrigation district. W. Hammel and wife have a pleasant task before them this week of moving into their house recently vacated by Frank Castor and family. While they say they are not fond of moving, they admit there is no place just like home. Mr. Knudler, the painter, has been doing some work for W. Hammel this week. A. Woods has been plowing his garden and getting ready for another year's crop.

HANDS MAY BE FLU CARRIERS EXPERTS SAY. People Urged to Remove Germs From Hands Often as Protective Measure. In an attempt to help the public protect themselves from catching influenza, the health authorities are advising the use of Lifebuoy antiseptic soap. "Boiling Story" hour in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Victor Martin.

Is your health record as good as the Martin's?

"Every family could save a lot of sickness by using LIFEBOUY," says Mr. A. V. Martin. "Its antiseptic lather removes germs." "I used Lifebuoy first because of what it is—a real health soap," says this enthusiastic father, Mr. A. V. Martin. "We haven't had a day of sickness in our home for years. Then, too, if I get cut or scratch, the first thing I do is see that it's washed out clean with Lifebuoy's antiseptic lather. My wife says that as a complexion soap, nothing compares with it—her clear skin is the best proof of that." "As for the youngsters, I'm sure that both of them, playing with other playmates, touching toys, games, etc., are bound to pick up germs and they really need an antiseptic soap to help keep them safe." "I think every family could save a lot of sickness by following our health rule—a sudsy washup with Lifebuoy right after work or play and always before eating." Mr. A. Victor Martin, 3803 Gwynn Oak Avenue, Baltimore, Md. A real health habit. Mr. Martin's letter is typical of thousands written us. Millions of parents know there's greater safety in Lifebuoy's germ-removing lather. Your own family, too, needs health protection. Germs constantly get on hands from many things we must touch daily in common with others, such as books, money, telephones. But Lifebuoy's antiseptic lather removes germs. It guards against the 27 germ diseases that the famous Life Extension Institute and other health authorities tell us hands may spread. Your family has to wash with some toilet soap anyway, so why not use Lifebuoy which gives added health protection—at no extra cost. You'll quickly learn to love Lifebuoy's pleasant extra-clean scent, which tells you Lifebuoy purifies, and which vanishes as you rise. Adopt the Lifebuoy health habit today.

THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY HEARS REV. HAMPTON

"The Inner Side of Healing" was the subject of a lecture by the Rev. Charles Hampton of New York last night, who spoke to a crowded audience at Medford Theosophical society headquarters, 61 North Grape street. "When all common sense physical methods of treatment have been exhausted," said the lecturer, "there are still many forms of disease that persist. To explain that fact we are forced into the realm of mind and emotion, into metaphysics, that which is above the physical." The speaker then traced the effect of various emotions on the glands of the body, and described "some of the best ways to become diseased." He pointed out that 75 per cent of idiot children possess no thyroid gland, and declared that the deficiency is caused by idleness. "Metaphysical people," said the Rev. Hampton, "assert that idleness is caused by a lack of thyroid secretion, but this is putting the cart before the horse. A person who lies into a rage is more or less an imbecile, and can become quite an idiot if he tries hard enough. Those who are born with such deficiencies are reaping the result of uncontrollable emotion in former lives on earth," as St. Paul said, "We reap only what we sow."

Special Meeting of L. D. S. Church

The L. D. S. church will hold a special meeting Wednesday, February 20, at 7:30 p. m., in the Odd Fellows hall in Medford. Eugene Clawson, one of the apostles of the church, and Wm. T. Sloan, president of the Northwestern States Mission, will be the speakers. All members and those who might be interested in our belief are urged to attend. A special invitation is extended to the members of other denominations. Remember the place, Odd Fellows hall, in Medford. Astoria—La Rose beauty shop in Young building remodeled and redecorated.

MADELONE BAYARD. Quick Success. Few girls in pictures have made such rapid strides toward success as this charming New Yorker. Just a few months ago she was given her first job, shadowing a star. Within three hours, she had a real part in the picture—"The Loves of Eva." Miss Bayard says: "I am told my selection was largely due to my perfect skin and lovely hair. I've really never taken much trouble with either. For my hair I use the simple method that most of the girls I know here in New York are so enthusiastic about. It's so easy. All you do is put a little Danderine on your brush each time you use it. "This method is just what a busy girl needs. It's so easy; and it keeps your hair and scalp so clean you don't need to shampoo half so often. I am letting my hair grow and I find Danderine helps make it soft and easily manageable. I can arrange it any way I want and it stays that way. All my friends are complimenting me on the appearance of my hair, nowadays because Danderine has brought out all its natural color and made it so soft and lustrous." Danderine removes the oily film from each strand and makes dull, stringy hair glossy, soft, easy to dress. It tones and refreshes the scalp; helps overcome dandruff. It is delicately fragrant; isn't sticky or oily; doesn't show. All drug stores have the generous 3 1/2 oz. bottles.
