MELBOURNE MAN IS UNDAUNTED BY FANCY HEAD HOLD

His Jim Heslin of Melbourne, Australia, who arrived in Medford today from Portland for his match next Monday night at the Italo theater with Tom Alley, Montana bone crusher, has never been made the victim of a headlock and is not afraid of Alley's well known "crucifix" hold, with which he has won the majority of his matches. Heslin's match Monday will be his first in the United States and one of a very few in which he will take part while on route from Australia to England, where he is scheduled to wrestle next month in London. The Heslin-Alley match will be a feature of what is expected to be one of the best wrestling shows in Medford this season, as moving pictures of the Gus Sonnenberg and Strangler Lewis world's championship wrestling match in Boston will also be shown. Heslin plans to see the sights around Medford and the valley before leaving in a week for New York City, where he plans to sail for London and a tour of continental Europe. He weighs 185 pounds, and declared it will be one thing for Alley to attempt to use the "crucifix" hold and another to use it successfully.

trial heats of the 60-yards at the Canadian national indoor track and field championships here last night but came back to win the final in 8 and one-fifth seconds, equalling the world's record.

In the semi-finals, Williams, off to a bad start, was second by half a foot to G. D. Powell of Toronto, a comparative unknown. Powell failed to place in the final. Jimmy Fitzpatrick of Hamilton, being second and L. Miller of Hamilton third.

THRILLS FEATURE MONMOUTH'S WIN OVER SON CAGERS

There were plenty of thrills and lots of excitement in the basketball game last night between the Ashland Normal and Monmouth Normal teams at Ashland, when the latter won by a score of 26 to 23. The Sons have a reputation for generally being behind in the first half, and then pulling out. This game was no exception. Monmouth had 11 points before the Sons woke up. At the very outset Monmouth started scoring and Ashland simply could not find the hoop, the visitors gaining a 12-point lead at the half. But at the half the Sons came back, soon bringing the score to within a basket or two. It was nip and tuck to the end, but Ashland never did make its fair proportion of shots. Ayers and Shrank were the outstanding players for Monmouth, while Wirth stood out for Ashland.

The teams will play again tonight. BOB HAMMOND TO SWING MASHIE ON UNIVERSITY TEAM

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Feb. 22.—(Special.) Bob Hammond, of Medford, has been mentioned as a possibility for varsity golf honors this coming season. Other members of the squad will include Don Aice, Portland, who is one of the outstanding young golfers of the country; Dick Schroeder, Gearhart, who is the only letterman from last year's team; George Will of Portland, the Staples of Portland; Nelson McCook of Long Beach; Bill Palmberg, of Astoria; John and Mike Gray of Beaverton; and Francis Andrews of Portland. Oregon will enter a team in the Pacific coast conference meet at Seattle May 16 and 17. They will enter a two-man team in the conference championships, and a four-man team against the University of Washington at Seattle May 4. The O. A. C. meet has been scheduled to take place at Eugene April 24 and it is possible that a return meet will be slated with the Corvallis men in May.

OUTSTANDING in the life of Washington is his spirit of unselfish service to others.

Today, in our less exalted positions, we can make ourselves better men and women through doing a little more for others than we are required to do, whether in business or social life.
