RUBBER MAN MAY HAVE PLENTY FUN WITH BIG BASQUE

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—(AP)—The boys have quoted Meyer (K. O.) Christner, the big rubber tire man from Akron, as saying that he loved to have his fistic rivals "come to him." The chances are Meyer will get his fill of that tonight when he battles the rugged and rough Spaniard, Paulino Uzcudun, in a 10-round match in Madison Square Garden.

Paulino's idea of an evening of great fun is to start wading into his opponent at the opening gong and quit only when the battle's all over. Christner insists that this style is made to order for him because it gives him a chance to shoot over that powerful right hand, the 33-year-old Akron heavyweight's best weapon and the one that stopped Knute Hansen in eight rounds.

Christner' only chance seems to lie in a knockout, and there are few who believe even so potent a slugger as Christner can succeed where others of greater reputation have failed.

KIDNAPED GIRL IS FOUND

gave her the child and disappeared. She said the child did not look like her Betty but she was friendly and in a short time the mother became convinced she was her own daughter.

She said she had no further suspicion the child was not her own until yesterday when a real estate man, C. C. Bidwell, saw the woman and child on the street and exclaimed:

"That's the missing baby."

Mrs. Sharp said she was surprised but gave the child up when the situation was explained to her.

That the child is really Doris seems to be borne out by the little girl herself, although expressed themselves as skeptical.

Police are expected to inquire how the child could be taken from San Francisco to Vallejo in two hours when the ferry trip takes nearly that time and Mrs. Sharp said she arrived there two hours after the disappearance and found the child's clothes changed.

The finding of Doris ended one of the greatest searches for a missing child ever executed here. The hunt began last Friday when the child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Murphy, reported her missing.

Investigators found witnesses who said the child left the public playground, where she had been playing, in company with a "dark, heavy set" man.

As the result of a report received last evening, members of the sheriff's office and the Ashland police department spent several hours last night near the summit of the Siskiyous to stop an automobile in which Doris Murphy, missing San Francisco girl found today, was believed to have been held by kidnapers while being transported north.

Upon a return trip to the mountains this forenoon, officers found a car, broken down and owned by a destitute family, one child of which closely resembled the San Francisco girl. However, thorough investigation revealed the girl to be a member of the family, a birth certificate being produced by the father.

The family is without a dollar, now owes three nights' auto cabin rent and has no means to repair its car, according to officers.
