

Local and Personal

A change of positions at the postoffice was made last week by mutual consent, by Harry Morrow, clerk, and Harry R. Walker, carrier, and with the sanction of postoffice authorities. The reason for the change is that Mr. Morrow preferred outside work and Mr. Walker inside work.

Real estate closed last week with the sale of the Roy Elliott home at 24 Myrtle street to Dr. I. H. Frost, who will take possession there next month. The property is one of the best of its kind in the city, and the house was constructed two years ago.

Poems set to music. Mastercraft Song Publishers Seattle, 160 In its "Fiftieth Year Ago" news column the Ashland Tidings of Friday said: "Mrs. J. J. McNair and Miss Nellie Briggs returned home Saturday after spending a week in Medford, where they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Earl Gaddis."

Dry pine shingles, $5 load. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* Richard Klumb of Medford, special student in forestry at the Oregon State college, is among the men appointed to the pistol team after a two-week competitive rapid and slow fire contest.

Cheap lumber and cedar posts. Medford Lumber Co. 3241* Mrs. Roy Merzhan left the middle of last week for a several weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Los Angeles and adjacent southern California points.

Dance at Nat. Sat. night. Small hall. Dyrne Bros. 336* Four deer that have been found recently in the fields close to town were seen Saturday on the streets of Hines, Ore., cold weather and snow having driven them from their mountain resorts.

Rose mending, runners removed, and snags worked back. Handicraft Shop. 216* Visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, in Mrs. Leonard C. Brown of Santa Clara, Cal.

New cross-stitch and hooked rug patterns, attractive designs, 5c to $2.75. Handicraft Shop. 216* Among the Oregon State college students of Medford spending the week-end at home is Chester Hubbard.

Ted Thye, Portland light heavy-weight wrestler, plans to leave Portland shortly after the first of March for a tour of England and Norway. Thye will participate in several matches in England and also engage in five in Norway.

Mealy Klamath Notted Gem potatoes, 100 lbs. for $1.20; 50 lbs. 75c. Delivered any place in city. Johnson's Market, 6th and Grape St. Phone 57. 3091* Business and professional men of Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and possibly Klamath Falls will meet in a district conference in the Redwoods hotel on next Thursday night with a number of state officers in attendance.

A banquet will be served at 7, preceded by a conference of officers between 6 and 7 in one of the hotel rooms. Following the banquet will be round table discussions. Miss Mabelle Hair of Eugene, state president, and Mrs. Bertha Smith of Coquille, state emblem chairman, will be among those attending. They will go to Medford and Klamath Falls to hold similar meetings on the following Friday and Saturday nights to which members of the Grants Pass club are urged to attend. Grants Pass Courier.

Money loaned on improved city property at 5% with credit for monthly payments. Loans approved here. We have $150,000 cash in the bank for immediate disbursement. Union Savings & Loan Assn. Acqy. Room 12, Palm block, cor. Main and Front, upstairs. 335*

Marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office yesterday to Roy Goodman, 35, and Hazel Truitt, 34, both of Lincoln, Ore.; Leslie Bigham, 30, of Central Point and to Joy Fredricks, 21, of Medford; C. R. Bruck, 33, and Dorothy Bigelow, 20, both of San Francisco.

Compiling with request of cities of the Willamette valley for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.

From a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Dugg and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy, returned home last week.

Merchants have been warned to refuse to cash checks apparently issued by the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company, if they are presented by strangers. Inspectors have reported they have evidence that checks taken from the company in the course of a recent robbery were being forged and passed.

Wearing the latest model derby hat, Cecil Evans of Portland, former Medford resident, was a visitor in the city yesterday, after having accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, former well known residents of this city and of Central Point to Ashland, where they were called by the critical illness of Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. E. High, who yesterday afternoon was reported to be some better. Cecil Evans is now announcer and station mechanic at KXEL, the Portland Telegram broadcasting station, and plans to follow that work indefinitely.

Mrs. G. E. Adams of Woodburn, Ore., is here for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Milne.

Recruits will be taken for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.

From a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Dugg and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy, returned home last week.

Merchants have been warned to refuse to cash checks apparently issued by the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company, if they are presented by strangers. Inspectors have reported they have evidence that checks taken from the company in the course of a recent robbery were being forged and passed.

Wearing the latest model derby hat, Cecil Evans of Portland, former Medford resident, was a visitor in the city yesterday, after having accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, former well known residents of this city and of Central Point to Ashland, where they were called by the critical illness of Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. E. High, who yesterday afternoon was reported to be some better. Cecil Evans is now announcer and station mechanic at KXEL, the Portland Telegram broadcasting station, and plans to follow that work indefinitely.

Mrs. G. E. Adams of Woodburn, Ore., is here for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Milne.

Burton Pitts, who assisted in the prosecution of Asa Keyes, ex-district attorney of Los Angeles county, California, will attend the annual convention of the state department, American Legion, to be held in Salem in August.

Scottish Rite Special meeting. Skating you Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., February 25. Work and special business. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secretary. 336*

Out of 31 temporary auto licenses issued at the sheriff's office yesterday 27 were issued to Medford motorists and eight were issued for new automobiles.

Furniture upholstery. Tel. 969-R. A. N. Thibault, 339 A voluntary petition of bankruptcy was filed in United States court recently in Portland by Glen E. Bailey, local laborer, with liabilities of $397.45 and no assets. A petition was also filed in that court by U. G. McCormick of Grants Pass, laborer, giving liabilities of $2409.33 and no assets.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371* Among the omnibus pension bills now pending in congress at Washington, D. C., and likely of passage, is one for a $12 pension for Jessie L. Kilgore of Ashland. An omnibus bill passed last week and signed by President Coolidge grants Jeanette Twomey of Ashland $40 a month.

Pat. dresses, $2-4 years, $1.35 now $1.35. Handicraft Shop. 335* R. H. Browne of Brown's Hardware store left the other day to spend a short time in Roseville, Cal., attending to business matters.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* "I'm back to stay for Canada is much too cold for a warm-blooded Irishman like me," said Kelly McCarthy on his return yesterday to Medford, following several months spent in Canada. With his arrival, the number of shoe shining parlors in Medford increased to 11, he having opened a shop on North Fir street, where he was formerly employed. Kelly on his last stay in Medford was a prize fighter and took part in several preliminary fights at the armory, but it is not likely that he will resume fighting.

"Chloe" Top. Phone 479-M. Mrs. Sadie Allen. 2311* In an improving condition is Mrs. R. K. Hull of 952 North Central avenue, who has been seriously ill for some time past.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* The Oregon supreme court last week admitted Harry B. Duncan of Rogue River to the bar for nine months on certificate from California.

Factory blocks, $4 load. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* Trustees of Pacific university at Forest Grove are planning to discontinue the academy and commercial departments, but will take no final action without asking the cooperation of all concerned.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181. 11 Improvements were made last week in the interior of McNair's drug store, with all wiled work being tried to coats of enamel in shades of orchid.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengvold, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 11* W. W. Chadwick, president and general manager of the Stage Terminal Hotel company, left yesterday for his headquarters in Salem, stopping at Roseburg to spend last evening in connection with business interests there.

Recruits will be taken for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.

From a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Dugg and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy, returned home last week.

Merchants have been warned to refuse to cash checks apparently issued by the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company, if they are presented by strangers. Inspectors have reported they have evidence that checks taken from the company in the course of a recent robbery were being forged and passed.

Wearing the latest model derby hat, Cecil Evans of Portland, former Medford resident, was a visitor in the city yesterday, after having accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, former well known residents of this city and of Central Point to Ashland, where they were called by the critical illness of Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. E. High, who yesterday afternoon was reported to be some better. Cecil Evans is now announcer and station mechanic at KXEL, the Portland Telegram broadcasting station, and plans to follow that work indefinitely.

Mrs. G. E. Adams of Woodburn, Ore., is here for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Milne.

Burton Pitts, who assisted in the prosecution of Asa Keyes, ex-district attorney of Los Angeles county, California, will attend the annual convention of the state department, American Legion, to be held in Salem in August.

Scottish Rite Special meeting. Skating you Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., February 25. Work and special business. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secretary. 336*

Out of 31 temporary auto licenses issued at the sheriff's office yesterday 27 were issued to Medford motorists and eight were issued for new automobiles.

Furniture upholstery. Tel. 969-R. A. N. Thibault, 339 A voluntary petition of bankruptcy was filed in United States court recently in Portland by Glen E. Bailey, local laborer, with liabilities of $397.45 and no assets. A petition was also filed in that court by U. G. McCormick of Grants Pass, laborer, giving liabilities of $2409.33 and no assets.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371* Among the omnibus pension bills now pending in congress at Washington, D. C., and likely of passage, is one for a $12 pension for Jessie L. Kilgore of Ashland. An omnibus bill passed last week and signed by President Coolidge grants Jeanette Twomey of Ashland $40 a month.

Pat. dresses, $2-4 years, $1.35 now $1.35. Handicraft Shop. 335* R. H. Browne of Brown's Hardware store left the other day to spend a short time in Roseville, Cal., attending to business matters.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* "I'm back to stay for Canada is much too cold for a warm-blooded Irishman like me," said Kelly McCarthy on his return yesterday to Medford, following several months spent in Canada. With his arrival, the number of shoe shining parlors in Medford increased to 11, he having opened a shop on North Fir street, where he was formerly employed. Kelly on his last stay in Medford was a prize fighter and took part in several preliminary fights at the armory, but it is not likely that he will resume fighting.

"Chloe" Top. Phone 479-M. Mrs. Sadie Allen. 2311* In an improving condition is Mrs. R. K. Hull of 952 North Central avenue, who has been seriously ill for some time past.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* The Oregon supreme court last week admitted Harry B. Duncan of Rogue River to the bar for nine months on certificate from California.

Factory blocks, $4 load. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* Trustees of Pacific university at Forest Grove are planning to discontinue the academy and commercial departments, but will take no final action without asking the cooperation of all concerned.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181. 11 Improvements were made last week in the interior of McNair's drug store, with all wiled work being tried to coats of enamel in shades of orchid.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengvold, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 11* W. W. Chadwick, president and general manager of the Stage Terminal Hotel company, left yesterday for his headquarters in Salem, stopping at Roseburg to spend last evening in connection with business interests there.

Recruits will be taken for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.

From a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Dugg and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy, returned home last week.

Merchants have been warned to refuse to cash checks apparently issued by the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company, if they are presented by strangers. Inspectors have reported they have evidence that checks taken from the company in the course of a recent robbery were being forged and passed.

Wearing the latest model derby hat, Cecil Evans of Portland, former Medford resident, was a visitor in the city yesterday, after having accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, former well known residents of this city and of Central Point to Ashland, where they were called by the critical illness of Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. E. High, who yesterday afternoon was reported to be some better. Cecil Evans is now announcer and station mechanic at KXEL, the Portland Telegram broadcasting station, and plans to follow that work indefinitely.

Mrs. G. E. Adams of Woodburn, Ore., is here for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Milne.

Burton Pitts, who assisted in the prosecution of Asa Keyes, ex-district attorney of Los Angeles county, California, will attend the annual convention of the state department, American Legion, to be held in Salem in August.

Scottish Rite Special meeting. Skating you Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., February 25. Work and special business. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secretary. 336*

Out of 31 temporary auto licenses issued at the sheriff's office yesterday 27 were issued to Medford motorists and eight were issued for new automobiles.

Furniture upholstery. Tel. 969-R. A. N. Thibault, 339 A voluntary petition of bankruptcy was filed in United States court recently in Portland by Glen E. Bailey, local laborer, with liabilities of $397.45 and no assets. A petition was also filed in that court by U. G. McCormick of Grants Pass, laborer, giving liabilities of $2409.33 and no assets.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371* Among the omnibus pension bills now pending in congress at Washington, D. C., and likely of passage, is one for a $12 pension for Jessie L. Kilgore of Ashland. An omnibus bill passed last week and signed by President Coolidge grants Jeanette Twomey of Ashland $40 a month.

Pat. dresses, $2-4 years, $1.35 now $1.35. Handicraft Shop. 335* R. H. Browne of Brown's Hardware store left the other day to spend a short time in Roseville, Cal., attending to business matters.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* "I'm back to stay for Canada is much too cold for a warm-blooded Irishman like me," said Kelly McCarthy on his return yesterday to Medford, following several months spent in Canada. With his arrival, the number of shoe shining parlors in Medford increased to 11, he having opened a shop on North Fir street, where he was formerly employed. Kelly on his last stay in Medford was a prize fighter and took part in several preliminary fights at the armory, but it is not likely that he will resume fighting.

"Chloe" Top. Phone 479-M. Mrs. Sadie Allen. 2311* In an improving condition is Mrs. R. K. Hull of 952 North Central avenue, who has been seriously ill for some time past.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* The Oregon supreme court last week admitted Harry B. Duncan of Rogue River to the bar for nine months on certificate from California.

Factory blocks, $4 load. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* Trustees of Pacific university at Forest Grove are planning to discontinue the academy and commercial departments, but will take no final action without asking the cooperation of all concerned.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181. 11 Improvements were made last week in the interior of McNair's drug store, with all wiled work being tried to coats of enamel in shades of orchid.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengvold, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 11* W. W. Chadwick, president and general manager of the Stage Terminal Hotel company, left yesterday for his headquarters in Salem, stopping at Roseburg to spend last evening in connection with business interests there.

Recruits will be taken for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.

From a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Dugg and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy, returned home last week.

Merchants have been warned to refuse to cash checks apparently issued by the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company, if they are presented by strangers. Inspectors have reported they have evidence that checks taken from the company in the course of a recent robbery were being forged and passed.

Wearing the latest model derby hat, Cecil Evans of Portland, former Medford resident, was a visitor in the city yesterday, after having accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, former well known residents of this city and of Central Point to Ashland, where they were called by the critical illness of Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. E. High, who yesterday afternoon was reported to be some better. Cecil Evans is now announcer and station mechanic at KXEL, the Portland Telegram broadcasting station, and plans to follow that work indefinitely.

Mrs. G. E. Adams of Woodburn, Ore., is here for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Milne.

Burton Pitts, who assisted in the prosecution of Asa Keyes, ex-district attorney of Los Angeles county, California, will attend the annual convention of the state department, American Legion, to be held in Salem in August.

Scottish Rite Special meeting. Skating you Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., February 25. Work and special business. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secretary. 336*

Out of 31 temporary auto licenses issued at the sheriff's office yesterday 27 were issued to Medford motorists and eight were issued for new automobiles.

Furniture upholstery. Tel. 969-R. A. N. Thibault, 339 A voluntary petition of bankruptcy was filed in United States court recently in Portland by Glen E. Bailey, local laborer, with liabilities of $397.45 and no assets. A petition was also filed in that court by U. G. McCormick of Grants Pass, laborer, giving liabilities of $2409.33 and no assets.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371* Among the omnibus pension bills now pending in congress at Washington, D. C., and likely of passage, is one for a $12 pension for Jessie L. Kilgore of Ashland. An omnibus bill passed last week and signed by President Coolidge grants Jeanette Twomey of Ashland $40 a month.

Pat. dresses, $2-4 years, $1.35 now $1.35. Handicraft Shop. 335* R. H. Browne of Brown's Hardware store left the other day to spend a short time in Roseville, Cal., attending to business matters.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* "I'm back to stay for Canada is much too cold for a warm-blooded Irishman like me," said Kelly McCarthy on his return yesterday to Medford, following several months spent in Canada. With his arrival, the number of shoe shining parlors in Medford increased to 11, he having opened a shop on North Fir street, where he was formerly employed. Kelly on his last stay in Medford was a prize fighter and took part in several preliminary fights at the armory, but it is not likely that he will resume fighting.

"Chloe" Top. Phone 479-M. Mrs. Sadie Allen. 2311* In an improving condition is Mrs. R. K. Hull of 952 North Central avenue, who has been seriously ill for some time past.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* The Oregon supreme court last week admitted Harry B. Duncan of Rogue River to the bar for nine months on certificate from California.

Factory blocks, $4 load. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* Trustees of Pacific university at Forest Grove are planning to discontinue the academy and commercial departments, but will take no final action without asking the cooperation of all concerned.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181. 11 Improvements were made last week in the interior of McNair's drug store, with all wiled work being tried to coats of enamel in shades of orchid.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengvold, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 11* W. W. Chadwick, president and general manager of the Stage Terminal Hotel company, left yesterday for his headquarters in Salem, stopping at Roseburg to spend last evening in connection with business interests there.

Recruits will be taken for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.

From a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Dugg and family, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Clancy, returned home last week.

Merchants have been warned to refuse to cash checks apparently issued by the Northwest Lumber & Fuel company, if they are presented by strangers. Inspectors have reported they have evidence that checks taken from the company in the course of a recent robbery were being forged and passed.

Wearing the latest model derby hat, Cecil Evans of Portland, former Medford resident, was a visitor in the city yesterday, after having accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Evans, former well known residents of this city and of Central Point to Ashland, where they were called by the critical illness of Mrs. Evans' mother, Mrs. E. High, who yesterday afternoon was reported to be some better. Cecil Evans is now announcer and station mechanic at KXEL, the Portland Telegram broadcasting station, and plans to follow that work indefinitely.

Mrs. G. E. Adams of Woodburn, Ore., is here for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Milne.

Burton Pitts, who assisted in the prosecution of Asa Keyes, ex-district attorney of Los Angeles county, California, will attend the annual convention of the state department, American Legion, to be held in Salem in August.

Scottish Rite Special meeting. Skating you Lodge of Perfection, 7:30 p. m., February 25. Work and special business. L. E. WILLIAMS, Secretary. 336*

Out of 31 temporary auto licenses issued at the sheriff's office yesterday 27 were issued to Medford motorists and eight were issued for new automobiles.

Furniture upholstery. Tel. 969-R. A. N. Thibault, 339 A voluntary petition of bankruptcy was filed in United States court recently in Portland by Glen E. Bailey, local laborer, with liabilities of $397.45 and no assets. A petition was also filed in that court by U. G. McCormick of Grants Pass, laborer, giving liabilities of $2409.33 and no assets.

Cheap dry lumber at Medford Lumber Co. 2371* Among the omnibus pension bills now pending in congress at Washington, D. C., and likely of passage, is one for a $12 pension for Jessie L. Kilgore of Ashland. An omnibus bill passed last week and signed by President Coolidge grants Jeanette Twomey of Ashland $40 a month.

Pat. dresses, $2-4 years, $1.35 now $1.35. Handicraft Shop. 335* R. H. Browne of Brown's Hardware store left the other day to spend a short time in Roseville, Cal., attending to business matters.

Hot, clean coal. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* "I'm back to stay for Canada is much too cold for a warm-blooded Irishman like me," said Kelly McCarthy on his return yesterday to Medford, following several months spent in Canada. With his arrival, the number of shoe shining parlors in Medford increased to 11, he having opened a shop on North Fir street, where he was formerly employed. Kelly on his last stay in Medford was a prize fighter and took part in several preliminary fights at the armory, but it is not likely that he will resume fighting.

"Chloe" Top. Phone 479-M. Mrs. Sadie Allen. 2311* In an improving condition is Mrs. R. K. Hull of 952 North Central avenue, who has been seriously ill for some time past.

That good coal—low in ash. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* The Oregon supreme court last week admitted Harry B. Duncan of Rogue River to the bar for nine months on certificate from California.

Factory blocks, $4 load. Tel. 631. Medford Fuel Co. 3241* Trustees of Pacific university at Forest Grove are planning to discontinue the academy and commercial departments, but will take no final action without asking the cooperation of all concerned.

Dressmaking and remodeling at the Fashion Shop, 424 Medford Bldg. Phone 1181. 11 Improvements were made last week in the interior of McNair's drug store, with all wiled work being tried to coats of enamel in shades of orchid.

Let me write your fire insurance. Carl Y. Tengvold, Hotel Holland, Phone 593. 11* W. W. Chadwick, president and general manager of the Stage Terminal Hotel company, left yesterday for his headquarters in Salem, stopping at Roseburg to spend last evening in connection with business interests there.

Recruits will be taken for the United States navy beginning on March 1, according to H. T. Edson, the Grants Pass recruiting officer, who has received notice that he may take recruits until the quota is filled. The February commission that hearings at Medford will immediately follow conclusion of proceedings at Portland.

A big shipment of new spring hats at Lottie Howard's. 337* L. A. Roberts, justice of the peace, was among the business visitors in Medford yesterday afternoon from Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Province left yesterday for their home in Chiloquin, Ore., after having spent several days here on business and pleasure.

Highest grade Utah coal, any size, anywhere, any amount. Hansen Coal Co. Phone 239. 11* Mrs. W. H. Dyer of 414 West Jackson street, has as her guest her sister, Mrs. J. H. Bailey of Portland, who arrived here Friday.

The assistant manager of the Marshall Wells hardware establishment of Portland, L. Falkenmarsh, was a business visitor in Medford last Friday.