

News of Society Clubs

Irene DeLoach, 325 South Holly St.—Phone 390-L or 78

- WEEKLY CALENDAR
- Monday
 - Regular social meeting of the Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft, in L. O. O. F. Hall.
 - Auxiliary business meeting at the Army club room, 8 o'clock. Initiation exercises.
 - Tuesday
 - The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church will meet in regular homecoming at 2:30 in the church parlors. The Just Folks Club will have charge of the entertainment. Visitors always welcome.
 - Wednesday
 - The Lady Elks will meet at the Elks club house from 2 to 5.
 - Committee in charge, Mrs. M. Montgomery, Mrs. H. O. Probst, and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell. Cards, pool and refreshments. Visiting Lady Elks always welcome.
 - Eastern Star, 8 o'clock, social evening in the Masonic hall. Mrs. E. M. Corlies, chairman program committee.
 - Thursday
 - C. E. Party, First Christian church, 7:30, high school group.
 - The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold their regular meeting in the afternoon at the church parlor.
 - Mrs. A. T. Muen will be hostess.
 - The W. C. T. U. will meet in the Y. W. C. A. club room, 2:30 p. m. A splendid patriotic program will be given.
 - Friday
 - Poecantans Lodge, homecoming.
 - St. Mark's Guild at Parish House Cafeteria, 12:30.

certain corner in the auxiliary rooms whose contributions can be left. Anything will be accepted in the way of canned fruits and canned vegetables; coats, hats, dresses, underwear or shoes—even toys. If the garment has pinned to it a slip of paper showing the size or age of the child for which it is intended, it will greatly help in making selections when needed.

The 1929 auxiliary dues are delinquent after February 28; the treasurer hopes that there will be few delinquents this year, and she will have her little receipt book handy Monday evening.

And, last but not least, it is whispered that the "Lark" is growing to be a good sized "bird" as it has not been picked for some time; all paid-up members will have a chance at it Monday evening.

Miss Kathryn O'Rourke left Sunday for Vancouver, Washington, where she will visit friends and relatives.

Prof. Folkensberg's Students Give Orchestra Recital

The program last Saturday evening by Prof. Folkensberg's student orchestra was rendered with even more than their usual enthusiasm and skill, and was enjoyed by a full house.

Although several of the original members of this orchestra have been called away from town, the number is gradually increasing, and they are making most commendable progress in the work. We hear many remarking that this little band of musicians is a credit to Rogue River academy, as well as to their instructor, Prof. Folkensberg.

A cordial invitation is extended to any of the music-loving people about town to come over to the church on the corner of Bestly and Edwards streets whenever these programs are given. You will surely find it a pleasant and profitable way to spend your spare time on Saturday evenings.

The representatives of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company held a banquet at the Holland Hotel Saturday noon. Eight representatives from Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford were present.

Thursday Eve Bridge Club Miss Margery Kerr

Miss Margery Kerr entertained the Thursday Evening Bridge Club at her home on South Central avenue, February 21. Mrs. George Barnum held first prize, and Mrs. Oak Ames consolation.

Miss Andrews Entertains Friends After Game

Mrs. Harriet Andrews entertained a number of her young friends at a party Saturday evening, after the basketball game. The evening was spent in dancing. Dainty refreshments were served in keeping with the Valentine season. The guests were: Dorothy Roberts, Mary Lee Roberts, Dorothy Campbell, Barbara Young, Dorothy Stearns, Mary Fuson, Betty Bartwell, Mary Josephine Estes, Louise Comer, Lucile Murray, Anna Mae Fuson, Roberta Stearns, and Harriet Andrews; Messrs. Jack Bienna, Cliff Garver, Jack Walker, Bill Bowerman, Ernan Green, Denton Clark, Charles E. Hays, and Charles Bennett. Harrell, James Hayes, Charles Clay, Bud Thomas, Roger Dew, M. K. Andrews, John Smith, Howard Dougherty, Harry Garfield, and Charles Wakefield.

Do Bole, 303 1/2 St. and Mrs. H. S. Bole, 325 West Eighth street, is visiting his parents.

Bride-to-be Honored At Bridge Entertainment

Mrs. Leland A. Mentzer, and Miss Mary Gilbert entertained a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Leland A. Mentzer, February 15, commencing with Miss Margarette Scott, whose wedding will take place early in the summer.

The evening was spent at bridge, and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. DeLoach Entertained O. S. C. Club

The Oregon State College Alumni club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. DeLoach Monday night where after a short business meeting bridge was played at 11 tables. At 12 o'clock refreshments were served. The next meeting will be March 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fowler on Kings Highway. Those in charge of the entertainment were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wood, Henrietta Eckstein, Josephine Koppas, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kershaw and the hostess.

Mr. T. L. Taylor and son, Ernie, at Robertson, left last night for Edinburgh, Scotland, for a visit with relatives.

Colonial Luncheon Given By D. A. R.

The annual Colonial luncheon given by the Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in the dining room of the Presbyterian church Friday, February 22. About 60 members and guests attended.

The colorful costumes and powdered hair of the members and the attractive decorations of the room lent a true Colonial atmosphere to the assembly.

During the luncheon each member responded to roll call by telling an interesting historical event relating to her native state.

Miss Melba Williams, in her charming way sang two songs

She was accompanied by Miss Reynolds.

After a short business meeting Mrs. M. J. Norris gave a talk on "International Relations."

She stressed the point that the year had been marked by friendly feeling and a striving for good will between the nations as a whole she called particular attention to the Kellogg peace treaty with its aim for continued peace.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. D'Albini, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Morris.

Ukelele Club Meets Monday

The Ukelele club, which was recently organized, met at the home of Mrs. Kathleen Scovall, Monday evening, February 18. Twelve members were present, and the evening was spent playing, under the direction of Mr. Scovall.

Jasper Reynolds, a student at the University of Oregon, is in the city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reynolds.

G. A. A. Club Hold Costume Party

The high school Athletic Association of the high school held a party in the high school gymnasium Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock, at which all members besides dancing, dressed like George or Martha Washington. A number of interesting stunts were given by the girls, which included a basketball game, and initiation of the freshmen members, by forcing them to eat peas with aorkscrews. Stunts were also given by the girls to earn points under the point system.

A grand march was staged, from which were chosen the best costumes to represent George and Martha Washington. The prizes for the best costume were awarded to Luella Corn and Mae Green, respectively. There were about thirty girls present.

W. W. C. A. Have Membership Meeting

A membership meeting of the W. W. C. A. was held in the lecture hall Thursday afternoon, with Miss Makure of Portland presiding. A large number being present. Tea was served at the close of the meeting.

The Misses Jallow Mae Wilson, Marguerite McAllister, and Jean Whipple, entertained a morning for Corvallis, with Miss Maurine Carroll.

Mrs. Madames Butler and Leonard Entertain Wives 40 & 8

Mrs. Madames Butler and Mrs. Warren Butler were hostesses at an entertainment given for the wives of members of the 40 & 8, Thursday. Bridge was played at three tables.

Past Presidents Form Club

The past presidents of the American Legion auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jacobs Wednesday noon, and furthered the plan of forming a club, whose members will be the past presidents of the auxiliary. Following are the names of the members, in the order in which they held office: Madames J. W. Jacobs, Laura Kerr, J. W. Mitchell, George Gates, Warren Butler, E. J. Leach, Belya Allen, C. C. Chaney, and Mrs. Lee Garlock, present president. Mrs. George Gates was elected chairman for the year, and Mrs. Belya Allen, secretary and treasurer. The purpose of this club is to give service.

The Misses McCallum Entertain at Dinner

The Misses Esther and Ruth McCallum, delightfully entertained a number of their friends at a dinner commemorating the birthday of Washington. The rooms were beautifully decorated in patriotic colors. Covers were laid for the following: The Misses Gladys Frye, Elizabeth Watson, Gladys Combes, Marie Iverson, Jessie Niven, Beulah Seabrook, Elva Gustor, Lottie Armstrong, and Ken Murray.

Among the students home from Oregon State college, is Ralph Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield H. Bailey of 745 West Jackson.

The Misses Drury Entertain Friends

The Misses Laura and Barbara Drury entertained a number of their friends at a party following the basketball game Saturday evening, February 16.

A very delightful evening was enjoyed, the following being present: The Misses Peggy Miller, Margaret Childers, Geraldine Latham, Justine Miller, Carol Dodge, Laura Drury, and Barbara Drury; Messrs. Bob Emmens, Ben Day, Bob Mason, Don Moore, Ed Roberts, Tom Emmens, and Ed Reamer.

Washington's Birthday Observed By School

One of the most interesting and enjoyable programs commemorating Washington's birthday in Medford was given by the Washington school Thursday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church.

The recreational hall and ballroom was well filled with parents, friends, and pupils.

Following the program, tea was served in the parlor which had been transformed into a colonial sitting room. Madames Patton, Burns and Thendike in colonial costume, presided at the tea table. This annual tea has become the largest social event of the school year and great credit is due the teachers and others who helped to make it a success.

KINGS OF ANNUAL SPANIEL SHOW

Mrs. Allan T. Pyle of Philadelphia with Satisfaction and Fore-runner, her two blue ribbon winners at the annual spaniel show in New York.

Birthday Cheer
A surprise luncheon was given for Mrs. John Fluhrer's birthday.

Scouts Give Farewell Party
A farewell party in honor of Ernest Robertson, who left yesterday for Edinburgh, Scotland, was given by the Boy Scouts at the home of their scoutmaster, Arthur Heise.

Invited guests were Madames Katherine Trovbridge, Alice Trovbridge, Seaman, Boomer, Taylor, Davidson, Hinson, C. A. Wall, Leonard, Cameron, Landroth, Miss Lillian Landroth, Mrs. Moffatt and Mrs. P. R. Tristram of Valley City, N. D.

Delbert Anderson and Arathur Johnson are in the city, visiting with the grandmother of Delbert, Mrs. R. F. Anderson, of 244 South Central. Both are students of Oregon State.

W. C. T. U. Will Meet at Y. W. C. A. Club Rooms.
The W. C. T. U. will meet at the Y. W. C. A. club rooms, February 25th, at 2:30 p. m., when a splendid patriotic program will be presented, with Mrs. T. G. Heine in charge. Much time and effort has been expended in preparation, and the occasion will be one of the outstanding programs of the year. The devotional symposium will be especially interesting. You will meet George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Colonial dames. Refreshments will be served. Welcome to all.

Opening songs—"Battle Hymn of the Republic" Devotional Symposium—Mrs. H. G. Wilson, Mrs. S. Batesman, Mrs. F. W. James, Mrs. E. V. Maddox

Prayer—Miss Luella Van Ness Roll Call—(quotations from Lincoln and Washington. Reading—"Captain My Captain"—Mrs. S. C. Chaney

Patriotic solo—"America, the Beautiful"—Mrs. C. H. Padie "Washington's Torn Glove"—George Washington, and Colonial Dames

Reading—"My Pat"—"Patrols' Polly"—Mona Lester

Instrumental solo—"The Hary"—"The Bell"

Billy Gentry Assisting committee: Mrs. J. Bliss, Mrs. R. Sipes.

Surprise Birthday Dinner Honoring Neville Biden.
Mrs. E. N. Biden entertained a number of young people at a dinner complimenting the birthday of her son, Neville. Following the dinner, the guests adjourned to the music. The guests included: the Misses Geraldine Latham, Eleanor Boyd, and Doris Jones; the Messrs. William Harman, Gordon Latham and Neville Biden.

G. A. R. Meet Valentine's Day.
The regular monthly meeting of the G. A. R. was held at the home of Judge William Colvig, Thursday. Following the business session, a committee of Daughters of Civil War Veterans served hot oyster soup, coffee, and heart-shaped pastries. "Pussy" willow boughs formed the center piece, and it being Valentine's day, red hearts hung from the center lamp. The favors were red carnations. There were six comrades present.

Bridge Party Feature Friday Evening
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bauer entertained at their home in Catherine Court Friday evening, Feb. 22nd in honor of the latter's

The next meeting will be an evening meeting, March 13th, at the home of neighbor "Gussie Knapp on South By street. This will be a social evening.

Monday, February 25th, is the regular meeting of Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft. There will be a class for initiation, and several names to be voted on. This is also social evening, with Neighbor Maude Montgomery and committee in charge.

Circle will convene promptly at 7:30 p. m. so the social committee can take charge on time.

Any visiting neighbors are extended a most cordial invitation to meet with Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84.

Mrs. Rinabarger Hostess Wonomah Club Meet
Members of the Wonomah club and their friends were entertained at the Friday afternoon at the home of Blanch Rinabarger. Prizes were awarded to Nellie Purdin and Ora Rinabarger. All members were urged to attend the homecoming of the Poecantans Lodge Friday evening, March 1st, also the April Fool's party March 29.

Refreshments were served by Lela Williams and Bell Yarbrough, assisted by the hostess. The next meeting will be March 7th at the home of Hulda Thurman who will entertain with a covered dish luncheon.

G. T. C. Club Give Covered Dish Luncheon
A covered dish luncheon was held by the members of the G. T. C. club at the home of Mrs. Otha Olson on Newcomb, Saturday evening, February 23rd. A member of this club, edited their annual, entitled, "G. T. C. Memories." Those present were, Rose Wolf, Gladys Frye, Myrtle Land, Irene Crump, Alena Eskrine, Otha Olson.

Pagant Flag Presented Vesper Service
The brief pagant of the flag to be presented at the vesper hour at the Presbyterian church this Sunday afternoon in the home of a member of this club, edited their annual, entitled, "G. T. C. Memories." Those present were, Rose Wolf, Gladys Frye, Myrtle Land, Irene Crump, Alena Eskrine, Otha Olson.

Women's Bible Class To Meet Tuesday
The Women's Bible class of the Presbyterian church will hold their monthly social meeting at the church parlors Tuesday, February 26th at 2:30 p. m.

This will be a patriotic meeting with an address by Rev. E. P. Lawrence. Devotionals will be led by Mrs. A. J. Hanby.

Mrs. H. Leggett is chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Clara Wing the class president urges every member to be present.

Missionary Society Meet South Methodist Church
The women of the Missionary Society of the South Methodist church held their social meeting at the home of Mrs. W. C. McCusker. Mrs. Branham was leader, and a number of ladies took part in the program. This topic dealt with religion in the home, and stressed the fact of early training for the children for a Christian life.

A very clever stunt was given at the close of the program by two members. One was dressed as a farmer and the other as his wife. Their crops had been poor they had to raise some money. They had a basket of parcels which the different members had brought. These were sold at a small charge and much fun was derived from the contents. The hostess served refreshments and the meeting closed. The business meeting was held on Friday, fifth of March. The place will be announced later.

Mrs. Sumner Entertains East Side Circle
Mrs. J. G. Sumner, 1920 E. Jackson street, entertained the East Side Circle of the First M. E. church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. T. Berry, vice-president, presiding over the meeting, and Mrs. S. L. Leonard lead the devotions, and all repeated the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Roseborough and Mrs. Daron presented the following program:

"Two Great Birthdays," read by Mrs. Roseborough.

Accorded solos: "America the Beautiful" and "Washington—Washington." Mrs. W. T. Berry.

Selection: "Lincoln, the Great," read by Mrs. J. A. Daron.

Victrola selection: "A Medley of Camp Songs."

Stories: "When George Washington Was a Boy," and "Famous Women Workers." Mrs. T. G. Heine.

Harmonica solo: "Home, Sweet Home." Mrs. W. T. Berry.

Mrs. Heine also conducted a very interesting and an amusing game.

During the social hour Mrs. Sumner, assisted by Mrs. Larson, served delicious cake and coffee. The next meeting will be held in March at the home of Mrs. Albert Anderson, with Madames G. V. Myers, and Elly D. Benson, program committee.

Loyal Women's Class Entertained by Mrs. Frye
The Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Frye, 736 Oak street, Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Frye, who read the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew as the scripture, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Gertrude Kirkpatrick. Twenty-six members answered roll call, and two visitors were present.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frye, who was assisted by her daughter, Gladys.

Young People's Missionary Society Has Meeting
The Young People's society of the First Christian church held their meeting in the church parlors Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Edith Konkle leading. The subject discussed dealt with Japan, Porto Rico, and the Philippines.

Narmie Olson gave a talk on the

Philippines; Charles Smith, Porto Rico; and Edith Konkle on Japan.

There were a large number present, and the meeting proved very interesting.

Plans Made for Dr. Lambrett's Visit
The visitation committee of the Crater Lake Union met Monday evening, and made plans for the rally to be held at the First Christian church, when Dr. Ira K. Landreth will speak to the Crater Lake union.

The committee also made plans to visit the Endeavor society in Butte Falls in the near future.

St. Mark's Guild Have Meeting Friday
St. Mark's Guild of the Episcopal church met at the Parish house Friday. The afternoon was spent trying a comforter.

The next meeting will be held next Friday. A cafeteria luncheon will be given at 12:30.

Golden Link Bible Class Have Social Evening
The Golden Link Bible class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lange at 821 North Riverside avenue on Friday and spent a delightful evening of fun. There were fifty-five present. The home was beautifully decorated in appropriate colors. Some of the features of the evening included: a mock wedding, featuring Martha and George Washington, Mr. R. G. Bench impersonated George, and Mrs. Elmore Wilson, Martha. Mr. Wilson officiated as minister. As the guests were in costume, a dress parade was staged. Some of the outstanding characters included: Mrs. H. H. Whillock; and a costume of Mrs. Lange. The guests also had their fortunes told. Mr. Lange entertained those present with accordion and piano music.

Delightful refreshments were served at a late hour.

Alpha Deltas Observe Birthday
The February and March committees of the Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church, consisting of Madames H. J. Barriland, Hemstreet, Huber, Hood, Gerard and Parker entertained the members of their class and their husbands, also the members of the men's Bible class at a delightful George Washington party held in the parlors of the church Friday evening. The room was artistically decorated in flags, bunting, and pussy willows. The evening was spent in old fashioned games interspersed with a piano solo by Miss Genevieve Brown, a group of songs by Reverend Mehl, and two readings by Mrs. W. C. Klendred. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by the committee, charming in their costumes of Martha Washington. About forty responded to the invitations, and voted this the most enjoyable party held in months.

Miss Norris Hosts B. Y. P. U. Friday
The members of the B. Y. P. U. met at the home of Miss Mary Norris, on Cottage avenue, Friday evening. The evening was spent playing guessing games and working puzzles. Those included: Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Finley, Rev. Eaton, Mrs. Raymond, Miss Juanita Hopkins, Miss Marguerite Hibbard, Clarence Edmonds, Earl Edmonds, Miss Lela Norris, Mrs. Norris and Miss Mary Norris.

Social Events of Church Societies

Mrs. Batesman Hostess Priscilla Circle
The Priscilla Circle of the First M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Batesman 302 Maple street Wednesday, February 20th. The circle was opened by President Mrs. N. J. Wiley reading the Fifth Chapter of John, Mrs. Batesman leading in the devotions.

After the business hour, Mrs. Batesman's daughter of Mrs. Batesman favored the members with two solos which were greatly appreciated by the members.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess to thirteen members.

Women's Bible Class To Meet Tuesday
The Women's Bible class of the Presbyterian church will hold their monthly social meeting at the church parlors Tuesday, February 26th at 2:30 p. m.

This will be a patriotic meeting with an address by Rev. E. P. Lawrence. Devotionals will be led by Mrs. A. J. Hanby.

Mrs. H. Leggett is chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Clara Wing the class president urges every member to be present.

Missionary Society Meet South Methodist Church
The women of the Missionary Society of the South Methodist church held their social meeting at the home of Mrs. W. C. McCusker. Mrs. Branham was leader, and a number of ladies took part in the program. This topic dealt with religion in the home, and stressed the fact of early training for the children for a Christian life.

A very clever stunt was given at the close of the program by two members. One was dressed as a farmer and the other as his wife. Their crops had been poor they had to raise some money. They had a basket of parcels which the different members had brought. These were sold at a small charge and much fun was derived from the contents. The hostess served refreshments and the meeting closed. The business meeting was held on Friday, fifth of March. The place will be announced later.

Mrs. Sumner Entertains East Side Circle
Mrs. J. G. Sumner, 1920 E. Jackson street, entertained the East Side Circle of the First M. E. church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. W. T. Berry, vice-president, presiding over the meeting, and Mrs. S. L. Leonard lead the devotions, and all repeated the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Roseborough and Mrs. Daron presented the following program:

"Two Great Birthdays," read by Mrs. Roseborough.

Accorded solos: "America the Beautiful" and "Washington—Washington." Mrs. W. T. Berry.

Selection: "Lincoln, the Great," read by Mrs. J. A. Daron.

Victrola selection: "A Medley of Camp Songs."

Stories: "When George Washington Was a Boy," and "Famous Women Workers." Mrs. T. G. Heine.

Harmonica solo: "Home, Sweet Home." Mrs. W. T. Berry.

Mrs. Heine also conducted a very interesting and an amusing game.

During the social hour Mrs. Sumner, assisted by Mrs. Larson, served delicious cake and coffee. The next meeting will be held in March at the home of Mrs. Albert Anderson, with Madames G. V. Myers, and Elly D. Benson, program committee.

Loyal Women's Class Entertained by Mrs. Frye
The Loyal Women's class of the First Christian church met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Frye, 736 Oak street, Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Frye, who read the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew as the scripture, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Gertrude Kirkpatrick. Twenty-six members answered roll call, and two visitors were present.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frye, who was assisted by her daughter, Gladys.

Young People's Missionary Society Has Meeting
The Young People's society of the First Christian church held their meeting in the church parlors Tuesday evening, with Mrs. Edith Konkle leading. The subject discussed dealt with Japan, Porto Rico, and the Philippines.

Narmie Olson gave a talk on the

Philippines; Charles Smith, Porto Rico; and Edith Konkle on Japan.

There were a large number present, and the meeting proved very interesting.

Plans Made for Dr. Lambrett's Visit
The visitation committee of the Crater Lake Union met Monday evening, and made plans for the rally to be held at the First Christian church, when Dr. Ira K. Landreth will speak to the Crater Lake union.

The committee also made plans to visit the Endeavor society in Butte Falls in the near future.

St. Mark's Guild Have Meeting Friday
St. Mark's Guild of the Episcopal church met at the Parish house Friday. The afternoon was spent trying a comforter.

The next meeting will be held next Friday. A cafeteria luncheon will be given at 12:30.

Golden Link Bible Class Have Social Evening
The Golden Link Bible class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lange at 821 North Riverside avenue on Friday and spent a delightful evening of fun. There were fifty-five present. The home was beautifully decorated in appropriate colors. Some of the features of the evening included: a mock wedding, featuring Martha and George Washington, Mr. R. G. Bench impersonated George, and Mrs. Elmore Wilson, Martha. Mr. Wilson officiated as minister. As the guests were in costume, a dress parade was staged. Some of the outstanding characters included: Mrs. H. H. Whillock; and a costume of Mrs. Lange. The guests also had their fortunes told. Mr. Lange entertained those present with accordion and piano music.

Delightful refreshments were served at a late hour.

Alpha Deltas Observe Birthday
The February and March committees of the Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church, consisting of Madames H. J. Barriland, Hemstreet, Huber, Hood, Gerard and Parker entertained the members of their class and their husbands, also the members of the men's Bible class at a delightful George Washington party held in the parlors of the church Friday evening. The room was artistically decorated in flags, bunting, and pussy willows. The evening was spent in old fashioned games interspersed with a piano solo by Miss Genevieve Brown, a group of songs by Reverend Mehl, and two readings by Mrs. W. C. Klendred. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by the committee, charming in their costumes of Martha Washington. About forty responded to the invitations, and voted this the most enjoyable party held in months.

Miss Norris Hosts B. Y. P. U. Friday
The members of the B. Y. P. U. met at the home of Miss Mary Norris, on Cottage avenue, Friday evening. The evening was spent playing guessing games and working puzzles. Those included: Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Finley, Rev. Eaton, Mrs. Raymond, Miss Juanita Hopkins, Miss Marguerite Hibbard, Clarence Edmonds, Earl Edmonds, Miss Lela Norris, Mrs. Norris and Miss Mary Norris.

LADIES NIGHT OF LOCAL ROTARIANS

Members of the Medford Rotary club and their ladies will enjoy a unique Rotary banquet Tuesday evening, February 26th at the new Medford high school building.

The banquet will be served by the domestic science department of the high school under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Waite which affords a fine "feed" for all who attend. This is one of the first "ladies' night" meetings to be held in some time and the Rotarians and "ladies" are looking forward to the event in pleasant anticipation.

Radio Program KMED

Mail Tribune-Virgin Station

Many favorable comments have been heard concerning the second rendition of the new Norris radio drama "The Chuckie" by the Copco Players Tuesday evening. Those who listened in on this notable Copco program declared it to be one of the best of the series produced by the California Oregon Power company. The play was a pioneer drama of local interest and appeal and made a well hit with the "old timers" as well as the younger generation. The cast included Melba Williams, Estelle Quisenberry, Maude Coddling, Fletcher Fish, Harold Corlies and Earle Davis, and was directed by Mr. Davis.

Sun bathers from 13 states and three Canadian provinces at St. Petersburg, Fla., formed a club and elected officers.