Covered Dish Supper
First Baptist Church
 A family night was observed at the First Baptist church on last Wednesday night when about one hundred and twenty-five members and friends of the congregation gathered for a covered dish supper. Following the supper the Ladies' Auxiliary of the church presented the Missionary Pageant, "A Dream With A Mission." It was a wonderful presentation and vividly portrayed the need for Missions both in the home and foreign fields. Members of the cast were Mrs. C. D. Cannon, playing the leading role, Mrs. Joe Hibbard, Mrs. Ralph Raymond, Mrs. H. F. Cope, Mrs. Harry Rinabarger, Mrs. C. M. Parker and Mrs. L. J. Knox.
Home Coming Ladies Aid
M. E. Church
 The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church met in regular "Home Coming" at the church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. H. E. Roberts, presiding field. The program was as follows:
 Song, "There's Sunshine in My Soul."
 Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley lead the devotions.
 Mrs. S. L. Leonard and Mrs. Riley D. Hanson offering prayer.

Presbyterian Women
Meet at Church
 The Woman's Bible class of the Presbyterian church held a most enjoyable and profitable meeting at the church parlors Tuesday afternoon. There were about forty members present and Mrs. Lane made a gracious hostess. Mrs. Chas. Wing, president of the class, opened the meeting with the song, "In My Heart There Rings a Melody."
 Mrs. Remington led the devotional in her comprehensive manner dwelling on the subject of faith, taking the eleventh chapter of Hebrews and the ninth chapter of Matthew as a basis to talk from.
 She spoke of the uses of faith, the requirements of faith. How a Christian must walk, stand and fight by faith in order to overcome the evils which are lurking on every hand.
 Faith is necessary to a successful life and only by faith can miracles be performed. Mrs. E. P. Lawrence followed this talk with a very satisfying prayer.
 Another song by class and roll call by Mrs. McCollum answered with quotations from the Bible.
 During the business session the Bible class voted money from their treasury for a generous donation to the Woman's association and another toward the piano fund as a piano is badly needed in the church parlors.
 Mrs. Crane, chairman of the program committee announced that we were celebrating several birthdays of famous men during February, namely, Washington, Lincoln, Edison, etc. and asked Rev. E. P. Lawrence for a patriotic talk.
 His address showed scholarly thought, warm hearted sympathy and international loyalty.
 He compared present day leaders with earlier statesmen and predicted a very satisfactory and successful administration for Mr. Hoover.
 Mr. Lawrence does not split the ear drum with his eloquence but his scholarly, kindly, sympathetic understanding of both religious needs and national problems make a powerful appeal to the hearts and minds of his hearers.
 At the close of the program, refreshments were served by Mrs. Liggott and her committee, Mrs. McKibben, Mrs. Walters and Mrs. Bailey. These also emphasized the patriotic spirit as well as making a powerfully appointing appeal.
 Guests were given by Mrs. Gillison, Mrs. Hagerly, Mrs. Betts and Mrs. Daniels. Mrs. Littlell presided over the coffee urn and Mrs. Farr was guest of honor at Kibben was the only member the birthday table, while Mrs. McPresent, having a birthday.

and many in foreign countries.
 We have all missed William Gardner's beaming smile from our midst the last two weeks. We hope he will soon be with us again. A week ago Saturday night, the Griffen Creek school and Rogue River Academy united in giving a program which was held at the Lower Griffen Creek school house. The program was rendered very well and all expressed a very interesting evening.
 Period examinations are here again and everyone is on his mettle. Nevertheless that means one period nearer vacation time and all are looking forward to vacation days.
 Bright sunny days make it desirable to get out and play volleyball. We all enjoy the exercise.

Wedding Bells
 Miss Mae Howard and Herman H. Powells, both of Bond, Oregon, were married at the Baptist church Saturday afternoon, Rev. W. H. Eaton officiating. The party returned to Bend, following the ceremony.

LATIN STUDENTS
EDIT HI TIMES
 One of the most interesting editions of the Hi Times, publication of the local high school, came off the press Friday afternoon. This edition was very unusual, because of the fact that it was edited by members of the Latin club.
 The paper was made up of six pages, and the different sections included were: Books, Society, Exchange, a full page sport page, news, assemblies, slideshows, music, personals, casualties, Latin Rhymes, Junior High, Jokes, and an interesting column on "What they think about Caesar," which included testimonies of a number of prominent students.

Radio Program
KMED
Mail Tribune-Virgin Station
 A piano recital by the Gore Studios of this city will be a feature of the regular Copco radio program over station KMED Tuesday evening, March 5. The hour will consist of a varied selection of piano numbers by some of Mrs. Gore's talented pupils and, among excellent entertainment is anticipated by the local radio public. Solos, duets and ensemble numbers from two pianos will be presented by the Mesdames Ver Dean Hurvy and Beulah Gore, both of whom are accomplished pianists. A group of young pupils who are studying hard to attain perfection will also be introduced during the evening.
 As an added attraction there will be selections by a violin ensemble of 12 instruments under the direction of Mrs. Bernice Bolger. A detailed program of the recital will appear in Monday's issue of this paper.

What the Well Dressed Housewives Should Wear
 For practical reasons as well as aesthetic ones, the question of "what to wear" is just as important to the modern housewife as to her sister who goes forth each day to capitalize her knowledge in the business world. The woman who wisely regards housekeeping as an exacting profession is always daintily and suitably dressed whether she is scrubbing the bathroom floor or entertaining her friends at bridge.
 Most women find the washable house dress practical for all phases of housekeeping. It is just as easy to slip into in the morning as the old covered apron, and, in addition, it is inexpensive, good looking and becoming.
 Every housewife should have a sufficient number of house dresses on hand to enable her to put on a fresh one each morning. Then, whether they are washed at home or sent away to be laundered, they will look better and last longer than if worn until they become badly soiled.

Rogue River Academy
 Two weeks ago Saturday night we were given a very interesting moving picture review of the Pacific Press. This treat was brought to us by Elder Ferrer who is the editorial editor of the Sign of the Times. It was given at the church.
 The picture took us completely through the press, showing the machinery in action. We were shown the complete process of making books, from the author's manuscript to the completed volume.
 As was explained by Elder Ferrer as it was shown on the screen, the Pacific Press is owned and operated by the Seventh Day Adventist denomination. The denomination also has three other large presses in the United States.
