

DANIELS' SPANIEL WINNER PORTLAND KENNEL HONORS

Telegrams of congratulation poured into the T. E. Daniels office yesterday, following the splendid showing made by his thoroughbred Springer spaniel, Elwyn Darkie, in the Portland show, in which 409 dogs of different breeds were entered from kennels all along the coast from Canada to southern California.

Elwyn Darkie, imported from Scotland in April, 1925, and reared in the American Canadian and Pleadly kennel clubs, won first place in the open and first place in the limit classes in the Portland show. She was also winner in the Pasadena show last year. The local spaniel is a true aristocrat as to birth, her father being the international champion, "Flint of Avondale," which won first place at the Crystal Palace show in 1927, and is said to be the finest Springer spaniel in the world. The Medford spaniel is exactly the same color and type and closely resembles her sire in every respect.

In so far as the Springer spaniel is now one of the most popular breeds in Oregon and along the coast, and probably more of this type were entered than any other single breed at the home awarded Elwyn Darkie, is doubly flattering. The prize winner has been handled by Dan Morgan, professional trainer at Ft. Wash., who is now training four other young spaniels belonging to T. E. Daniels.

SUGAR WAS ONCE TAXED AS LUXURY

Considered a Delicacy Only Rich Could Afford

A well-known food authority recently pointed out that sugar was once considered "an exotic tropical luxury." As a luxury, sugar was subject to taxation on the theory that it would be used by the wealthy classes that could afford to be taxed.

Sugar is now so cheap in price, the food authority went on to show, that it is used by everyone. As a matter of fact, as another scientist recently pointed out, there is now no fuel for the human body as cheap as sugar. "Sugar is one of the cleanest, purest, most wholesome foods," he said. "There is nothing that gives nutrition so cheaply."
