REFRIGERATION IS CUT ON PRODUCTS OF OREGON DAIRY

SALEM, Ore., Mar. 8.—(AP)—A fight for reduced refrigeration costs on carload shipments of dairy products from Oregon points to eastern destinations and to other Pacific coast states has been won by the Pacific states butter, egg, cheese and poultry associations. The Interstate Commerce commission has handed down a decision in favor of the applicants, according to information received by the Oregon public service commission which was a party in support of the associations. The I. C. C. order requires that the carriers establish the reduced basis of cost on or before May 1 of this year.

The new refrigeration cost will be determined by the cost of ice and salt used rather than on a stated amount, as in the past," says a statement by the Oregon commission, "and will result in material reductions, the amount depending upon the actual cost of ice and salt necessary for standard refrigeration."

Mr. Fountain came to Linu county, Oregon, with his parents, Matthey and Eliza Fountain, when 4 years old and when a young man he came to Jackson county in the fall of 1870. He was married to Octavia Cooper of Phoenix, Ore., at Jacksonville, December 3, 1872. They made their home in this valley until November 13, 1886, when they went again as pioneers, to the then new country of Klamath county. For many years he was associated with his brother, J. D. Because of failing health they came to Medford in November, 1925, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Daily, where Mrs. Fountain passed away April 3, 1926, and where Mr. Fountain had since made his home.

Mr. Fountain was a man of sterling character, always ready to help his neighbor in sickness and need, a kind and most devoted husband. He leaves to mourn his loss three brothers, R. L. Fountain and Kallus Fountain, of Lewiston, Idaho, and Della Fountain, of California. Two others and a sister passed away in the last two years. Numerous nieces and nephews also survive him.

Funeral services will be held at the Perl Funeral Home, Sunday at 2:00 p. m. Interment in Medford I. O. O. F. cemetery.
