The Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church held its regular monthly and business meeting Tuesday afternoon, March 5.

Mrs. Newton Chaney presided over the meeting with Mrs. W. E. Robinson secretary and Mrs. Louis Ulrich treasurer, were among those present.

The usual reports of both secretary and treasurer were given with a report of the year's work by Mrs. Chaney.

The past year's work has not brought adequate results and a shortage of about $400 needed to meet the church pledge and other necessary requirements will have to be made up by the incoming group of officers and their co-workers.

These new officers will have besides this shortage to be made up, the regular pledge for the current year, which the members of this body of Christian workers annually donate towards the new building and the general expenses of the church.

It will behoove every member of the Woman's association to feel her personal responsibility to render every assistance possible to the incoming group of officers, consisting of Mrs. W. E. Tunny, president; Mrs. H. E. W. Spiller, first vice president; Mrs. A. J. Hanby, second vice president; Mrs. Krochel, treasurer, and Mrs. Oliver, secretary.

The outgoing officers were given a vote of thanks for services rendered, especially Mrs. Louis Ulrich, who had served as association treasurer for four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cook leave today for their future home in Portland, having shipped their household goods last week.

At that time, according to Mr. Miller, the book business was more profitable and flourishing than it is now, and they were able to sell the complete works of Shakespeare in the finest type of binding, as well as copious volumes of poetry.

The Medford book store has occupied its present location on North Central for the past nine years. Following the death of Mr. Davis, his partnership was continued by Mrs. Davis.

So far as Mr. Miller could ascertain, the Medford Book store has continued in business without a change in organization for a longer period of time than any other concern in Medford, outside of the Strang Drug store.
