HE WAS LIFELESS AND DESPONDENT

But ALL-BRAN made him wide-awake and well—doctor prescribed it

CONSTITUTION ruins hopes, saps strength. Yet thousands of sufferers have found the way to relieve and prevent this disease. Read how this man rid his system of constipation.

"During the three years before ALL-BRAN came into my life, I experienced more embarrassing moments than I care to tell of. Being lifeless, dull, laggard and despondent, I could not keep my job. My friends didn't want my company and I was tired of being asked 'What in the world is the matter with you?'

BEAGLE RESIDENTS VISIT BROWNSBORO CHURCH SERVICES

BEAGLE, Ore., March 15.—(Special)—Lola Gray has been in Medford for the past week with relatives.

Those who attended church at Brownsboro last Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Miss Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas and little daughter, Ina Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Moon and family, W. H. Smith and "Happy" Perry.

L. F. Swanson and Miss Anna Swanson were Medford visitors the first of the week.

Young people's meeting, led by the president, Ella Blackman, and prayer meeting led by Walter Blackman, were held at the school house last Sunday evening. "Faith" was the subject of the prayer meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Zuck and daughter, Fay Ora, were Medford visitors the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall and family and Mr. and Mrs. Young of Medford were Sunday guests at the home of Eugene Gray and family.

A number from here expect to attend the Bible conference which will be held in the Federated Union church in Central Point, Thursday, March 14.

The Boy Scouts held their regular meeting at the school house last Saturday evening. Merit badge work was taken up as the evening topic.

Miss Ila Smith and Mrs. Blackman were Medford and Central Point visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Eugene Gray, who has been sick for several weeks, is much better at this writing. Her many friends wish for her speedy recovery.

School Notes.
Monday, March 11, Ralph Ellis, a new fifth grader, entered our school.

The children are planning on taking an all-day hike Saturday, March 16, if the weather is permissible. A large number of the pupils are going.

We are making health posters to send to the county fair in September.

BROWNSBORO REVIVAL MEETINGS ARE CLOSED AFTER GOOD SUCCESS

BROWNSBORO, Ore., Mar. 15, (Special)—The revival meetings, which have been going on each evening for the past two weeks, closed last Sunday with an all-day meeting. The attendance at all the meetings was much better than was at first expected and about 15 adults and children took Jesus into their hearts and were converted.

Laurence Collins preached the sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday, talking for his text the subject of "Prayer." After the lunch hour, Rev. D. D. Randall preached on the "Two Resurrections," after which all were given a chance to testify for their Savior. These meetings have been a great spiritual help to all who have attended.

Many visitors were present from Central Point, Rogue River, Antioch and from near Medford. The Brownsboro Sunday school requests the leaving for Canada of Lawrence and Louis Collins, and the help they have given us through the winter will always be remembered and appreciated. Beginning this week, prayer meeting will be held every Thursday evening at 7:30.

The P.-T.-A. will hold a meeting at the schoolhouse next Friday evening at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Nichols of Fort Klamath have been visiting at the home of Mrs. McDonald.

GRANGE TO HAVE BIRTHDAY SUPPER AT SAMS VALLEY

SAMS VALLEY, Ore., Mar. 15.—(Special)—Grange meets Saturday evening with the regular birthday supper in honor of March members. Roll call will be answered by remembrances of the place of your birth. Other interesting numbers will be given.

Dr. Chubbin of Gold Hill was summoned Wednesday to attend Mrs. Minnie Webber, who has been sick for several days.

Cars loaded with town folks passed through out district Sunday. Many were in quest of the beautiful lamb's tongues, but it is a little too early for these flowers yet.

It is reported that two prominent citizens of Gold Hill have lately made purchase of the Hauptmann farm, which they expect to improve extensively by tilling and seeding to alfalfa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cook of Gold Hill visited Monday with friends in the district.

Sunday Mrs. J. Frink and Mrs. Mary McKinnis of the upper valley and members of the Sams Valley Grange, visited Miss Frances Wilson, a measles victim, and checked her up with their pleasant faces and beautiful flowers.

The snow and rain of this week was considered worth a valuable sum to all farmers and orchardists of our section.

Mrs. J. L. Rowe is making week-end visit to Jacksonville to be treated at the Jenkins sanitarium.

W. W. Edgington is proud of his little bunch of sheep which he purchased a year ago from a local market. From the 19 young ewes he has 32 lambs, a pleasing increase to Mr. Edgington, since the sheep market is still high.

Since the unwelcome visitor, measles, is behind schedule we are yet able to record the week's happenings for the community.

Saturday afternoon young Harry Jones and Miss Marian Goty stole quietly to Medford and got coupled up for a life contract. Both young people are well known in our community where the groom was born and raised and where the bride has resided for the past two years. The young couple will reside at the present at the home of the groom's parents.

We are sorry to record that several members of the Vincent family, including Gyp the father, are still very sick of pneumonia.

With the warm, sunny afternoons and daily appearance of newly hatched chicks, young lambs and budding lamb's tongues, every indication points strongly to an early spring.

W. W. Edgington and daughter, Miss Mary, attended the funeral services of James A. Clark at Medford Thursday.

Mrs. J. W. Jones is in Portland this week for medical treatment.

Among Sams Valley Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dodge of Medford, Mrs. C. W. Sage, Marian Nealon and R. E. Nealon of Table Rock and Miss Doris Richardson of Beall lane.

Tables giving detailed figures on timber sales, recreation, grazing, planting and special forest uses are also published in it.
