What. PORTLAND, Ore., March 19.—(AP)—Tens of thousands of Norwegians gave their country's crown prince and his bride-to-be, Princess Martha of Sweden, a rousing welcome as they arrived here from Sweden this morning.

Prince Olaf, who had left his fiancée at the Swedish harbor last night and hurried on to Oslo, arrived first, Princess Martha following in a special train with her entourage an hour later.

A red carpet had been laid over the railway station platform and the young princess stepped from her car onto it, where Prince Olaf and his father and mother, king and queen of Norway, awaited her.

The princess beamed radiantly as she was introduced to the members of the reception committee, which included Prime Minister Mowinkel, other members of the government and high military and naval officials.
