

Girls, don't worry about middle age

Lots to recommend it, if you keep fit

TELL a sensible woman of 50 that she looks like the older sister rather than the mother of her children, and she just laughs at you.

"I'm middle-aged," she'll declare, "and not trying to hide the fact. Why should I? Middle age has a lot in its favor—that is, if you're well and healthy."

"Sick? Never had a doctor in my life except when my babies came. Never had the habit of dosing myself with pills and medicines, either. I just took Nujol—all the time my babies were coming, and in between times, too. I'll always depend on Nujol."

"Even the healthiest woman is better off by taking Nujol—especially at times when her system is apt to be thrown off balance and her regular functions upset. This pure substance keeps your system functioning normally and naturally even under abnormal conditions. It not only prevents an excess of body poisons (we all have them) from forming, but aids in their removal. It's these poisons that age people prematurely. Make them feel old and tired and useless."

Nujol isn't a medicine or drug. For this reason it can't possibly disagree with you or upset you. It is simply a pure natural product. It works effectively without being drastic.

Start Nujol now. You'll find Nujol at all drugstores. In sealed packages only. Get a bottle today.

BOOZE PARTY IS STAGED IN JAIL, JAILER IS FIRED

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 20.—(AP)—So he called the police.

"Hello, sergeant. This is a prisoner at the George street jail. I wish you'd send a cop down here. The jailer and the other seven prisoners are all drunk as boiled owls. Making an awful racket. I want to get some sleep."

The police responded. Today Assistant Jailer Claude Elchar was was out of a job—summarily dismissed—and he had a terrible headache, too. The seven merry-making prisoners were in solitary confinement. The teetotaler jailbird was calmly sweeping out, all alone.

He got the idea, Elchar told Chief of Police Davis, at the barber shop. He said he felt so good after getting a shave, shine, shampoo, massage and a few drinks, that he bought a jug of the stuff, went back to the jail, unlocked the cells and staged the party.

BLUE DANUBE, ICE CHOKED, THREATEN MORE HEAVY RUIN

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia, March 20.—(AP)—Thousands of families along the right bank of the Danube lost their homes, cattle and other belongings today in the worst flood since 1872.

Augmented by thousands of mountain streams, lakes and other tributaries, the swollen waters of the Danube were rushing past towns and villages along the banks throwing huge ice barriers around Bratislava and other towns, completely isolating them.

Czechoslovak artillerymen and engineers, after failing to demolish 40-foot ice barriers with mortars, howitzers and high explosives, bored large holes in the masses of ice and inserted large projectiles, which they exploded by electricity. The terrific detonations of the shells startled the population with revived memories of the world war.

The great river, which is choked with millions of tons of thawing ice, was rising steadily and threatening further disaster. Church bells tolled along its 1800 mile length, warning riparian dwellers to flee for their lives.

EX-CONVICT SLAIN IN HOME, CLIMAX GANG SHOOTING

NEW YORK, March 20.—(AP)—A squad of four or five rangers drove up to the apartment of Frank Sacco, a former convict, in Astoria, Queens, this morning, battered down the door and shot him and his wife, Rose, to death. Half a dozen or more shots were fired and the slayers escaped in their automobile.

Sacco, the police said, was released from Sing Sing prison about a month ago, where he had served a term for perjury. They said that search of police records indicated that the slayings were in revenge for testimony that Sacco gave in a trial which followed a gang shooting in April, 1925, in which one man was killed and Sacco seriously wounded.

The slain couple had evidently expected trouble, for the police found that the inside of the door leading to their apartment was heavily sheathed with iron. Sacco was found on the bedroom floor with a pistol in his hand. His wife was on the bed. Both bodies had numerous bullet holes in them.

KING GEORGE WILL NOT ATTEND GRAND NATIONAL SPRINT

LIVERPOOL, Mar. 20.—(AP)—King George, convalescing at Bognor, not only will not see the grand national run-off at Aintree, but will not even risk the nervous excitement of listening to accounts of it broadcast over the radio. The Prince of Wales, however, plans to take the day off, and with crowds of other Londoners, pile into one of the 300 special trains which will speed from the capital to Liverpool early Friday morning and return immediately after the great race.

Members of the royal families of the old world have been counted upon to watch the classic at Aintree. Last year King Amanullah of Afghanistan saw America's pride, Billy Barton, fall and bump his nose at the last jump, ending his chance to win the race. Since that exciting moment, King Amanullah himself has been unseated by the Afghans.

Everything is in readiness for Billy Barton's arrival at Aintree today. The other American entries either are here or are arriving today. The weather prospects for the week end are good, and the Aintree course is in fine condition so far as the bumps and the turf are concerned. The brides today are getting their final "hair cut" to level their uneven tops.

2 WOMEN OVER 80 WIN LAURELS IN NATIONAL SPRINT EDUCATION FIELD

CHICAGO, Mar. 20.—(AP)—For the second time within a week a woman past the allotted three-score-and-ten has shown the world that education knows no age limit. A week ago Mrs. Alice Arrett, 81 years old, qualified to become a high school freshman, being among the first graduates in the Seneca school elementary class. Today, Mrs. Etta Adair, 71, of San Diego, Cal., held a bachelor of philosophy degree from the University of Chicago, given her at yesterday's convocation.

Mrs. Garrett is the mother of Garet Garrett, well known writer. She was graduated from school 63 years ago, and even taught a few years before marriage. She explained her return to school by saying that she wanted to "write something really worth a hile," and that the only way to do it was to brush upon her education.

Mrs. Adair, who is a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, keeps fit by daily exercises. She rises early and said she doesn't have to diet and that she can "eat all the sweets she wants."

Speaking at the commencement exercises, the 81-year-old woman said: "Salomon declared that when we find how little we know, it is the beginning of wisdom. I agree. I wish to fit myself for higher and greater accomplishments."

She plans to rest a year and then seek her master's degree.

OAKLAND, Cal., March 20.—(AP)—Efforts to solve the murder of Mabel Mayer, 15-year-old Oakland girl in July, 1927, were renewed by the police today after an officer had identified D. A. Barnett, convicted child stealer, as the man he had seen with the Mayer girl several times shortly before her disappearance.

The Weather. Oregon: Unsettled with occasional rains tonight and Thursday; moderate temperature. Moderate to fresh southerly winds on the coast.

WILL DO ALL IT CLAIMS TO DO

Mrs. Steele Says of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pratt, W. Va.—"I was so weak and nervous that I was in bed most all the time and couldn't sit up and I am only 50 years old. I saw your advertisement in a magazine and after I had taken three doses of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could feel that I was better. After taking two bottles I began doing my work and I feel like a new woman. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and say it will do all it claims to do and more. I will gladly answer all letters I receive."—Mrs. S. E. STEELE, Pratt, W. Va.
