

WILD FLOWERS IN BEAGLE DISTRICT PRESAGE SEASON

BEAGLE, Ore., Mar. 22.—(Special.)—Spring has surely arrived as the wild flowers are in full blossom on the hillsides. Quite a number of our young folks went flower picking last Sunday afternoon.

Those who attended the Bible conference at Central Point, March 14th, were Mr. and Miss Swanson, Mrs. Frink, Miss Ruth Frink, Mr. and Mrs. Zuck, Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson, Thelma and Milton Sanderson.

Lafe Southerland was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gray and family. Our community has been visited by more sickness this winter than for several years. It seems we have had something going all the time. The last report is a case of chickenpox.

The young people's meeting last Sunday evening was led by Thelma Sanderson. The subject was the Christian Church. A special song was rendered by Ethna and Lois Gray and Ella Blackman. The prayer meeting was led by Mr. Swanson, the subject being Love.

The Boy Scouts held their regular meeting Saturday evening. The boys are "brushing up" a little these days, getting ready for inspection meeting which will be held here the last of the month.

L. F. Swanson and Miss Anna Swanson attended Sunday school at the Meadows last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Swanson is superintendent of that Sunday school and of the Antioch Sunday school also.

The Beagle farmers are busy finishing up their spring sowing of grain. This is unusual for this district for this time of the year. "Happy" Perry is on the sick list this week. He is having an attack of the flu.

Sam Vale was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moon and family.

The county road grader was working in our district the middle of the week.

Raymond Mayfield had the good fortune of catching a large coyote in one of his traps last Tuesday.

Charles Nutter of Astoria spent the last week end visiting with Cleo and Jack Sims.

Claude McIntyre and wife and daughter were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gray and family.

Harold and Lois Sims, who are on the Sams Valley high school basketball team, have been attending the tournament at Ashland.

The children are bringing many wild flowers to school to save for our wild flower collection. Our school yard is very pretty as the flowers that were planted last year are blooming.

ANTELOPE GARDENS AIDED BY SHOWERS

ANTELOPE, Ore., Mar. 22.—(Special.)—Showers and warmer weather have started the grass and early gardens in this section. Ben Kingsley and family were welcome callers in this vicinity Sunday.

Mr. Arthur has just returned from a business trip to Eugene and Roseburg.

Lester Bradshaw and mother attended the funeral of Mrs. M. D. Bowles.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stanley attended the lecture of poultry at Eagle Point Thursday.

When your Children Cry for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria. At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night may find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Give a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that baby becomes fretful, or restless, Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every drug store has it.

ROGUE RIVER HAS GOOD LAUGH WITH SHOW AT SCHOOL

(By Mrs. Myrtle E. Whipple)

ROGUE RIVER, Ore., March 22.—(Special.)—The play given Tuesday night at the school auditorium by the ladies of the Civic Improvement Club, was well attended and every one enjoyed the evening from start to finish. The title of the play was "The Great Plumber Breach of Promise Case."

The cast, entirely made up of ladies of the club, was as follows:

Squire Wright, Justice of the Peace, Mrs. Lulu Trotter; Benjamin Scoggs, bailiff, Mrs. Effie Erdmeyer; Alonzo Highty Tightly, defendant, Mrs. Baker; Abigail Plummer, plaintiff, Mrs. Edna O'Kelly; John Goodman, counsel for the plaintiff, Mrs. Elsie Grimmett; Joe Sharp, counsel for the defendant, Mrs. Fern Eads; Mrs. Alonzo Highty Tightly, a spectator, Mrs. Lora Carter; Jane Walsh, Leah Shepherd, Lucy Webster, Mrs. Heck; Bridget O'Rourke, Mrs. Wiley; Mrs. Charity Plummer, Mrs. Botkin; witnesses for the plaintiff, Mercy Love, Mrs. Phelps; Amelia Old Girl, Mrs. Thelma Thomas, witnesses for the defendant.

Each one of the characters acted their parts well and the make-ups were great. The time was the year 1901 and the ladies were dressed in keeping with that time.

Members of Live Oak Grange and a few friends met at the hall Monday night and enjoyed a basket supper at 6 o'clock after which some interesting talks were given. Mrs. Westerfield was introduced by the lecturer and will give us a talk at our next meeting on Monday, April 1.

The remainder of the evening was enjoyed by games and visiting.

Master and Mrs. Anderson of Central Point were visitors. Master Bowen, W. H. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dimmick and Mr. and Mrs. George Heers of Enterprise Grange were also visitors.

Wilbur Milton, son of Will Milton is very ill at the Grants Pass hospital.

N. O. C. Miller returned Wednesday evening to his home at the Waldorf hotel from the Grants Pass hospital where he has been a patient for a few days.

James Whipple is attending court in Medford being one of the jurors for this term of court. Miss Dorris Sandry returned Sunday to her school duties at Corvallis, having spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Santry.

Jack Gardner of Spokane, Wash., has returned to Rogue River and will reside here for awhile.

Little Neil Thompson has been real sick with a cold the past week but is better now.

Zimmerman Bros., who run a saw mill on Footh Creek have hauled in a quantity of different sorts of lumber and stored it in the Neathammer building across from the Waldorf. Anyone wishing to buy any lumber can do so by seeing J. M. Whipple.

Alden Galbreath returned home from Portland one day this week where he has been for several weeks, taking treatments for the injury which he received some time ago. Mr. Sandry, who was also at Portland, will remain for a couple of weeks longer.

Mrs. Law, teacher of the 7th and 8th grades, visited with Mrs. Ellen Benson at Central Point over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Artie Nichols of Klamath county visited at the Wiley Carter ranch over the week-end.

Ovella Dingler of Roseburg visited home folks Sunday. He was accompanied home Sunday evening by his wife and daughter who have been visiting here the past week.

Live Oak Grange will have another "overall and apron" dance at their hall here on Monday night, March 25. These dances are proving quite popular and a very large crowd attended the last one.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McGregor have moved from Anderson camp to the house recently vacated by R. E. Kichman.

R. Gouvan and Howard Robbins of Riddle visited Sunday in Rogue River.

Mrs. Fred Dingler was a Grants Pass shopper Wednesday. Mrs. Tenney was also a business visitor at the Pass Wednesday.

Reed Carter, who is noted as an early producer of tomatoes has about 300 nice, large plants in his green house. He has these set one plant in a can and they will be in bloom by the time weather will permit him to set them out doors.

Rogue River is being visited by a nice rain, which the farmers claim is much needed.

Mrs. M. R. Bliss visited at the Wiley Carter home Sunday.

A county steam shovel is at work on the Wimer road, doing much needed work in widening the road. Since so many logging trucks pass over this road it is very dangerous in places.

Miss Gladys Sandry and Miss Loretta Mason were Grants Pass visitors Wednesday evening. Albin Dennis is ill at his home and Jimmy Blackburn is driving the school bus.

The county health nurse is a frequent visitor at Rogue River, looking over the scarlet fever situation. There are a few mild cases, but no more seem to appear.

Mrs. Tryer of Grants Pass was a visitor at the Fred O'Kelly home Tuesday evening and attended the play at the school auditorium.

LAKE CREEK GRANGE WILL HAVE ANOTHER DANCE ON SATURDAY

LAKE CREEK, Ore., March 24.—(Special.) Another Grange dance will be given in the Lake Creek hall on Saturday, March 24. Come and bring your friends. You'll have a good time. The last Grange meeting, a social one, was held Thursday evening, March 14. If you call was answered by some very amusing Irish jokes. Another number featuring St. Patrick's day was "A Lyric of the Emerald Isle" in which a large collection of Irish songs were sung. A pleasing one among these was that old favorite, "My Wild Irish Rose," well rendered by Mrs. George Brown, Floyd Charley and Loren Earlow, and beautifully illustrated by Miss Julia Sidley. "A Southern Lecture by Uncle Ike," by Russ Moore, and "Clear as Mud," by Melvin Wright were humorous selections.

Reports on the speeches of National Lecturer Mrs. James C. Farnago, heard in Medford some time ago, were given by Floyd Charley, Reed Charley, Mrs. Myrtle Charley, Mrs. Nora Bradshaw and Mrs. Mabel Brown.

The next meeting, a business one, will be held on Thursday evening, March 28. The lecturer has been asked to give a report on her trip to Corvallis to the Lecturers' conference held there in February.

The passing of Mrs. M. D. Bowles Friday morning, March 15, came as a shock to the entire Lake Creek community. Loved and respected by all who knew her, Mrs. Bowles had resided in that district for more than forty years, and is perhaps the best known pioneer citizen in the entire community.

Besides her husband, she is survived by four sons, W. I. Almy of Lake Creek; E. J. Almy, of Washburn, Calif.; L. T. Almy of Washington, and George Almy of El Paso, Texas.

friends as Aunt James, Mrs. Bowles was beloved by children and grown-ups alike, and will be greatly missed by all.

She was a faithful member of the Lake Creek Grange and that order wishes to extend its most heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and sons.
