COMPETITION FOR MACKS AND YANKS IN PENNANT RACE

ATLANTA, Ga., March 23.—(AP) Early slug batters have read correctly signs in the American league baseball sky, there will be no two-team race this season. In 1928 the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics thundered to the wire neck and neck, the Yankees finally nosing out the A's. The St. Louis Browns, in third place, were 16 games back.

As the new season approaches with its fresh trials and problems, it may be found that the Yankees and Athletics have shown less improvement than the other six clubs in the circuit. On their performance last year they were well able to leave well enough alone, but the opposition seems to have taken up the challenge in earnest.

Of the four second division clubs in 1928, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Boston, the Detroit Tigers, under new management and partially renovated, seem to furnish the most serious threat to the teams higher up.

Earl Lary, the high priced new shortstop of the Yankees, has found himself at home and Mark Koenig, doubtless will do well enough at third base. Tony Lazzeri's arm remains something of a question mark, but his hitting power has not been touched. With Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig able to swing their big bats, most of the experts agree that little or nothing can be done about the pennant chase without consulting Manager Miller Huggins.

Connie Mack has stood pat on the personnel of the Athletics, but his rearranged the infield. Jimmy Fox, the hard hitting catcher, third baseman and first baseman, will be the regular first sacker. Jimmy Dykes, who literally can play anywhere, is the leading third base candidate. The A's infield under the new management may prove to be stronger. Manager Mack has only one extra outfielder of experience, Homer Summa, late of Cleveland, and will need at least one more.

Press Comment on Medford's Champ Basketball Squad

Medford has won another championship basketball title. It will be remembered that the southern Oregon metropolis had a football team so much better than any other that it hardly had a close game during the season. Now the Medford basketball team goes through the tournament with hardly a close shave. It is a wonderful record.

What is the reason for every town wants winning athletic teams, both for the joy of winning and for the advertising such teams bring a city? Medford is fortunate to have a top notch coach, but this cannot account for it all. An additional reason seems to be that Medford, both by having built up a reputation for success and by aggressive tactics gets the best material in southern Oregon. Material is of enormous importance in athletic success. The best coaches in the great colleges and universities recognize that. Material is probably the main answer to Medford's success. Getting the best athletes is the basic factor in athletic achievement. If you do not have it, and most high schools have it only once in a while, you fall before the school that does have it. As long as Medford can secure the best athletes in her section of the state she will continue to win and no one will stop her. If Baker, Pendleton or La Grande had the pick of this section, eastern Oregon would have teams of that calibre.—(Dakota Herald-Democrat).

A CHAMPIONSHIP AND GAMES

The Medford high school basketball team won the state championship because it had the power to rally after making a poor start. It is game.

We think that this quality explains many a victory on football, golf, basketball, tennis, baseball, diamond, in fact on every theater of action where athletic contests are held.

The team that has the gameness to stage a rally, to pull itself together when it sees things going badly, is the one that finds its name in the championship column. Such a team will defeat a superior one that has a greater degree of ability and finish but that lacks the gameness necessary to pull itself together.

It is our opinion that too frequently we give praise to the coaches for turning out victors when the real cause of victory was the teams' latent ability to pull themselves out of a bad situation. The coach who is worth his salt, of course, develops this quality in his teams and insofar as he does this he is responsible for its achievement. But lots of times we praise the coach's strategy and his leadership when it is his pupils' gameness that was the real reason.

As a matter of fact, it is this quality of staging a comeback after a poor start that is the one worth while by-product of athletics. It is a rare possession to carry into one's career. The man who can see his fortunes going to pieces and rally himself without despairing, who has the courage to look them squarely in the face and right what is wrong is the one who can't be kept down. He will be certain to emerge from his combat with victory perching on his shoulders.

ASTORIA MEETS DEFEAT GAMES

Though they were defeated in the finals of the state championship basketball playoffs, Astoria high school's basketball players nevertheless have returned home from Salem with high honors. It is no small triumph to have battled through that tournament to second place among all the best high school teams of the state and to have won their way to the finals by defeating the Portland team which was the champion last year. They lost to the champion team when they were defeated by Medford and there is no sting in losing to such a team. Astoria has nothing but a proud welcome to give to Coach Warren and his athletes on their return.—(Astoria Bulletin).

PORTLAND STILL A FEEBLE TEAM

ANAHAIM, Cal., Mar. 23.—(AP) Circuit bouts over the center field fence off the bat of Red McDaniels in the second and ninth innings, gave the Seattle Indians a 2-1 victory over the Portland Beavers in a Pacific Coast league exhibition game here this afternoon.

McDaniels crashed over another homer for the Indians in the fifth, struck batter one over the left field wall for the Beavers in the second inning.

The score: P. H. E.
Seattle 7 10 4
Portland 2 4 5
Kallio, Garabam and Boracauli back and Volkmann.

CHICAGO, March 23.—(AP) Mickey Walker, no longer a toy building, but a big one of close to 176 pounds, unlimbered his heavy artillery today a few hours after his arrival to finish training for the light heavyweight match with Tommy Loughran Thursday night. Walker boxed five torrid rounds, particularly the last two with a negro warrior, Tom Jones, and Mickey were letting their right hands fly in the last round with a big crowd screaming for them to continue. Walker boxed three rounds ahead of that with Tom Kirby, Boston light heavy.

SPORT BRIEFS

Miami, Fla., Mar. 23.—(AP) Gar Wood late today failed to sweep terms of a mile in hour of breaking the world's straightaway speed boat record, with his trimmotor craft "Miss America VII." His average over the Indian river course was 92.12 miles an hour. The previous record 92.825 miles an hour, set at Detroit last fall, was by Gar Wood's brother, George, in the same boat.

Included in the delegation will be the nationally known Ben All band and patrol.

The news that Ben All would send a special train from Sacramento to the Shrine meeting in Medford next month, was greeted with much enthusiasm by members of the committee in charge of the event and according to Jerry Jerome, T.H.H. Patente, assure the greatest and most spectacular gathering of Shrines ever held in this section of the coast. It is expected that in excess of 20 novices will attempt the crossing of the burning sands as the feature event of the get-together. BOOZE CARS SOLD AT LOW FIGURES

Five automobiles, seized by federal authorities for transportation of intoxicating liquor, were sold yesterday afternoon at the police station by Federal Agent Terry Talbot at bargain prices, ranging from $23 to $215. The bidding was spirited and the sale was attended by a large crowd of prospective buyers and speculators.

The prices were as follows: 1924 Buick coach, $23; 1924 Buick master six, $215; Oakland coupe, $200; 1925 Oakland touring, $195; 1925 Ford touring, $23.

LEGION AND LADIES WILL DANCE MONDAY

The meeting of Medford post of the American Legion and Auxiliary Monday evening will be somewhat in the nature of a joint affair as the organizations will enjoy dancing and supper together as soon as the evening business sessions are concluded.

Monday's meeting will be the last before the curtain goes up on the Legion's big "Whoopie Revue" at the Craterian theatre, Monday, April 1.

Work on the show has progressed well during the past few days and even the participants are optimistic, a condition rarely encountered in the cast of home talent productions.

VETERAN INDIAN FIGHTER ON VISIT

I guess I'm still better than some of the younger men, even if I am 52 years old," said Captain O. C. Applegate, well known Indian war fighter of Klamath Falls, just before leaving yesterday afternoon for his home, following a short visit in Medford with relatives.

"I can still read without glasses," he continued, "never had a hair on my face, and don't expect to until I reach 100." Despite his advanced years, Captain Applegate is still an active man and makes frequent trips to this city. While waiting for his stage to leave, he was talking with another old gentleman, 87 years old, who also claimed he did not use glasses for reading purposes.

Captain Applegate is a brother of Mrs. Mose Alford and Mrs. Alice Applegate Agent of Jacksonville, and has a son and several grandchildren in this city.

BUSY FORTNIGHT FOR ELKS' LODGE

The next two meetings of the Medford lodge of Elks will be important ones. Next Thursday night, which will be the last time the present regime will be in power will be especially notable in that another large class of candidates and by far the largest which has been taken in in recent years, numbering around 30, will be initiated that night.

There will be all the attendant seriousness, followed by fun on such occasions and there will be an excellent entertainment program besides loads of luckhound abscondities and a good feed. The Elks' band, of course, will take a big part.

Then on the first Thursday night in April comes the installation of the new officers, elected some time ago, with all its attendant ceremonies and cultured and luxurious settings.

VIENNA.—A national profession company will be founded here with Austrian capital. Austrian artists will be favored and the company will have special rights in the republic.

MAYTAG FORCE ON TRIP TO KLAMATH

The force of the local Maytag shop left yesterday afternoon for Klamath Falls where a joint dinner and meeting was held with the sales crew of that city last night. A feature of the meeting was the whiskey contest, which is being carried on by the local branch as an incentive to more sales. The local sales force, men members only, of course, was pledged not to shave until their sales reached a certain quota.

However, it may not be long until shaves will again be popular, as Maytags are reported to be selling rapidly in the local district and are steadily becoming more popular with the homewives.

The local office was represented at Klamath Falls by Miss Katie O'Rourke, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. York, George Herriott, Karl Herriott, P. W. Carl, R. S. L. Fretter and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leman.
