BRYANT TRIAL AT CORVALLIS OPENS MONDAY MORNING

CORVALLIS, Ore., Mar. 23.—(AP) The first murder trial in more than ten years in this college town will open Monday when the state will demand the life of Lanza Bryant, 20, for the killing of Lewis (Hip) Dickerson, senior student and former football star at Oregon State college.

Dickerson was stabbed fatally early in the morning of December 17, last, as he was escorting Miss Mae Troxell, a town waitress, to her home.

The state will charge that Bryant, prompted by jealousy, struck at Dickerson first with his fist, and then when the athlete, a giant in stature, grappled with him, stabbed him with a long-bladed knife. The wound from which Dickerson died five days later, was through theb ack.

Proves Weight

TOMMY LOUGHRAN

CHICAGO, Mar. 23.—(AP)—Having convinced the most skeptical he can make the 175-pound limit, Tommy Loughran settled down to his training grind again today for his light-heavyweight championship battle with Mickey Walker.

To spike the overweight rumor, Loughran weighed himself before 2,000 fans yesterday. He set the scales at 178 pounds, but did not tip the beam at that figure. With that, he stepped off, leaving many guessing his weight from 173 to 177 pounds.

Promoter Paddy Harmon, meanwhile, proved the fallacy of another rumor—that the $7,000,000 Chicago stadium would not be ready for the match Thursday night. He held open house and exhibited letters from architects who said the vast amphitheatre could be put in readiness for the fight within 24 hours notice.

HARD WORK FACES HOOVER PLANNING FOR NEW SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 23.—(AP)—President Hoover's capacity for fast work and plenty of it, will get an even more rigorous test during the three weeks immediately ahead than it has in the first three weeks of his administration.

With congress to meet in extraordinary session on April 15, tasks will pile upon him which ordinarily a new chief executive would not be called upon to face until after he had been able to give considerably more time to getting the machinery of his administration running at top speed.

Conferences with congressional leaders on the form of the farm relief bill and the limited tariff revision measure as well as the preparation of his message to the special session on those subjects will eat heavily into his time as he labors with purely administration matters and the filling of many important government posts.

PORTLAND TEXACO GAS PRICE RAISED

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 23.—(AP) There were no 16½-cent gasoline signs in Portland to attract the motorist. Later in the day the Portland Retail Gasoline Dealers' Protective association announced that the standard retail price for gasoline in the city had been set at 29½ cents and that all dealers would meet that figure.

Texas company had been selling at 16½ cents although all other companies had increased their prices.

For the month of February, this year, the total distribution was 8,848,216 gallons of gasoline and 237,000 gallons of distillate, and the tax was $268,208.29. The figures for February, 1928, were 8,423,632.25 gallons of gasoline, 1186,267 gallons of distillate and a tax of $257,382.35.

DOROTHY ORTH IS INSTALLED QUEEN SCHOOL CARNIVAL

Marking the greatest success of the year, the junior carnival held at the senior high school last evening, attracted a large number of townspeople, as well as a good representation from each of the grade schools, and junior high.

Concessions and shows were open at seven, and promptly at eight o'clock, Miss Dorothy Orth, lovely carnival queen, was crowned by Roan Green, vice-president of the junior class. The other candidates for queen attended Miss Orth, and a very attractive procession was the result. The junior class also presented Miss Orth with a beautiful pearl necklace.

The booths which lined the walls of the gymnasium were all very attractive, and held many different objects of amusements. One concession which received a great deal of trade was the boys' beauty parlor, in charge of a number of high school girls.

The boys' popularity contest, which is being carried on during girls' week at school, started last night, with the announcement of the candidates for the honor. Only girls are allowed to vote in this contest, and final results will be announced Friday evening, April 5, at which time the girls' league will give a dance. The winners will be presented with a very attractive and useful gift.

Miss Garagoza said the train on which she rode from Mexico City to Guadalajara recently was held up by "Cristeros," religious supporters of the revolution.

Banks at Mazatlan, where she took a ship for San Francisco, were closed, Miss Garagoza said. The populace was short of food and general conditions were bad in the harbor city, she declared.

MOUSE In Pants Leg WRECKS Hoquiam Man's AUTO

TACOMA, Wash., Mar. 23.—(AP) From Hoquiam comes the latest nursery rhyme:

Hickery, dickery dock,
The mouse ran up his sock;
The sock came down,
But the mouse ran on—
Because of the which
The car hit the ditch.
Hickery, dickery, dock.

Charles D. Becker narrowly escaped injury, if not death, when a mouse suddenly appeared in his car as he was driving to Hoquiam from the Lake Quinault district. The mouse ran up his leg and while he was trying to rid himself of it, he released the steering wheel. The car went into the ditch and was wrecked.
